

PORTO RICO HAS NEW HEAD

GOVERNOR REILLY INAGURATED TODAY.

In Address, Warns Against Agitation for Independence, and Advises Statehood.

SAN JUAN, P. R., July 30.—Governor E. Mont Reilly, the newly appointed chief executive of Porto Rico, was inaugurated today with appropriate ceremonies and in the course of his inaugural address, declared strongly against any agitation for independence of the islands, which, he said, came largely from foreigners.

"So long as Old Glory waves over the United States, it will wave over Porto Rico," declared the Governor. He continued:

"I want you to be fully aware that there is no room in Porto Rico for any foreigner who is not willing to support and uphold our established government. There is no sympathy or possible hope in the United States for independence for Porto Rico, from any individual, or from any political party.

"The last two great national conventions held in the United States, Democratic and Republican, declared unanimously against independence for Porto Rico. Neither, my friends, is there any place in these islands for any flag, save the flag of our beloved and common country, the stars and stripes, and there never shall be. So long as Old Glory waves over the United States, it will wave over Porto Rico.

"If a majority of the people of these islands desire a change in their government, I would suggest that they advocate statehood. Plan to place yourselves in the same condition and situation that obtains today in New York, Missouri and California, and trust the American people for a perpetual square deal. If you can bring this happy condition about, you can then elect your own governor, your own congressmen, your own United States Senators, and then, you can fully enjoy the privileges and fruits of the Liberty of Statehood."

CAMP CARSON MAY REVIVE

The days when gold was taken out of Camp Carson in large quantities may be revived again soon if the plans of J. H. Sanders and R. E. Maden, of Pasco, Washington, materialize. They have just been on a trip of inspection to Camp Carson and expect to return here about August 6th, to get work on their properties started.

Their claims are the Ivanhoe and the Silver Wrenth. At that time they expect to take a party of about twenty men to the claims and begin operations.

PEARE IN PORTLAND

"While the rains interfered with harvesting, the work is now starting and the prospects are good," said J. H. Peare, jeweler of La Grande, who was in Portland yesterday on his way to San Francisco. Once upon a time Mr. Peare was the fastest foot racer in eastern Oregon and just for exercise he would put on a pair of running shoes and trot to Hot Lake and back. Those were the days when there was keen competition among the volunteer hose companies in the smaller towns of the state and when the annual tournament was one of the big events—Oregonian.

"Just" Drugs.

Our drugs are JUST drugs in the sense that they are right in purity and potency and are just in their ability to treat sickness. They are not "just" drugs in the sense that they are merely drugs, but are the same of perfection in drug quality always. Remember this when you have a prescription to fill or when simple drug requirements come in demand, because no matter how simple an ailment may be the drugs for relief must be essentially correct.

Other bells than those attached to churches used to disturb the slumbers of Londoners. Prior to the institution of watchmen every parish had its bellman, who used to stalk the streets all night. If he met any malefactor, he sang merrily until the neighborhood was roused to his assistance.

FOREST PATROL IS SUSPENDED

FAILURE OF FUEL SUPPLY TO ARRIVE IS CAUSE

Shortage of Oil and Gasoline Causes at Busy Time When Fire Menace is Afoot

PORTLAND, July 30.—The forest officials says that the discontinuance of the aerial patrol is due to the gasoline shortage, which is only temporary, but they are unable to say how long.

The patrol service of the government airplanes operating over the national forests between Eugene and Portland and throughout the Willamette valley will be discontinued for about a week owing to the failure of the government to provide gasoline for the planes at Eugene and Portland. The situation was regarded as serious, as the work of scouting for fires is particularly important at this dry season of the year.

Numerous fires have been reported by the planes already this season, although none of them have proved serious owing to the fact that wardens were informed by the planes and hurried to the scene. It is pointed out by officials that the waste of a few hours in reporting a fire to the lookouts and getting men to the scene may mean the loss of thousands of dollars worth of timber.

The error in providing the gas did not fall upon the shoulders of the patrol officials as the shortage was foreseen in plenty of time and a requisition made. During the time that the service will not be operating, the base will be moved from here to Vancouver, complying with government orders of a recent date. Forest officials here state that the service is not to be discontinued permanently but will resume when the new supply of government gas arrives.

Whole Coast Hit

OLYMPIA, Wash., July 30.—Because of delay in the shipping of gasoline for government purposes from the east, the airplane patrol maintained by the department of conservation and development for forest protection has been suspended.

California Planes Idle

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—The United States forest service air patrol was idle throughout California today on account of the shortage of funds to purchase gasoline for the army airplanes employed. Major H. H. Arnold, chief of the army air service here, announced today. About 30 planes were affected. Major Arnold said he did not know how soon the situation would be relieved.

Ordered Afloat

EUGENE, July 30.—The army airplane patrol for Oregon, with headquarters in Eugene, has been suspended temporarily on account of a shortage of gasoline at the aviation field here. Orders have been received by Captain Lowell Smith, in charge of the patrol, from Colonel H. H. Arnold, head of the air service on the coast to suspend operations until further notice. Officers said that gasoline and oil were ordered in June and expected to arrive July 1.
