Origin of Name Wood.
That the first who bore the name Wood dwelt near or adjacent to a wood there can be no reasonable doubt, for the name first appears as All-Wood, which meant "at the wood." Later the name became Atwood and in some cases this was changed to Atwood, which was later contracted to Wood. Sometimes it remained Atwood, a name that is still to be found in England.

Going a Little Too Far.
"Two small boys were quarreling over the possession of a toy bank when a noted local financier, who was passing, stopped and said to the younger: "Shame on you, my boy. Don't you want him to save his money?" "I don't care what he does with his money," replied the youth. "But he wants to save mine along with it."

Happy Ending.
"I have just heard of a woman who went to a hotel unaccompanied and discovered that the acoustic properties of her room were such that every time she spoke aloud there was an echo. She then made a bold attempt to get in a last word, and in so doing talked herself to death."—Portland Express and Advertiser.

Trees Loaded With Fruit.
Trees loaded with fruit are bent down; the clouds when charged with fresh rain hang down near the earth; even so good men are not uplifted through prosperity. Such is the natural character of the liberal.—Bhartrihari.

Discouraged Joiner.
"I have joined quite a number of organizations," remarked Farmer Centennial, "but I haven't yet found one that'll enable an agriculturist like myself to make payin' dues and listenin' to speeches take the place of regular work."

All of Remarkable Parity.
The air is so pure in Arequipa, Peru, that from the observatory at that place, 8,000 feet above the sea, a black dog, one inch in diameter, placed on a white disc, has been seen a distance of 11 miles through a 15 inch telescope.

BOY SCOUTS

(Conducted by National Council of the Boy Scouts of America.)

SCOUTS MEET VERDUN HERO

The Boy Scouts of America were honored by being selected to greet Gen. Robert Georges Nivelle, former commander-in-chief of the French army and famous hero of Verdun, upon his arrival in this country recently to attend the Pilgrin Tercentenary celebration. A hundred and thirty scouts took part in the reception.

At the French pier five picked Eagle Scouts met the general as he came off the steamer which brought him to New York. They were with Dr. Charles S. MacFarland, field scout commissioner, who is the general secretary of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, on whose invitation Gen. Nivelle came to this country. From the pier he was escorted to the Waldorf hotel where five troops of boy scouts, a troop from each of the boroughs of Greater New York, carrying American flags and a French flag fifteen feet long, were lined up at salute and were reviewed by General Nivelle.

The scouts were greatly interested in the blazing star of the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor which the gray-haired general wore on his army uniform. His eighteen military honors other than the Legion of Honor were represented simply by five rows of ribbon bars across his left breast.

A diminutive thirteen-year-old Manhattan scout, Frank Tobin, who wore a tri-color ribbon was singled out by General Nivelle, who had him come forward to shake hands while in very good English he told the assembled scouts how pleased he was to be welcomed by representatives of this great organization whose Jamboree party of 300 picked scouts last summer gave an exhibition of scouting in Paris which opened his eyes and those of many other men of affairs there as to the great value of scout training in the formation of sturdy and useful manhood.

GEN. WOOD PRAISES SCOUTS.

In the recent Boy Scouts of America essay contest on the subject of fire prevention, Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, commander of the central division of the army, acted as chairman of the board of judges. He took keen interest in reading the essays, which, because he was unable to leave Fort Sheridan, Ill., were taken to him from New York by a representative of the National Board of Fire Underwriters, under whose auspices the contest was conducted among the entire membership of the boy scouts in the United States and its possessions. At the conclusion of his work Major General Wood issued the following statement:

"I cannot tell you with how much interest and appreciation I read the essays from the boy scouts' contest with reference to fire prevention. The idea of this contest was a fine one. It served to bring to the attention of the boy scouts throughout the country a most important field of effort, namely, that of vigilance in measures looking to fire prevention and the dissemination of information concerning the sources of danger and what can be done to prevent. The fundamental cause of fires is carelessness, combined with a certain amount of ignorance. If the boy scouts take up the campaign in behalf of fire prevention and speak as intelligently as they have written I feel that we shall soon reduce the danger from fire."

LET'S GO, LET'S GO! LET'S GO!

Nebula Nicknames.
Many of the glowing gas clouds in the heavens, known as nebulae, present shapes that have given rise to nicknames, used by astronomers as alternatives of the more formal catalogue numbers of these objects. Among these are the Keyhole nebula, the Crab nebula, the Pinwheel nebula, the Dumbbell nebula, the Owl nebula, the Horseshoe or Swan nebula, the Whirlpool nebula, the Omega nebula and the North American nebula. The outline of the latter bears a rather striking resemblance to that of the North American continent.

Man, Too, Is Vain.
A man's vainest point is his neckties, while a woman's is her hair, says a man who has made a study of the matter. On spring days when business is slow he sometimes steps outside of his store and watches the passersby who stop and look at themselves in a mirror in his window. "I have noticed that a man will lovingly adjust his necktie while a woman will always fix her hair," he says. "No one can tell me that a woman is more vain than a man, either. Just as many men look in that mirror as women."—Milwaukee Journal.

She Meant Well.
To say the fitting thing in a knowledge of a favor is something of a tax on the conversational powers of most people; when the recipient is unfamiliar with the conventional phrases used or gets confused in using them, awkward situations occur, as in this instance reported in Harper's Magazine. Two sisters of a deceased cook called to acknowledge the flowers sent by the family. "We come to thank you for those beautiful flowers that you sent for sister," said the elder woman; and then, with a little stammer, she added, "and we hope soon to be able to return the favor."—From the Outlook.

Needed Immediate Attention.
A little miss, age four years, went to the country to spend a week with her married brother. He was bringing her home in his wagon drawn by two mules. On the way he stopped at a country store. While in the store one of the mules let out a "Hee-Haw." The little girl jumped out of the wagon and almost out of breath ran to her brother, exclaiming, "Oh, Alfred, come quick, one of the mules has the hic-coughs."
