OBSERVER WANTS ADS PAY

If you want a pleasant evening, attend the Country Club dance Wednesday evening. 7-25-31.

Again? No. Not Again—"Yet."

Why? Because Candies of their class are so good that their praises never grow stale. Neither do such Candies grow stale. Their worth is so appreciated by the people of La Grande and our stock keeps moving so fast that our only trouble is to keep the Candies supplied for the constant demand.

Americans like to follow the crowd.

The crowd is coming, so we advise you to push right in and speak right out, and you'll get the best we have. Or, phone and we will reserve a box for you, or send it if desired.

We do not need to tell you of the different kinds and of the various sized boxes. Everybody knows. But we do want to emphasize that we are not charging any fancy prices, but just what many dealers charge for common stuff. But you do not want common stuff.

Just speak the word—

Mike Says Everything is O. K.—

M. H. Daugherty, for years and years Union Pacific agent at Baker, is in La Grande today. Mike says everything is going good in and around Baker. He is to Baker what Joe Keevey is to La Grande, and both men have their fingers on the business pulse of the community. "I may take a little time to adjust the timer and a few screws in the carburetor," said Mike, "but the old ship of state is going to sail right along and America will experience good times again. The mining in Baker county is picking up fast and we are all right in every way up there."

CRITICIZES TESTIMONY.

E. S. Willard Accused of Using Figures and Facts to Suit Himself.

SALEM, July 27.—

The counsel for the company in the telephone hearing today charged that E. S. Willard, industrial engineer who testified yesterday, used facts and figures to suit his own purpose and to which his company objected. The special object in using the figures on the rate basis was to show a fair valuation of the company's properties in Oregon. This morning's hearing was devoted to criticism of Willard's testimony.

OBREGON IS DISREGARDED IN REQUEST

MEXICO CITY, July 27.—The chamber of deputies has voted down the request of President Obregon for the extraordinary powers to adjust Article 27 of the constitution which nationalizes oil deposits. The article has long been a stumbling block between Mexico and the United States, the latter declaring that it is confiscatory. The deputies' action is regarded as a definite split between Obregon and his party.

THE SAME EVERYWHERE

The editor of Palsa Akhbar, a native newspaper of Lahore, India, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy many times among my children and servants, for colic and diarrhoea and always found it effective."—Adv.

JAPAN WANTS AGENDA KNOWN

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Secretary of State Charles E. Hughes has announced that Japan's acceptance of the peace conference on the Far Eastern problems is with the understanding that the United States is not opposed to an agreement as to the agenda of the Far Eastern conference before it convenes.

Britain is Informed.

LONDON, July 27.—Japan's acceptance of the invitation to the peace conference where the Far Eastern problems are to be discussed, is conditioned upon the program for the conference being decided in advance, according to reliable information received here.

BAND OF 50 ELK SEEN

BAKER, July 27.—A band of 50 elk is reported to have been seen in the neighborhood of Trout Meadows by members of the Whitman forest service of this city. A report has been made to the game commission and every effort will be made to protect the elk. Deer are reported by the forest service to be more plentiful in this section this year.

Individuality in Letters.

Individuality in writing papers, means writing paper so distinctively different that your friends and neighbors will immediately recognize the letter as coming from you without looking at the signature. We carry some of the most distinctive and individual papers ever sold. A large assortment but with small quantities of each kind gives everybody a fair chance to select a very individual and strikingly distinctive paper which they can claim "all their own." They are here.
