

Snapp's "Big Four"

When Uncle Sam held down the use of sugar for candy-making 50% your girl HAD to be satisfied with less candy from you. But Snapp says he'll bet she's hungry for some right now.

Krause's

BIG FOUR illustrated above are all winners in the game of hearts, and they're priced right. Take STELLARS, you can get the pound fancy package for a ROUND or PAPER DOLLAR! Your girl ought to get back on a peace-time candy basis now that war with Germany is over! (The Senate says it's over.)

Two Pioneers Of 1847 Attended Celebration

The celebration of Pioneer Day by members of the L. D. S. church held Monday evening at Riverside Park under the auspices of the La Grande M. L. A. was attended by over 200 members of the church and their friends. The outstanding feature of the celebration was the presence of two pioneers of 1847, whose arrival in Salt Lake on July 24 of that year is the occasion of Pioneer Day being celebrated throughout the world by members of the Mormon church.

The 1847 pioneers attending this meeting were Mrs. Mary Black and Mrs. Thompson. The former is the mother of Bishop C. J. Black of La Grande and the latter comes from Union. Mrs. Black makes her home in St. Anthony, Idaho, and when Bishop Black recently returned from a trip to Chicago she came home with him to make a visit.

Mrs. Black was a little girl when she reached Salt Lake with her parents in 1847 and still remembers vividly the trip across the plains. Her father, as well as Bishop Black's paternal grandfather, was a captain in the Mormon battalion sent to the Mexican border when Brigham Young was on his way to Salt Lake and a call was sent by the president for 500 volunteers.

Besides the program, which centered around the day that is the occasion of the celebration, there was dancing during the evening. Early in the evening the young people and children took part in games and contests of various kinds. A picnic supper followed this part of the program and the program was rendered immediately after supper.

WEDDING BELLS NOT FOR ROCKEFELLER

NEW YORK, July 28.—A report that John D. Rockefeller, Sr., the world's richest man, is contemplating matrimony, which spread through high financial and social circles this week, was denied by the oil king's secretary at his Tarrytown estate.

DOWNNEY GIVEN CHAMPIONSHIP

REFEREE'S DECISION IS REVERSED

Wilson Was Knocked Down Three Times in Round, But Bout Went To Him on a Foul

CLEVELAND, July 28.—The boxing commission has awarded the mid-weight championship of the world to Bryan Downey of Cleveland, although Referee Jimmy Gardner of Lowell, Mass., who officiated at last night's twelve-round decision bout between Downey and Johnnie Wilson, thought he had given the fight to the latter on a foul in the seventh. Wilson was knocked down three times in this round. The official time keeper said he kept count and Wilson was down three times and four-fifths seconds the first time he was down.

Gardner, Wilson's selection for the referee claimed that Downey hit the champion when the latter was down the third time.

Individuality in Letters.
Individuality in writing papers means writing paper so distinctively different that your friends and neighbors will immediately recognize the letter as coming from you without looking at the signature. We carry some of the most distinctive and individual papers ever sold. A large assortment but with small quantities of each kind gives everybody a fair chance to select a very individual and strikingly distinctive paper which they can claim "all their own." They are here.

NEW RECORDS ARE EXPECTED

PENDELTON ROUND-UP SEPTEMBER 22, 23, 24

Ray McCarroll and Frank McCarroll Are Vying For the Championship of This Year

PENDELTON, Oe., July 28.—New world's records in the events which make the Pendleton Round-up famous the world over are expected at the 1921 show which will be staged here September 22, 23 and 24.

Fast relay strings, wild young steers and bucking "brooks" whose hoary temper and uncertain disposition will give the cowboys a chance to show their skill in the bucking contests, are promised for the great outdoor drama. The steer bulldogging gives indication of being a most spectacular event, for Ray McCarroll and Frank McCarroll, two brothers, are vying for the championship. Frank McCarroll recently broke all records when he bulldogged in 7-3-5 seconds, but his brother Ray succeeded a few days ago in clipping two-fifths of a second off this time.

One of the features of the show is the speed with which events are given. The big panorama of events begins each day at exactly 1:30 p. m., and continues without pause during the afternoon. Never is the slogan "Something Doing Every Minute" better expressed than at the Round-up.

Among 1921 Round-up visitors this year will be W. B. Brown, nationally known illustrator, of Boston, Mass. He expects to find many subjects for drawings at the show. Another visitor will be Dr. George Black, a prominent physician of White Plains, New York.

Round-up devotees, new and old, will be interested in the announcement that Colonel Charles Wellington Earlong's book "Lol' by Buck" is now on the press. It is the official Round-up book and its sale is sponsored by the Round-up association. The book, which contains 200 pages, is profusely illustrated with 50 reproductions of Round-up photographs. It was recently reviewed in the New York Times.

IMBLER WINS OVER VISITING CONTENDERS

It's all that it was when "Volley" Squires, the great hero of the day, won his own game by smashing out a home run, that broke up the game.

Notes of the Game.
Reverend Lines, of Imbler, is the most idolized Methodist preacher in the world. If it were not ungodly, he could proclaim himself monarch of all he surveys. He was a big gun yesterday morning, but today! Ask any Imbler man about Lines—the sky-pilot pilot of the Imbler juveniles.

Volley Squires is a name to be conjured with. Two home runs and a double in six times up, 3 runs, 3 stolen bases and an assist or two, besides pitching a brand of ball that held the big bats from Walla Walla down. Even with all this he must yet develop the baseball carriage and head of little Ray Keown.

There is a little shaver by the name of Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wilson, that has Babe Ruth backed off the map. Probably six years younger than the visiting pitcher, he poled out a home run. The chap ran until he saw stars and tasted sulphur, but tumbled across the home plate, exhausted—but some happy.

Trial of German General

General Stenger of the German army is shown leaving the Supreme Court at Lehigh after being acquitted of war cruelty. The French charged that he ordered French prisoners, including wounded, to be shot. Major Cassius of Stenger's staff was convicted of cruelty to prisoners. The acquittal of Stenger caused great anger in France.

seven assists without a mishap, one score and two stolen bases. Although the visitors were burning the hits down to the infield with sizzling hotness, these little chaps fielded all such with finished fashion.

Marvin Squires, a brother of Volley, caught the game and kept up a running word fight with the visitors. He talks with a distinctive drawl and kept the crowd amused. He took a fast slant on his right shin early in the game and he stopped his amusing chatter only long enough to rub the sore spot.

Marshall in right, Crouser at third, and little Glenn, especially the latter are future Ratus, too. They know the game, and, like their colleagues, step up to the plate and wait for good ones. It's hard to convey to the public by printed letter how these two teams contracted in weight and size and years, or to depict the true playing ability of both teams.

Even though they are older, bigger and heavier, the Walla Wallans are good players and would clean up on many a team. They hit well and field splendidly. They are a good team. Here's to them.

Henry Bitter took a picture of both squads, Imbler's pose including Reverend Lines and the mascot, another Lines the size of a peanut.

Manager Tompau was sitting pretty up to the last of the ninth, and then it wasn't long until it was all over with, except the trip home.

At the present moment, the Imbler juveniles are confident they could beat Whitman College, or anything else Walla Walla may have that's real fast.

Eberhart was Walla Walla's mainstay. But a lad with a heavy growth of black whiskers may be ever so good and not able to get public sympathy when playing against a little tyke like Russell McKennon.

"Tubby" Niles Reverted
Local friends and admirers of Royal P. "Tubby" Niles, the Whitman football wonder who coached La Grande High the year before the war broke out, and who developed tuberculosis as a result of his services for Uncle Sam during the war, and died as a consequence not long ago will be pleased to hear of a pretty little show of sentiment in his behalf. The Oregon Journal makes the following comment on the cup.

"A silver loving cup to be known as the Royal P. Niles trophy cup, has been presented at Whitman college, the 237 of a donor who wishes his name withheld. The cup is valued at more than $500, and stands

Watch Out For Imbler
Just a little word of advice to all concerned. After having seen the little folks at Imbler play ball, the Observer sounds a warning to the rest of the state four or five years hence. We are not so sure but that the 12-year-olds might not whip some teams in the present Intermountain league. We know they will a few years from today.

Sandlotters Invaluable
If only the rest of the town of this vicinity would commence to develop their sandlottery the way Imbler has what a wonderful grade of baseball this country would soon see. We have begged for it and cried for it, but the demonstration at Imbler this week probably will go farthest to awaken the older folks to this duty to baseball. We hope so, anyway.

Many Towns Interested
Since it has become generally known that Weiser and Cove are to play at La Grande next Sunday, interest is displayed from many quarters. Baker, Haines, North Powder and even Wallawa county are showing interest and promising to send delegations to see the big game here that day. Weiser will probably arrive Saturday to work out on the grounds a day in advance. Cox and everything that's loose around the Cherry Town will move over, and in La Grande fishing trips are being canceled and everyone expects to be at home to entertain the two teams.
