My wife decided, one fine day, To make a visit home, She told me I could back, or else, To restaurants could roam.

"Baching" does not agree with me, And restaurants make me blue, I thought I'd have to close the shop And visit dear ma too.

I happened to drop in one day, At Al Cain's Ice Cream Shop; The folks were eating lunches That appeared to me tip-top.

So I just ordered in a lunch, I tell you it was fine, And after eating at Al's place, No restaurants for mine.

My wife may stay away for months, It will not bother me, As long as Al serves lunches I'm as happy as can be.

MRS. WILSON GAVE UP HOPE

Portland Woman Fell Off From 150 to 103 Pounds But Gains It All Back.

"I'm never going to say anything is impossible again since Tanlac has restored my health, for when I began taking it I didn't believe I would ever know another well day," said Mrs. W. F. Wilson, 54 East Twenty-Ninth St., Portland, Oregon.

"For years my strength had been gradually wasting away and I had grown so thin that I was hardly more than a shadow. I barely ate enough to keep body and soul together and I was so run down it tired me down to walk even a few blocks. None of the medicines I tried reached my case, and as my condition was growing worse every day I finally gave up hope.

"When I began taking Tanlac all I expected of it was to give me some temporary relief, and it certainly has been the biggest and gladdest surprise of my life the way this medicine has restored me to health and brought back my strength. I have a splendid appetite, my digestion is perfect and I sleep all night long like a girl. I have regained all my lost weight too. Just think of it! When I began taking Tanlac I only weighed one hundred and three pounds and I now weigh exactly one hundred and fifty pounds, which is my proper weight. There's not a doubt in my mind that Tanlac's the best medicine in the world."

their way westward to the gold fields and it recalls, too, the big cattle ranges and the hardy cowboys that rode them in pursuit of a calling that in days gone by fired every American youth with a desire to go West and ride around the big open country in the cattle round-ups. Adventure and romance are strewn all along these Western trails.

The cowboy motion picture of today brings many interesting reminiscences of the old West, when a man sometimes rode fifty miles to reach his nearest neighbor. An interesting example of such Western life is "The One-Man Trail," now being shown at the Arcade Theatre, and in which Buck Jones, the William Fox star, appears.

Eddie Polo in "King of the Circus" will also be shown in connection with the above feature today and Thursday at the Arcade.

Same Old Story But a Good One. Mrs. Mahala Burns, Savanna, Mo., relates an experience, the like of which has happened in almost every neighborhood in this country, and has been told and related by thousands of others, as follows: "I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea remedy about five years ago and it cured me of flux (dysentery). I had another attack of the same complaint three or four years ago and a few doses of this remedy cured me. I have recommended it to dozens of people since I first used it and shall continue to do so for I know it is a quick and positive cure for bowel troubles."—Adv.

DOINGS OF THE DUFFS

HORSES ARE A BIG ATTRACTION. Palmer Bros. Wild Animal Circus is coming to La Grande on Monday, August 15th, giving two performances, rain or shine, and inaugurating its appearance with a monster parade, a mile of glittering gold and silver with every feature of this truly monster exhibition represented in this grand pageant, which leaves the show grounds at 10:30 a. m.

Among the many big features to be seen this season will be Chas. Fulton's stable of dancing, high school, manerique and beautiful statue horses. In fact, one will witness a veritable fair.

Groups of wild, jungle animals put through drills and exciting performances in the steel-bound arena, by intrepid, fearless lady and gentleman trainers. Even the birds of the air have been trained to perform. Incidentally bucking mules and, best of all for the kids, the funny clowns cavort about the big tent spilling laughter and sunshine all around them. Two performances will be given at 2 and 8 o'clock, afternoon and night.

Before the regular performance an hour's time will be given in which the patrons of the Palmer Bros. Show may visit the menagerie—Monday, August 15.

A Refreshing Drink. A refreshing drink of soda is healthful and appetizing. The carbonic dioxide gas that it contains has positive diuretic value. When it can be obtained fresh and pure as it always is at The Palace it becomes not only healthful but very refreshing in hot weather.

THE SCREEN. "DEEP WATER" IS THE SHIRRY ATTRACTION.

Maurice Tourneur's latest production for Paramount, "Deep Water," a pieturization of F. Hopkinson Smith's famous novel, "Caleb West, Master Diver," was presented with fluttering results at the Sherry theatre last night. The picture instantly achieved a fitting successor in the many screen hits with which Mr. Tourneur's name as producer is associated.

The story is laid on the New England coast. It is at once appealing, interesting and human. The backgrounds, lighting effects, under water shots, thrilling shipwreck and subsequent rescue scenes are highly effective.

Barbara Bedford, as the little wife of Caleb West, finely portrayed by Brocken Christians, is a revelation. She is a new-comer recently found by Tourneur. Jack Gilbert as Bill Lacy, portrays his role true to life, while Captain Bell is well handled by George Nichols. Henry Woodward does a bit of finished work as the young contractor. Florence DeShon cleverly plays the trifling wife, while her husband, played by Jack McDonald, is a fine bit of characterization.

Other notables in the big cast are Lydia Yamans Titus as Auntie Bell; Ruth Wing plays the hired girl with rare comedy, and Marie Van Tassel does the village gossip with convincing realism. The rest of the cast is excellent and the whole production is completely up to the Tourneur standard.

Also showing a comedy, Tomorrow, Dorothy Dalton in her latest success "Half An Hour."

"THE ONE MAN TRAIL" IS RARE ATTRACTION.

The word "trail" in drama has a charm for Americans. It brings to mind the days when men howed
