

A Soothing Self-Shave

Probably the main reason why all men are not self-shavers is because many of them did not at first get the right kind of razor and other requisites.

We sell the sort of shaving supplies that make shaving a real pleasure.

High-Grade Razors, Strops, Honers, Mugs, Lather Brushes, Soaps, Powders, Creams, Lotions, etc.

A complete outfit will cost but a fraction of the amount of a year's shaving expense at a barber shop.

THE DALLIES WILL CHARGE FOR SERVICE TO CAMPERS

Pendleton Tribune Goes Into Exhaustive Review of Cash Returns That Come From Tourists

Tourist campground troubles are not local. Pendleton, Baker and The Dalles have been wrestling with the task for weeks, and at The Dalles, after long and heated discussion, it was decided to make a charge to cover the service. The Dalles Chronicle says in this connection:

"To Charge For Camping Privileges"
"A charge of 50 cents will be made in the future to all automobile tourists using the new city and park, it was decided by the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce. The charge will be made to cover the cost of upkeep, which includes free light, water, firewood and the use of the stone camp arena. The charge of 50 cents will be an admission charge only, in that the tourist can camp a night or a week in the park without further charge."

At Pendleton and Baker the problems are not finally disposed of any more than in La Grande, but businessmen at both of those places are intensely concerned about the business. The whole automobile camp ground situation is summarized by the Pendleton Tribune in the following manner, in which the reader will find, the Tribune has not overlooked the silver stream that flows in the wake of the tourist:

Baker vs. Pendleton
"Over at Baker there seems to be an impression that it is a mistake to cater to the tourist trade, for the present at least. The mayor of Baker is quoted by the Baker Herald as doubtful about an improved camp ground and the idea is expressed that what suits the tourist best is a grove somewhere out of leton has a camp ground of this character and by virtue of improvements now under way is making it more satisfactory than it has been. We can go much farther and find the investment profitable. It is a pure and simple question of business getting, not a charitable affair at all. It is good business to provide a tourist party with ten cents worth of comfort in order to get $10 in business from that party. That is the problem in a nutshell and it permits of but one answer. The tourist traffic is worth a lot to Pendleton and the benefits are for everybody because every person profits, directly or indirectly, when outside money is brought here. If you have not yet grasped this point you will soon get it if you take the trouble to investigate.

"What Baker wishes to do about a camp ground is for Baker to decide. Thankfully Pendleton people are quite well committed to the idea that it is worth while to cater to the travelers. Motor tourist travel now brings more people here than do the railroads, and the motor travelers stay longer. This is the logical first days step out of Portland and up of Spokane. When the Oregon Trail construction work is completed it will be a day's trip from Southern Idaho to Pendleton. We now have several hundred travelers here each night. The time will soon come when we will have a thousand or more each day. If we look after them they will leave a perfect trail of silver behind them. It is needless to say we will not drive this business away by refusing to provide them the accommodations they have a right to expect. Whether we provide a free camp ground or one where a charge is imposed is not the main question. The big thing is to see that they find acceptable camp conditions on their arrival here."

New England Place Names.

An interesting set of New England place names is drawn from the Bible. In these names, quite as much as in those brought from the home land, the early settlers expressed their deepest wishes. Hebron, Gilsum, Lebanon, Canaan, Bethlehem, Sharon, Mt. Carmel, Goshen, and Jerusalem are found in Connecticut alone. The names of three women in the parish register of one of these towns were Obadiah, Sorens, and Mizdwell. Clearly, these people had never read, or at least believed, Shakespeare's "What's in a name?"

ARMY OF PICKERS IN ORCHARDS

COVE, July 22.—(Special)—The cherry harvest is still on in Cove.

There is a veritable army of pickers here, but there is work for all and the days are not long enough, for the work extends far into the night and begins again at dawn. The raspberries, both black and red, are just in their prime and there still are strawberries.

The fruit buyer, F. V. Martin, of Boise, was in Cove this week.

Miss Mary A. Nichols, Union County Librarian, accompanied by her father and mother from Hebron, Ill., were sight-seeing in Cove Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Nichols are seeing the west for the first time and find it all it is painted. After viewing Cove's cherry orchards on Tuesday, they left for Wallowa Lake on Wednesday. After a day or two at this pretty resort, they will spend a few days in La Grande and will then leave for Portland.

Miss Sarah Lamphere, of Seattle, is a guest at the home of Mrs. Edith L. Pease.

Mrs. Lou Payne entertained a few guests at dinner Tuesday evening. There were present Mrs. T. H. Elson, of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. A. G. Conklin, Mrs. T. W. Conklin, and the Misses Helen Payne, of Walla Walla, Wash., Marian and Clarice Conklin.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Gumprecht, of Long Beach, Calif., are visiting at the residence of John Dean. They are traveling overland in a big Studebaker car. After their visit here, they will continue their trip back to their old home in Shelton, Nebraska. Mr. Gumprecht is an old school friend of Mr. Dean's.

Mrs. Emil Blevins and children, who have been for some weeks at the home of Mrs. Clara Bloom, will soon leave for their new home at Payette, Idaho.

Mrs. Paul Ellis has been on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Puckett have moved into the house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Kaufman.

Leonard Love is at home again.

Mrs. C. Lawson entertained the Ladies' Guild at her residence last week. There were present Mrs. T. H. Elson, of Los Angeles; Mrs. G. C. Gumprecht, of Long Beach; Mrs. A. Riggs, of Portland; Miss Fanny Brown, of La Grande, and the following Cove ladies: Mrs. Dean, Mrs. J. J. Conley, Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. A. G. Conklin, Mrs. T. W. Conklin, Mrs. L. E. Anderson, Mrs. Lloyd Carter, Mrs. Roy Lay, Mrs. Clarice Heryford, Mrs. Lloyd Carter and the Misses Woodruff, Helen Payne and Marian Conklin.

Miss Marion Conklin gave a small dancing party Wednesday evening in honor of her cousin, Miss Helen Payne, of Walla Walla. The guests were the Misses Vera Conley, Leona Hansen, Patricia Wardell, Lola Ozden, Margaret Grov and the Messrs. G. J. Conley, Deacon Pulp, Earnest Coons, Philip Albert, Thos. Conklin, Guy Barker, Louie Lantz and Leonard Love.

Roy Lay was a Baker visitor this week.

The community chorus is preparing a musical entertainment for the near future for a library benefit.

A party of the L. D. S. young people climbed Mt. Fanny Wednesday.

Mrs. Arch Conley and Miss Fanny Brown will entertain the Ladies' Guild of Cove at the home of Mrs. Conley in La Grande Thursday afternoon.

A special meeting of the Women's Club was called for Tuesday evening to discuss the possibilities of a new library building for Cove.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Pulp and family have just returned from a week on the Minam.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Duncan gave a small dinner party Sunday.

OBITUARY.

Rudolphine L. Wetnicke Harn was born in Denmark February 24, 1845. She came to America in 1869 and was married to Theodore Harn in New York City in May, 1869. Later in the young couple moved to the state of Wisconsin, where they lived and prospered many years. In 1887, they again moved farther west this time to Pendleton, Ore. About this time, when past the meridian of life, they lost all their slowly accumulated savings through the rashness of a supposed friend. Shocked beyond measure but willing to start anew, they took up a homestead at North Park, in the Blue Mountains, where by hard labor and annual thrift they gradually accumulated another competency. They were known far and wide for their unstinting hospitality and dependability. Their friends were legion, especially among the campers and railroad officials and employees.

About twenty years ago they came to live at La Grande, where the loved husband died in 1914. Undismayed by the cruel blow of fate, the widow resolutely made her own liv-
