Local News In Brief

To Make Home in Kansas—

Mrs. Hattie E. Allen, of Sumner, Mo., was an east bound passenger last evening for Topeka, Kansas, where she is to make her future home.

Special Program Tomorrow—

The La Grande Ward Sunday school of the L. D. S. church will observe its twentieth anniversary tomorrow morning with a special program at ten thirty.

Hardware Concern Fined—

The Oregon Hardware and Implement company was fined $5 this morning by Municipal Judge R. J. Kitchen for using a dealer's license plate on one of its trucks. A plea of guilty was made.

Demonstration on Maggot—

County Agent Avers went to Elgin this morning on an orchard inspection tour and to attend a demonstration meeting held for farmers of the Elgin county relative to the maggot which is making an appearance in wheat fields. He was accompanied by A. W. Nelson of the Observer.

Roofers in Baker—

Edward Crossen and his crew of expert roofers are here from La Grande. Mr. Crossen makes a business of painting and repairing roofs. He has just completed the roof of the high school at North Powder, also some eight or nine buildings at Haines. The roofs of the Baker Y. M. C. A. are buildings he has recently completed. A large number of other buildings of Baker have also been repaired by Mr. Crossen.

Swimming Tank Ready—

All Country Club members are invited to try out the new swimming tank tomorrow. Several who have already tried it, say that the water is fine and by Sunday it will be be taken so long as the irrigating water does not injure the roadway. Until the highway between Hot Lake and Union is opened vehicles are expected to use the foothill road.

Will Tell Experiences—

Pryor T. Smith, who was announced to speak in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning, giving a report of his experiences at Seabeck, will not do so until next Sunday, July 17th. This postponement has been made on account of the fact that next Sunday is the time for the regular communion service and also Rev. Mr. Smith will be away all of next week at Corvallis and might not get home in time for the morning service. In any case, his son will speak that morning.

Gibbs Will Occupy Pulpit—

The Rev. Upton H. Gibbs, a former well known citizen of La Grande, and for thirteen years rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church, arrived in the city yesterday for a few days' visit among his former parishioners. It was hoped that he could have been here a few days earlier to attend the convocation held here last week but his business engagements prevented that. Mrs. Gibbs however was among convocation delegates, and Mr. Gibbs will occupy his old pulpit at St. Peter's next Sunday morning. While in town they will be guests of Mrs. Moira Sargent, 1906 Second street.

Wallowa Court This Month—

Judge J. W. Knowles and H. Hanna, court reporter, will go to Enterprise July 18, where the adjourned May term of the Wallowa county circuit court will convene on that day. A large number of cases were unfinished when adjournment was taken May 31 in order to convene the Union county circuit court in June.

"Calling Over the Coals."

Our forefathers had a custom of requiring a guilty person to endure the ordeal of the burning plover, or hot embers, and from this is sprung our modern phrase, "to call over the coals," meaning to reprimand severely.

CONWAY TEARLE AT ARCADE ON SUNDAY

In "Bucking the Tiger" in the Selznick Pictures feature which will be the chief attraction at the Arcade theatre Sunday only, with Conway Tearle in the stellar role, the management have secured one of the most dramatic offerings which has been seen in La Grande for some time.

In Macdonald, the black sheep of a wealthy family who have shipped him out west to keep him out of the newspapers scandal pages, Conway Tearle is said to have a role that is excellently adapted to his personality. It is one of those nonchalant, ever-ready-with-his-flat parts into which this star shippily seems to step himself.

A comedy will also be shown.

WARNER'S
UNDERWEAR

"It doesn't make any difference what Dempsey says about drawing a color line, the public wants Dempsey whipped, and the public knows I am the one to do it. I have a war record to be proud of." Johnson said he "did secret service work for the government in Spain during the war."

Chief Flexer has announced that wreckless driving will no longer be tolerated and all failing to keep their machines under control in the congested district will be dealt with in court. "This is the only means we have of protecting life and property," he said. "Several other accidents during the past few months have been due primarily to not having the car under control and although no lives were lost if such carelessness is not stopped the time will come when a reckless driver will be the cause of a fatal accident."

"Hit the Nail on the Head," now suggests the competent carpenter, but originally referred to the nail or pin which marked the center of the bull's eye.—Ernest Weekley in the Coronilla Magazine (London).

RECKLESS DRIVING IS TABOOED BY POLICE

Warrant Out for Driver of Car
Crashing into Donohue Store
This Week.

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Mrs. Ella Ryneason charging her with reckless driving. Mrs. Ryneason lives in the country and as soon as Chief of Police Roy Flexer comes across her while she is in town again he will invite her to attend Judge Kitchen's court.

The warrant was issued following a thorough investigation of the accident Thursday, when Mrs. Ryneason's car collided with the Donohue furniture store, the car going through a plate glass window and causing considerable damage. She is said to have been driving at an excessive rate of speed and could not get her car under control in avoiding collision with another machine. In the warrant she is charged with failing to keep her car under control and endangering lives and property.
