Market News

STOCK PRICES ARE STRONGER

PORTLAND QUOTATIONS ENTHUSE WEEK-END SELLERS.

Eastern Oregonians Will Find New Strength Unless Saturday Changes Prices.

Unless there should be a change in the meantime, the Eastern Oregon stock specials rolling into Portland Sunday afternoon from La Grande and hereabouts will find a new strength in the stock prices.

Shortly before noon yesterday the Portland market top on valley lambs advanced to $6.75 and one carload was sold at that price. Additional strength was also shown in hogs when two loads topped the market at $10.

A brisk demand followed by a firmer tone was the principal feature of the North Portland livestock market during the early trading. Thursday a total of nine cars arrived. Twenty-four cattle, two calves and one car were through stock.

The hog market took its second jump within the past 24 hours when it advanced another 25 cents at Portland Thursday morning.

PORTLAND MARKETS.

PORTLAND, July 8.—Cattle were 50 cents higher, choice steers $6.75 and $7.50; hogs 25 cents higher, prime light $8.50 and $10; sheep, eggs and butter firm.
