FAMOUS NOVEL WITH ELSIE FERGUSON IS AT SHERRY THEATRE

Elsie Ferguson's latest appealing Paramount picture, "Lady Rose's Daughter," which will be shown at the Sherry Theatre for two days beginning today is a superb picturization of Mrs. Humphrey Ward's celebrated novel of the same name which scored a world success several years ago.

The heroine of the story is Julie Le Breton, an orphan girl who is born out of wedlock. Her misfortune is continually thrown into her face and she has an interesting love affair. The story treats of heredity in an entertaining manner and in its development, Elsie Ferguson plays three roles, those of the grandmother, mother and daughter.

A comedy of course, is being shown.

SPECIAL FEDERAL TAXES ARE DUE

Forms for filing returns of special taxes upon business and occupations are now available at office of collectors of internal revenue and branch offices. These taxes are held by the bureau of internal revenue to be delinquent unless paid on or before July 31. This list includes the tax on brokers, pawnbrokers, museums, theatres and concert halls, circuses, bowling alleys, shooting galleries, riding academies and automobiles operated for hire.

When the tax is paid a stamp is issued by the collector of internal revenue which the person engaged in the business or occupation subject to the tax is required to post conspicuously in his place of business. Failure in this respect renders the offender liable to a penalty equal to the special tax, and the cost of prosecution. In no case is the penalty less than $10.

Theatres, museums and concert halls are taxed according to their seating capacity, and the population of the city of town in which they are located. Those having a seating capacity of 250 are taxed $50; seating capacity of more than 250 and not exceeding 500, $100; exceeding 500 and not exceeding 800, $150; in excess of 800, $200. The tax in cities or towns of 5,000 inhabitants or less is one-half of these amounts. This tax is paid by the proprietor. The special tax on circuses is $100.

LIGHTNING STARTS FIRE

COVE, July 25 (Special)—Lightning started a small fire in the Blue Mountains Sunday morning. A night owl's call came from Rosebud Cook, lookout at Meadow Mountain, Forest Ranger Paul M. Ellis hurried to the scene and had the fire subdued before any great damage was done. This is the first fire this season.

Some campers left the remains of their camp fire just below Boersgren's mill Sunday night. They had evidently tried to put it out but coals were left. Had it not been for the forest ranger a conflagration would have resulted. The woods are dry as tinder now and even a match thrown carelessly away may bring disastrous results. PUT OUT the camp fire and be sure it's all out, in the warning issued by the government.

MRS. ANNA YOUNT GARDNER WRITES FROM CALIFORNIA.

Is Descendant of One of the First Pioneers of Union County; Younger Generation Makes Good.

Of interest to a large number of the earlier settlers in the valley, is the word which has been received by the Observer from a former resident of this city, Mrs. Anna Yount Gardner, who now resides in San Bernardino, California. Her letter is as follows:

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif., July 22.—I am an old pioneer of the Grande Ronde valley. We reached there in the fall of 1862 by ox team. There are very few of our party left. All that I know of are some of the McAllisters, Williamsons and Gecklers. My father was Joseph Yount. I am enclosing a clipping of the record of one of his grandsons, son of Lee Yount. I thought perhaps some of the old acquaintances would like to hear from us.

We left there in 1876, so long ago that I know but few that are left. I still have a tender spot in my heart for my old Oregon home, so many years ago. The first postmaster I can remember in La Grande was Mr. Tatterson. I can remember the first doctors and some of the first officers. All are gone.

Yours most sincerely, ANNA YOUNT GARDNER, 648 Sixth Street, San Bernardino, Calif.

The clipping, which tell of an athlete whose record has been closely following in the sport circles of La Grande, is as follows:

Wild Bill Yount, the University of Redlands athletic star, who has been a familiar figure in the collegiate athletic world, and who appeared in the recent A. A. U. meet at Pasadena, has returned to his home in Redlands and announced his retirement from strenuous athletics. Bill figures he has served his time on the cinder paths and wants to spend the rest of his life in other pursuits and see the coming stars vie for honors on the cinders. Whether Yount will continue to make a study of athletics and become a coach of track stars, he is unable to say now but he declares that for the present, at least, he is going to let somebody else do the running while he looks on from the side lines.

Has Had Enough. "I'm through now, for all time," said Bill. "I've been in training for about eight years now in high school and college and I'm enough. I'm going to be free, white and 21 for the time being."

Yount has probably one of the most extensive collections of medals of any man in the country today. William has medals starting in when he ran his first race in high school and since then he has been getting all kinds, gold, silver, bejeweled and some bronze. The medals show how many first places he has won in various meets, for the gold ones predominate.

Many Trophies. He has gone across the continent three times for various events, twice as the University of Redlands relay runner, and he has also been across the "pond" as he was a member of the 1920 Olympic team.

Yount deserves all credit for his success for it was eternal training that did the work for him. He is not built to be a hurdler, but by continual training overcame that handicap and there are but three or four men in the world who can beat him over the high sticks.

MISSOURIANS WILL GATHER

BIG REUNION IS PLANNED AT STATE FAIR.

Mrs. Willard Couch, Local Booster for Get-Together, Tells of the Elaborate Plans.

"There is something doing in our home state and we are all invited to partake in celebrating this great event," said Mrs. Willard Couch today, in discussing the plans for the becoming a state, and a spectacular "Not only the living Missourians, but all of the descendants of Missourians are invited to attend the Missouri Centennial Exposition, which is to be held in connection with the Missouri state fair, at Sedalia, from August 8 to 20. This event will celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of Missouri becoming a state, an da spectacular historical pageant depicting a century of growth and development will be given. Thousands of former Missourians from throughout the world are expected to be in attendance, and a re-union of the descendants of Missouri's thirty-five governors will be a special feature.

Under the plans for making the homecoming a real affair, chairmen have been appointed throughout the various states and localities. Mrs. Willard Couch was named as the local booster, and would be indeed glad to hear from former Missourians who are planning on attending. Mrs. Couch's address is Rural Route No. 2, Box 36, La Grande. "Some of us are not as young and spry as when we left 'Mother Missouri,' but we'll get a handshake of welcome if we attend," said Mrs. Couch.

ATTACHES ARE ASKED TO MOVE

SALEM, July 26.—Following the charge by H. M. Tomlinson, attorney for Portland, that the attaches of the Telephone Company were eavesdropping and peeping at the papers of the protesting attorneys in the telephone rate hearing, the council for the company instructed the attaches to change their seats. The cross-examination of Major Babcock was resumed today and will likely be finished before the session closes.

Discrimination. A salesman recently told the Bow street magistrate that no swearing is allowed nowadays in Covent Garden market. This exclusion of all golfers, caterers, and spring-bleeding victims is surely rather drastic.—Punch (London).
