WOLF CREEK FOLKS BUSY

WOLF CREEK, Aug. 10.—(Special)—Mr. James Tenney was in Baker the first of the week on business.

Matt Nice has started threshing and will thresh out all the grain in this vicinity that is ready. The fall grain is turning out fine.

James Tenney's mother is here visiting. Her home is in Cooskey, Idaho. She reports the crops in that country as being good.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bickford motored from La Grande one day this week to visit Mrs. Bickford's sister, Mrs. W. Standley.

Mr. John Talley and family were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Talley the first of the week.

A meeting was held at the Wolf Creek Hall Saturday, August 6, for the purpose of organizing a Pacific Co-operative League creamery.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Lomera are the proud parents of a baby girl, born August 8. Mother and babe are both doing nicely.

UNION APPLE CROP LARGE

According to the report issued this week by F. L. Kent of the bureau of crop estimates on the apple, pear and prune crops in Oregon, Union county will have a "very excellent crop of apples and it should be as large or larger than the 1919 crop."

Mr. Kent has prepared the following estimates of the present crop prospects by counties:

Table with columns: County, Apples, Pears, Prunes, Cans, Tons, Lbs. Rows include Benton, Clackamas, Columbia, Coos, Douglas, Jackson, Josephine, Lane, Linn, Marion, Multnomah, Polk, Washington, Yamhill, Eastern Oregon, Baker, Hood River, Malheur, Umatilla, Union, Wasco, and Totals.

GRAIN MAY GO HIGHER IS BELIEF

"This was made the basis of the adjustment," the statement continued, "the railroads relinquishing their so-called 'labor inefficiency' claims, and undertaking to inaugurate reductions in the export grain rates, while the administration undertook to assist them by securing early settlement of their claims against the government."

Christian Church, O. W. Jones, Minister. Well, old man "Summer Stumpski" gave us a hard tussle last Sunday. The old reprobate tells everybody that it's too hot for any self-respecting body to even think about Church, and he knows just where there is a trout "seven" foot long, big believe me, the hot weather doesn't bother him, he don't fish on Sunday, either. He marked us up for just 170 last Sunday, the least we have had all summer. And he will be there tomorrow, too, but come on and we'll put the skids under him—S. S. at 9:45 sharp. Preaching at 11. Evening service at the Presbyterian church.

Church of God, Harris Hall, corner of Fir and Monroe streets. Sunday school at 2:30 in the afternoon.
