

A Soothing Self-Shave

Probably the main reason why all men are not self-shavers is because many of them did not at first get the right kind of razor and other requisites.

We sell the sort of shaving supplies that make shaving a real pleasure.

High-Grade Razors, Strops, Honers, Mugs, Lather Brushes, Soaps, Powders, Creams, Lotions, etc.

A complete outfit will cost but a fraction of the amount of a year's shaving expense at a barber shop.

Last night marked another milestone in the history of the local P. E. O. chapter when the husbands and gentlemen friends of the chapter members carried out an annual custom of entertaining their wives and sweethearts at dinner. These men have an auxiliary club of their own called "Bills" and they sprang a surprise on their wives last evening by taking them to the new Union hotel for dinner. The service was first class, beginning at 8 o'clock. Attractive menus had been provided with colors to correspond to the P. E. O. emblems. After dinner an interesting program was carried out, Attorneys L. Denham, of Elgin, responding to a toast, and a quartet, consisting of Mr. L. E. Moe, Dr. E. P. Mossman, Miss Frederike Schilke and Mrs. Alvin Snapp, rendered a number. Miss Schilke sang a group of songs in her delightful way, and favored the guests with a solo dance. About midnight the annual festivity was ended and the men have proved themselves gracious hosts once more.

Those present included: Messrs. and Mesdames H. S. Brown, C. H. Bidwell, Geo. H. Curry, Robert S. Fakin, A. B. Hunter, J. D. McKennon, L. B. Moe, William Miller, Fred G. Schilke, Alvin Snapp, J. K. Wright, Wayne Wade, Lee Warnick, F. W. Whiting, E. P. Mossman, all of La Grande; Mr. Fred E. Kiddle and Mrs. E. E. Kiddle, of Island City; Mrs. Lucy Stanfield and Mrs. Frederike Schilke, of La Grande; Mrs. J. T. Richardson, of Pendleton; Messrs. and Mesdames Ernest Vekrs, W. E. Brownell, R. Shoemaker, L. Denham, S. A. Chappell, H. H. Hug and Miss Austin, all of Elgin.

The marriage of Mr. Steven Franklin Scribner and Miss Inez Catherine Gates, of Union, was solemnized at the Methodist parsonage Saturday, July 16, at 10:30 o'clock a. m. Rev. James Huston performing the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Scribner took the evening train for Portland and coast points, and their announcements read "at home, Union, Oregon, after August 1st."

The groom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Scribner, and the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Gates, of Union.

The Alpha club will meet with Mrs. H. E. Dixon on Tuesday afternoon of next week instead of Friday afternoon, the usual meeting day.

On Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Herbert Pattison was the charming hostess to a number of ladies at a farewell party given in honor of Mrs. John Adkin and Mrs. Ernest Watta.

The afternoon was pleasantly passed in conversation and cards. High honors went to Mrs. Bert Hughes; second to Mrs. John Daniels, and consolation to Mrs. H. Miller. The hostess also presented the two guests of honor with tokens of remembrance.

A delicious two-course luncheon was served by the hostess at five o'clock, after which the ladies departed, bidding farewell to Mrs. Adkin and Mrs. Watta, both of whom soon leave to make their homes in The Dalles.

Fully 40 women and children spent three delightful hours at the Country Club park last evening, swimming, visiting and just sitting around, or helping the nonfolks with rakes, while as many men were clearing up the park grounds, building roads, etc. After the work gangs had been called off, the "Boys" committee took command and a lunch topped off with watermelons was served. Mrs. Ray F. Murphy and Mrs. Chas. H. Reynolds were the committee in charge of refreshments this week, but Mrs. Reynolds was unable to serve on account of illness, and Mrs. A. W. Nelson substituted for her. Next week's refreshment committee is Mrs. H. M. Day and Mrs. William Siegrist.

Mrs. Charley Crandall and Mrs. Will Crandall were joint hostesses Thursday afternoon to the Ladies of the Mooseheart Legion at the home of the former in Oldtown.

Hampton will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary on Saturday, July 30, at which time their family will gather together for a reunion.

On their vacation the Hamptons also expect to spend several days visiting with friends in Astoria. They will probably be gone a little over a week.

Mrs. Gay Green entertained at an afternoon tea Tuesday in honor of Mrs. I. E. Kramer, of Grafton, Calif. Mrs. Kramer was formerly a very popular Imbler lady and is here on a visit after an absence of five years.

Announcements are out calling in all Country Club members to a dancing party at the club house next Wednesday evening. Dancing begins at 8 o'clock and the receipts from the party will apply to needed furnishings about the club. Lindsay's orchestra will furnish the music. For those who would rather partake of a game of cards, tables will be provided on the porch but it is not to be a card party, the tables simply being provided for those who would rather be than than dance, according to Mrs. Sulu Van Buren, who is chairman of the committee in charge of the party. "We want every club member to be in—to make it a big and successful event," said Mrs. Van Buren today. "Lunch will be served."

Of interest to the college people of La Grande and also his former friends here, is the following, which was taken from the Corvallis Gazette-Times, telling of a party given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moon. Mr. Moon is a former resident of La Grande. The article follows:

"Mrs. Harry W. Moon, a bride of early July, was the recipient of a pleasant surprise Monday evening when a dozen of her friends gathered at the J. H. Whitby home and later appeared at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. E. Heath, for an evening of conversation and music. The affair was in the nature of a covered dish supper and miscellaneous shower, with both Mr. and Mrs. Moon as honor guests. The dainty gifts were secreted in the dining-room and after these had been admired the table was spread with dainty viands brought by the guests. Those in attendance included Mrs. J. H. Whitby, Miss Nelle Gunn, Miss Freda Harlan, Miss Mildred Leland, Miss Dorothy Newton, Miss Evelyn Jensen, Miss Verma Miller, Miss Merle Hollister and Miss Edith Buckingham. Mrs. Moon, who was Miss Antoinette Heath, was a bride of Sunday, July 3.

Of interest to the members of the Christian Endeavor in La Grande, are the farewell parties which have been given this week in Portland for Miss Faye Steinmetz who leaves Portland next Monday for New York City to become the national secretary for young people's work for the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian church.

Miss Steinmetz has visited the local societies a number of times, making many friends with each visit. She was also here during the Eastern Oregon convention of the Christian Endeavor held here last February.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wade left last evening on No. 19 for a short vacation at Seaside.

One of the most enjoyable events of the week for a number of local ladies was the party given this week by Mrs. Frank Pike, honoring her sister, Mrs. J. T. Hannon, who has come to Wall Walla to make her future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hannon have been residents of La Grande for the past twenty years, and thus have many local acquaintances who regret their departure for the Washington city. Mr. Hannon is special agent for the O. W., and has had his headquarters changed to Walla Walla.

As a farewell, Mrs. Pike invited in about thirty-five of the ladies of the Catholic church, intimate friends of the honor guest, and the evening was delightfully spent. At a late hour, light refreshments were served by the hostess.

Miss Jean Williams entertained a few neighborhood girls Thursday on the occasion of her 11th birthday anniversary. With the assistance of her mother, Mrs. Sherwood Williams, she provided games and toothsome refreshments for her little friends, who included Edith Payton, Dorothy Ann Warnick, Genevieve Grant, Mona Gassett, Marjorie Wadsworth, Dorothy Browntown, Dorothy Eberhardt, Judith Snodgrass, Lola Marian Snodgrass, Helen Williams and Lois Nelson.

The Ladies Bible Class of the Presbyterian church was entertained on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. Buckingham, 1601 N. Spruce. The first part of the meeting was devotional, under the leadership of Mrs. Bess Spencer. This was the regular monthly meeting of the class and the afternoon was spent in discussing the advisability of taking up the systematical Bible study which is given under the direction of the Moody Institution at Chicago. This was left in the hands of a committee, which will report at the next meeting. Mrs. Frank Stillwell acted as president, due to the absence of Mrs. Gracia Hesse. At the close of the afternoon, dainty refreshments were served and all spent an enjoyable afternoon.

The Pythian Sisters' Aid was entertained on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Mollie Moss and Mrs. Pe. Le Clair at the home of Mrs. Moss. The afternoon was spent in tacking a quilt. Dainty refreshments were served and all spent a delightful afternoon.

Glass Workers Lose Sight. Many of the workmen in the glass factories of Vevore begin to lose their sight after they have passed their fortieth year and some become totally blind. The impairment of vision is caused by the excessive heat and the glare from the glass furnaces.

"Kids" Have Game On. A big inter-sectional contest is on for the coming week when the Imbler Junior, who have cleaned up in these parts consistently, will meet the Walla Walla junior champions of Eastern Oregon. The game will be played at Imbler, and is scheduled to be some proposition at that. The kiddies from both towns are out for blood and are going to play real ball.

Big Meet on Today. Harvard stadium is a long ways from La Grande, but just the same local followers of the track and field sports wish they might witness today's contest between Harvard and Yale vs. Oxford and Cambridge. The meet will be the fifth staged between the international rivals. Oxford and Cambridge won the first set of games held at the Queen's Club, Kensington, England, in 1899, 5 events to 4, first places only counting. Harvard and Yale won the second meet held at the famous Berkeley Oval in New York City, September 25, 1901. The score was 6 events to 3. The Americans were victors in 1904 when they defeated the English collegians at the Queen's Club, again by a score of 6 to 3. In 1911, when the games were held for the third time at the Queen's Club grounds, Oxford and Cambridge evened the score by winning 5 to 4.

Tennis Players Loufing. Tennis is on the slump. Hot weather curtails the number of games where that strenuous exercise is concerned and a big majority of the La Grande racquets have been laid away until cooler weather.
