MEIGHAN A BUTLER IN LATEST PICTURE "CIVILIAN CLOTHES"

Becoming a butler in one's own household in order to cure one's wife of snobbishness is going pretty far, but it works out effectively and results in much good humor in Thomas Meighan's new starring vehicle, "Civilian Clothes," which will occupy the screen at the Sherry Theatre today only. The picture was adapted from Thompson Buchanan's stage play of the same name.

"Civilian Clothes" is the story of an American army captain who marries a young society girl in France. She is in love with his uniform more than with the man who wears it. Consequently when, after she has believed him killed in action, he returns to America and calls upon her in ill-fitting civilian clothes, she cannot conceal her disgust for him. Thereupon, he sets out to teach her a much needed lesson and succeeds.

Cause of Appendicitis.

When the bowels are constipated, the lower bowels or large intestines become packed with refuse matter, that is made up largely of germs. These germs enter the verminiform appendix and set up inflammation, which is commonly known as appendicitis. Take Chamberlain's Tablets when needed and keep your bowels regular and you have little to fear from appendicitis.—Adv.

MARY MILES MINTER AT THE ARCADE

Mary Miles Minter, the Renair film star who is now at the Arcade Theatre in "All Souls' Eve," was brought up on a commendable dramatic diet of Shakespeare and Browning. At the age of eight, the young star, then a child actress, could repeat whole plays and poems without a break.

"Classical training is invaluable to persons with dramatic inspirations," says Miss Minter. "It affords a solid, worthwhile foundation that one can get in no other way. Every girl who hopes for a screen or a stage career should know her Shakespeare thoroughly."

"All Souls' Eve," her current vehicle, affords the star a dual role, giving her in each unusual chances for excellent acting. It relates a pretty Irish legend of mother love which comes true in America. Jack Holt plays the male lead, while others in the cast include Mickey Moore, Carmen Phillips, Lottie Williams and Clarence Goldfarb.

"The Toomerville Follies," one of the famous Toomerville comedies is also being shown today and tomorrow.

So far our foreign commerce is concerned, we are rapidly getting back to a state of splendid isolation.—Richmond News Leader.

SHOOK LIKE SHE HAD THE PALSY

Portland Woman Couldn't Lift Cup of Tea to Lips Without Spilling It.

"I am willing to join with those who are telling about their experience with Tanlac, for the more people know about this wonderful medicine the less suffering there will be," said Mrs. Mary A. Chambers, 183 Park Ave. Portland, Ore.

"It seems that almost everything under the shining sun was the matter with me. First I was operated on for appendicitis, then I began having lumbago so bad I could hardly move and my back felt like it would break in two. I had no appetite to speak of, would never eat any breakfast and the little I ate at other meals seemed to do me more harm than good. My nerves were in such awful condition that I shook like I had the palsy and my hands trembled so I couldn't lift a cup of tea to my mouth without spilling it. I lost flesh until I weighed only ninety pounds, and was so weak it would tire me out to walk more than a few steps.

"Tanlac helped me right from the start and I haven't had a bad day since I finished my first bottle. I eat heartily three times a day and even take a snack between meals. I have gained twenty pounds in weight and have picked up strength so that I can do a hard day's housecleaning without getting tired. I'm well and happy today and I praise Tanlac from the bottom of my heart."

Tanlac is sold in La Grande by Silverthorn's Family Drug Store and all leading druggists.—Adv.

HOUSES FOR SALE

Those who contemplate purchasing homes this fall should avail themselves of the opportunity of looking over my splendid listings. I have several modern homes close in. I am sure I can suit you in whatever you desire.

The shrewd buyer will select his home now while he can secure his winter fuel.

If you are living in a rented house which is for sale, the chances are the house will be sold necessitating your trying to find another. Houses are very scarce now and when the school opens, the demand will be greater.

You will be disappointed if you think that prices on residences are going for anything like the selling prices to say nothing about lot values and other improvements.

When the state loan to the soldier boys is working there will a still greater demand for houses. Mr. RENTER, you are certainly facing trouble during the coming winter. If you are expecting to own property in La Grande, I would be glad to talk it over with you.

STUCK IN THE DITCH.

Mrs. Carl Christiansen and three daughters had the experience of being stuck in the ditch and waiting two hours to get word to a garage man to come and pull them out. At the end of that time Walter Daggert appeared on the scene and released them from their unpleasant predicament. The engine of their auto was submerged in water.—Joseph Herald.

WENT INSANE.

When Ira Michels returned home from town last Thursday morning he found his wife violently insane. He had been in town over night getting supplies for his ranch, which is on Sheep creek, and when he arrived home his three older children were on the outside with their mother and the baby, only four months old, was in the house. She had given them their breakfast and had milked the cows, and at this point reason seems to have deserted her. It seems to be hereditary as her aunt and a great aunt had the same misfortune come upon them. Mrs. Michels was taken to Pendleton Saturday.—Joseph Herald.

The pro-British Americans are convinced that there would be no trouble if the pro-Irish Americans wouldn't take sides.—Marion Star.

Same Old Story But a Good One.

Mrs. Mahala Burns, Savanna, Mo., relates an experience, the like of which has happened in almost every neighborhood in this country, and has been told and related by thousands of others, as follows: "I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea remedy about nine years ago and it cured me of flux (dysentery). I had another attack of the same complaint three or four years ago and a few doses of this remedy cured me. I have recommended it to dozens of people since I first used it and shall continue to do so for I know it is a quick and positive cure for bowel troubles."—Adv.

Save Your Eyes

The man of sense is he who best preserves those faculties with which nature has endowed him. Glasses are not an evidence of weak mind, but rather of strong intellect. In this day of conservation, men and women of strength, both mental and physical, wear them for preservation of nerve force and vitality, as much as for betterment of vision. Those at the forefront in worth while work are using every possible means to keep themselves fit and efficient and no man can be efficient with defective eyes uncorrected.

Our equipment and methods are the most modern and accurate for the correct EXAMINATION of the eyes, and the prescribing of correct Glasses where needed.
