NOTICE OF REMOVAL

Kerr, Gifford and Company, grain buyers, have moved their local office from the New Foley Building at the corner of Adams Avenue and Chestnut Street to the old Bolton-Bodmer place, recently occupied by the Oregon Hardware and Implement Company, on Jefferson Avenue at the foot of Depot street. The firm will be glad to meet all of its old customers as well as all others having grain to dispose of, at its new offices.

Losses of fashionable New York dressmakers.

This was revealed when a large firm brought suit for $11,306 against a wealthy man for raiment purchased by his wife but alleged to be still unpaid for.

"Lady Fair," "I'll Say She Does," and "Patches" were the way three gowns were itemized. A shabby little dress went down on the list as "Country Mouse," while two street suits were charged up as "Hobby" and "Reggie."

By way of paradox, an evening gown was christened "Morning Glory."

are born with no provision made for clothing them and the sick in the hospitals are dependent upon paper bandages. American Red Cross workers say that the number of mothers in Europe who will be unable to provide clothing for their new-born babies will pass the million mark. Hundreds of thousands of children will have no shoes when cold weather comes unless they are provided in advance by American relief organizations.

The American Friends' Service Committee has united with the American Red Cross in a joint summer collection of used and unused garments to meet this situation as far as is possible. The drive will be nationwide. Those who want to know how they can help should apply to the nearest Red Cross Chapter or other Red Cross representative. Only garments which are strong, sensible and serviceable are worth paying freight on across the water. Shoes must be in good condition and tied in pairs. Knitted garments, especially stockings and sweaters will be badly needed. Baby clothing, new or used; uncut muslin and flannel; strong cloth for suits, yarn, even thread in great quantities, should be accumulated.

The main collecting point for the joint campaign is the big American Red Cross Warehouse, Bush Terminal, Brooklyn, N. Y. Red Cross workers will have specific shipping instructions. Goods may also be shipped to the Warehouse of the American Friends' Service Committee, 15th and Cherry Sts., Philadelphia, Pa. All shipments should be prepaid.

This clothing must be made or collected during the summer months in order to reach Europe before cold weather. Clothing that is not designated for a particular country will be distributed by the two organizations according to the greatest need. Donors may, however, specify the country to which they wish their gifts to go.

EUROPE IS NAKED AND HUNGRY TOO

Depreciated Currency Prevents Old World from Buying Clothing

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 9.—Eastern and Central Europe, and particularly the children, are nearer nakedness than they have been at any time since the close of the Napoleonic wars. In a recent review of present European conditions the American Relief Administration announced: "From the standpoint of food, conditions are better; from the standpoint of clothing, they are worse."

All observers agree that the need will reach a climax next winter. Where no clothes have been bought since 1915, except by the sale of household articles and heirlooms, the accumulated stores of years are bound to be exhausted in time, and that limit has now been reached in most families. This is as true in the homes of the formerly well-to-do, who are the new poor, as in the homes of laborers and peasants.

The chief reason why Europeans cannot buy clothes is the depreciation of their currency. Americans little realize what havoc this depreciation has wrought in the economic structure of the old world. It has brought the value of what was once a comfortable income in Vienna—15,000 crowns, or $3,000 a year,—to $30. Polish money has fallen twice as far as the money of Austria; in Warsaw 10,000 marks once worth $2,500 in American money will now bring only $10.

The effect of this money situation upon clothing is clear when it is realized that Central and Eastern Europe import their clothing or the raw materials of clothing from countries whose money is normal or nearly normal. Hence, in Vienna a suit of clothes costs a university professor three months' salary. A pair of shoes cannot be bought in Poland without a family's going hungry for a month. So desperate is the situation babies

GRAIN TRADING BILL ADVANCED

Grain Exchanges Show Apprehension at the New Move of Congress

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—The Capper-Tietcher bill to prohibit gambling in grain trading was given right of way in the senate upon disposal of the anti-beer bill. Both measures are features of the pre-recess plan of senators, who hope to secure a four or six weeks' recess of the senate late this week if President Harding should consent to delaying the railroad debt funding bill.

Passage of the Capper-Tietcher bill before the week-end is proposed. It has been so amended, it is said, as to secure solid support of the senate agriculture committee, which Monday had Senator Capper, Republican, Kansas, submit the revised measure.

Another effort was made Monday to have the agriculture committee restrict the provision for admission of co-operative associations as members of grain exchanges with the right to rebate commissions.

Exchanges Apprehensive.

Certain grain exchanges are apprehensive, members of the committee said, that co-operative associations composed of farmers might gain control of a large part of the grain exchange business. The committee refused, however, to modify the admission provision, but agreed to modify slightly its amendment for providing that the commissions should become a part of the earnings of the association to be distributed among its bona fide members.

Bank Estimates Aid For Ex-Soldiers Now Totals 375 Millions

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—State legislation converting more than $375,000,000 to the aid of World War veterans has been passed or is waiting for popular referendum. The Bank of America announced Monday at the conclusion of a nationwide survey of the bonus situation. Veterans in 14 states already are receiving cash bonuses totaling $184,000,000, and in eight more states legislation providing for cash bonuses of $191,000,000 now is pending.

Only Alabama, Georgia and Mississippi have failed to pass legislation authorizing aid to veterans in exemptions or benefits of some kind, the report declared.

The bonuses range from $10 a month for service in a number of states to $25 a month in North Dakota.

California has passed a bill for vocational education of veterans.

It is only through the courtesy of the Forest Rangers that this is possible. Telephones are installed at the various lookout stations for the use of the Forest Ranger Service only, so their kindness to camping parties should be much appreciated.

to the members' forum of the Chamber of Commerce Monday.

Mr. Drum, in returning to his home in San Francisco, is making the last stage of a three months' tour of the country visiting and talking with bankers in all of the important cities.

In speaking of his impression gained from these many talks he said: "The common feeling is not one of pessimism nor of extreme optimism, but one born of the realization that our difficulties are not insurmountable and the solution of our problems lies largely in our own hands."

"Two problems," said Mr. Drum, "must be solved before the economic structure of the country is brought back to a normal basis. One of these is to harmonize the cost of production and distribution with selling prices, and the other is the creation of foreign trade machinery which will enable the country to dispose of its surplus production."

Miss Hart Still Missing.

Although every effort has been made to locate Miss Ruth Hart, the La Grande girl who is missing among the list of those unaccounted for on the Alaska, it has been without avail. Relatives in La Grande combined their efforts with Agent O'Brien, of Pendleton, of the O-W, where the young lady worked as telegraph operator.

Aside from the word received by her sister, Mrs. Frank Rechin, of this city, to the effect that Miss Hart was missing, nothing has been heard. Mrs. Julia Metzler, another sister, will make a personal investigation as she left last night for Eureka, California.
