COVE PREPARES SCHOOL BUDGET

COVE, Aug. 8.—(Special.)—There is a lull in the fruit harvest here, although there are still a good many berries going out. Harvest is at hand and the sound of the threshing machine is heard once more. Miss Mae Stearns was a Cove visitor on Saturday. Dr. Oftedal is in Cove again after a three month's absence. Miss Della Weimar is clerking at Geer's Confectionery. Mrs. T. H. Elson and Mrs. Judd Geer were La Grande visitors Monday. The lecture by George Mecklenburg at the Methodist church Sunday evening was well attended and enjoyed by all. Mrs. Otho Eckersley is on the sick list. The school board, assisted by three citizens, C. L. Rowe, R. Z. Baxter, and Ralph Comstock, spent all day Monday preparing the budget for the school year. The new law requires that the work of the last three years be reviewed and the new budget be prepared from that. Mrs. Greenough, the school janitor, is busy getting the school house in apple pie order for the coming year. Special school election is called for August 24. Misses Grace and Vera Pease gave a small party for their cousin, Miss Sarah Lamphere, Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stearns and children, Lawton, Jean and Mae, were Cove visitors on Sunday. Logan Anderson and Dr. Oftedal were fishing on the Minam several days this week. Huckleberry parties are all the fashion now. Berries are not as plentiful as they were last year. In the spring there was promise of a bountiful crop, but the dry weather has blighted them. A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Wheeler and daughter, Julien, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fletcher and Miss Doris Laird, all of Weiser, are guests at the home of Lewis Laird. The Boy Scout movement in Cove is gaining in numbers and efficiency. They have enrolled Floyd Baxter, Wallace Pease, Chase Oftedal, Clare and Raymond Smith, Will Howater, Ted McClain, Gordon Mills, David Loree and Robert Laird. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Towle, with their party of young people, have returned from an outing at Wallowa Lake. Mrs. Weeks, (nee Lulu R. Lorenz), of Portland, is visiting her mother in Cove. Before her marriage Mrs. Weeks was for a long time on the Observer staff. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gumprecht, who have been guests at the Dean home,

HAYING IS OVER FOR THE PRESENT and the first crop was put up in good condition as there was no wet weather during the haying season. The second crop will soon be ready to cut. The rancher is wondering where he is going to get a market for his hay. Mayor Forsstrom and family are expected home in a few days from their trip to Portland and other points. Mr. Forsstrom did not make a record run to Portland as he said he would have to make some six detours on account of the road building which is going on in different places. Paley Neuman will soon complete the grade at Wolf creek bridge and it is a good one. With a new bridge at this place this will be a fine road. Mr. and Mrs. Herman White are back again after their vacation at Crater Lake. Charlie Brant and family and other friends are camping out this week and looking for huckleberries. Reports have it that there are very few berries in the mountains this year. Mrs. Lillie Law was a business visitor in Telocast last week. Ira Harrison was in from his Wolf Creek farm on Wednesday.
