Early clingstones from Milton and the yellow freestones from California constitute the early peach offerings on the markets in La Grande. The day of the best varieties and choice offerings is not yet at hand in this early part of the season.

The tomato source is now three-way. California stuff, uniform in size and pack, Elgin lothouse which is the choicest of them all, and Walla Walla products are now supplying the market. The Walla Walla assortment is irregular in size and shape, but of good quality nevertheless.

"There's a Reason"

THE REASON FOR OUR SUBSTANTIAL GROWTH IS OUR SUBSTANTIAL SERVICE

A Business Man Asked "What Would You Do?"

Eight months ago one of our patrons came to us and asked our advice regarding a contemplated business deal.

Off-hand it sounded particularly bright but after getting in touch through our correspondent banks with the prospects in that particular field all over the United States, we advised against it.

The soundness of that advice is today apparent. Our patron is very grateful to us. He need not be. It is to our advantage as well as his, to protect our patrons. We are always ready to conduct similar investigations.
