Go to Joseph—

Mrs. J. H. Gore and daughter,

Merle, departed this morning on the branch for Joseph to spend the day visiting. They will return this evening.

Leaves on the Branch—

Lloyd Freed, of the East, has stopped over in La Grande to visit with Mrs. Louis Maguire and daughters, Edris and Avis, before going on to Enterprise, where he is to work for the summer.

Leave for Elgin—

Mrs. Jack Wharton and son, Billie, accompanied by Miss Hazel Stone, organist at the Arcade Theatre, left this morning for Elgin to spend the day visiting with Mrs. Wharton's sister.

Harm Funeral Announced—

The funeral of Mrs. Rudolphine Harm will be held at the Bohonkamp chapel tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will take place in the Masonic Cemetery. Mrs. Harm passed away Sunday afternoon.

Freight Car Smashed—

A freight car loaded with coal that was standing in the railroad yards at Baker was run into recently by an engine which smashed the freight car. This happened about a week ago but the car was not in shape until yesterday to bring back to La Grande for repairs.

Undergoes Second Operation—

Miss Mildred Webb, daughter of Mrs. Nora Webb, was taken to the hospital this morning and underwent another operation. Miss Webb was operated on some time ago and was discharged from the hospital. Miss Webb is reported to be seriously ill, but her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Will Care For Publicity—

Arthur Rudd, of Pendleton, and a student of the University of Oregon, has been given charge of the outside publicity work for the Pendleton Round-Up of 1921. Miss Elsie Fitzmaurice, former University girl, will handle the advertising end from Pendleton. Mr. Rudd, who has many friends in La Grande, will start on a tour of the nearby cities sometime soon.

Library Signs Hung Out—

Signs were placed in the entrance of the library yesterday and on the grass near the corner of Fourth street a sign with the open hours was placed for the convenience of the passersby who might thus be attracted to use the library. The signs in the entrance are hung on both sides of the doorway. One has on it "City Library" and the other "County Library Headquarters."

Released on Bail—

William Hugh McGuire, who was arrested several days ago in La Grande, on a charge of kidnaping his small son, following trouble with his wife on their farm near Baker, and who was returned to Baker for his hearing, has been released on $250 bonds. McGuire was held on three charges, assault and battery upon Helen Richardson, from whom he took the child, and also assault and battery upon his wife and a charge of kidnaping.

Enter the Tiddle Top—

As a close second to the dice which are in demand at local jewelry shops, the "tiddle top" or "put-and-take" has made its appearance in La Grande stores. "Tiddle tops" have been known by various names for centuries. They offer a new opportunity for devotees of games of chance and their popularity is growing.

Grain Office Moved—

The local office of Kerr, Gifford and company is now located in the Oregon Hardware and Implement warehouse on Jefferson and Depot streets, across from the passenger station of the O.W. The interior of the building has been refinished and provides convenient, as well as large and cool quarters for the grain dealers. Frank Owsley is still in charge of the office.

Purdy's Return Home—

Captain and Mrs. J. E. Purdy, who were formerly stationed here with the Salvation Army, left Monday evening in their motorcycle and side car on their return to Twin Falls, Idaho, where they are now stationed. Captain and Mrs. Purdy spent the weekend here visiting with their old time friends. The Captain stated that in all of his ramblings since departing from La Grande, he had found no city or people he liked as well as the city of La Grande and her citizens.

Like La Grande—

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hackman left last evening for their home in Chicago, after an extended visit here with Mr. Hackman's brother, E. W. Hackman. On their way home the Hackmans will stop over in Yellowstone Park for three weeks before going on. Mr. and Mrs. Hackman are well pleased with the Grande Round valley and expect to return again for a longer visit. Mrs. Hackman was in poor health but she has improved wonderfully and looks forward to the time when they shall again visit La Grande.

Oregon Security Postcard—

MEN WHO WONT WORK ARE HERE

SYMPATHY MUST NOT BE TOO STRONG FOR MEN.

People Being Imposed On by Brawny Boobs Who Demand Work and Then "Beat It."

Ah, this is the day when the physical shark takes its toll from the unsuspecting and sympathetic public. Here is a sample of it:

Scene: Adams avenue, La Grande. Time: Right now.

Enter a big brawny chap who meets La Grande citizen and asks for something to eat. Sure, the citizen is not in the habit of seeing people go hungry, and he takes the stranger into a restaurant, feeds him and engages in conversation which runs something like this:

"Been out of work long?" asks the La Grander.

"Not so very, but I was hit by the foreign club—you see, where I was working they wanted all American help and put on Mexicans and it makes it hard on us lads who uphold the flag," was the reply.

At that the La Grande man grew deeply interested and insisted that he would help the stranger get located again.

After the meal the two visited Toy Young's employment agency, where a job on a ranch was slated and arrangements with the ranch owner were to have been made at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Before that hour arrived the supposed American laborer, who has supposedly been displaced by Mexican labor, had beat it down the road and away from the employment agency, for he wanted to get away from that job of work which Toy Young had almost tied on him.

"I feel like I had been gold-bricked," said the La Grande man who had fed the fellow. "When the foreign labor proposition starts I am with the home fellows and anyone can work me. Last spring on the highway work we had some ground for the fight made on foreign labor, but now I am afraid that most of the talk about no work for Americans comes from about the same source that this fellow's statement came from—a source where work is not wanted and where the game is to 'mooch' off the other fellow."

JUNIOR TENNIS MATCHES BEING PLAYED OFF NOW

Boys Ready to Play Off Semi-Finals in Singles—Doubles Will Follow Soon

In the junior tennis tournament for boys between fifteen and eighteen the preliminaries in the singles have been played off and the semi-finals are expected to be played off within a few days. The result of the preliminaries is as follows:

Clyde Ford vs. Floyd Smith, Smith won 6-4, 5-7, 6-3. Jean Taylor vs. Donald Rohan, Taylor won, 6-0, 10-8. Harold O'Connell vs. Francis Hough, O'Connell won, 7-5, 4-6, 7-5. James Coker vs. Reid Geddes, Coker won, 3-6, 7-5, 6-4.

As soon as the singles are played off doubles will be played.

Insurance Man Here—

Frank S. Glover, of Portland, who is a special agent for a fire insurance company, was in La Grande today and was registered at the Sommer hotel.

FISHING TACKLE LURES BOYS TO STEAL—CAUGHT IN ACT

Two lads of about twelve years of age walked into Woolworth's store this morning and, feeling that impulse that every boy feels at this time of year to go fishing, helped themselves to some fishing tackle, consisting of a spinner and leader. They were caught in the act and at the police station the stolen goods were held as evidence against them. The boys were released pending further investigation of their cases.
