

PICTORIAL SYMPOSIUM OF THE WEEK'S NEWS

Ambassador Off for Italy

Here are Richard Washburn Child, his wife and two children Anna and Constance, on the S. S. President Wilson. They are on the way to Italy where Child becomes United States ambassador.

Envoy to Japan

Charles E. Warren, Detroit lawyer, new American ambassador to Japan, leaves Aug. 1 to tackle hardest job in the diplomatic service.

Hubby Wears Bridal Wreath, Too

In Poland it's proper to include in the resort of a wedding groom wore roses and forget-me-nots. When he's led to the altar, he wears a wreath of paper flowers, supplied by the bride from her mous floral headdress.

Atlantic Fleet Changes Command

This picture shows Admiral Henry B. Wilson turning over the command of the Atlantic fleet to Admiral Harry P. Jones.

Raiding the Dail Eireann

This is the first picture to reach America showing the recent raid of British soldiers on the Dail Eireann headquarters, Henry street, Dublin. These soldiers are guarding the rear of the house.

U. S. Trade Chief

Dr. Julius Klein, of California, is the new director of foreign and domestic commerce. He left a Harvard professorship to succeed Dr. R. S. MacBride as bureau chief.

Proud Horse

Mrs. Warren G. Harding expressed her admiration for "Billy," prize polo pony of the Cuban army team. Gallant Col. Silva, owner of "Billy," promptly wrote a note to Mrs. Harding presenting the pony to her. Mrs. Harding reluctantly declined the gift, but invited the colonel and his wife to the White House to thank him.

Ship's Sponsor

Jean Summers has been approved by Gov. J. F. Hart of Washington, as sponsor of the dreamboat "Washington" to be launched at Camden, N. J. She is a daughter of Congressman John W. Summers.

Cats for Babies' Milk Fund

Want to buy a show kitty and help the babies' milk fund? Jean and Peggy Sanders, Long Island society toots, were two of the youngsters who raised money this way at the annual town fête on the estate of Mrs. Payne Whitney at Manhattan, L. I. All went to the Babies' Milk Fund of Nassau County.

The Last Drop!

Gurgel! Gurgel! Gurgel! When they are far out at sea immigrants hear about Mr. Vinstead and his prohibitory law. And so they drain the last drop from their wine jugs before the boat lands, as did this old Italian woman at Boston.

Lead in Heart

Lawrence Setterfield of Bloomington, N. J., has five shots in his heart and 14 in his lungs. He has been discharged as cured from Paterson General Hospital. He was shot accidentally by a playmate.

Yale Installs New President

Dr. James Howard Angell (left) and Dr. Huxley at the installation ceremonies when Dr. Angell became Yale's 14th president, succeeding Dr. Huxley. The latter was president 22 years.

Down She Goes!

The air bombers made a direct hit on the U-117 in the bombing test of airplanes vs. warships off the Virginia Capes. Boom! A puff of smoke, a sheet of flame. And the former German submarine settled to its grave in Davy Jones' locker.

Globe Walker

J. F. Belland had walked 69,247 miles when he reached Boston. He plans to walk around the world, wherever man can go in hiking boots. He started from Washington, D. C. May 12, 1913. So far he has walked through 43 states, Canada, Mexico, South and Central America, West and East Indies, Madagascar and Japan. He expects to cover 134,748 miles.

Confident of Victory

Mrs. James A. Stillman is more confident than ever of victory in the Stillman divorce case, since her husband refused in the witness stand to answer all questions relating to Florence Lewis, former chauffeur's wife. Mrs. Stillman and her 17-year-old son "Bud," who is standing by her, were snapped outside the trial chamber at Forgeknock, N. Y.