Potato Salad, Too, Please.
 The Observer yesterday omitted one section of the menu that country club member wives are to bring with them tomorrow evening when they come prepared to cook for the men who are going to clean up the country club park. Among the things each lady is to bring is potato salad, which, added to yesterday's call, makes a well-rounded out lunch. Each lady is to bring all vinegar, cups, and paper plates for her own party and one more. Mrs. H. L. Poarch, chairman in charge, reports that there will be plenty for all who may come without a portion of "cats." The "bee" will begin at noon after 5 p. m. as possible.

Cameras of Class.
 Cameras of class and completeness—Kodaks, Brownies and others of the famous Eastman family of perfect picture producers. The best is the cheapest and Eastman's are both. Big or little, box, folding or "pocket"—there's a camera to fit your fancy, your "hopes" and your purse.
