MAYO COMING HERE IN SPEEDY COMEDY.

Frank Mayo never had a speedier comedy-drama than "The Fighting Lover," his most recent Universal photodrama, which is to be shown for the first time locally at the Arcade Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday.

As the story opens Mayo will be seen as a rich young fellow who casually bets a friend $10,000 that he can supply three girls, one of whom his friend will fall in love with in thirty days. He advertises for the girls with the connivance of his wealthy aunt and falls in love with one of them himself. A fascinating crime mystery, love interest, and an abundance of comedy and screen speed make "The Fighting Lover" a unique photodrama offering of rare entertainment value.

In addition to the winsome trio of leading ladies, the star is supported by Elmor Hancock, Jackson Reed, Colin Kenny, Joe Singleton, Gordon Sackville, Fred G. Becker and Robert Bolder.

Settings of unusual beauty that radiate wealth and splendor of the story's locale, beautiful women, well-groomed men and all of them clever players give "The Fighting Lover" a splendid start toward the punchy finish in which the popular star does his best work.

"The Fighting Lover" shows Mayo not only as a young, well-dressed cosmopolitan, in which he is admired by so many fans, but gives him an opportunity for that virile, vigorous type of acting that distinguishes him as one of the two-fisted he-men of the screen.

Eddie Polo in the last chapter of "King of the Circus" will also be shown on the same program.

SH-H-H! DOUG MACLEAN, "THE JAILBIRD"

Douglas Mac Lean, who is starred in the Ince-Paramount picture, "The Jailbird," which will be shown at the Sherry theatre today, didn't have to make any special trips to penitentiaries for local color because sh-h-h! he has been a real jailbird himself, and has done time behind prison bars.

Don't get the impression that he's a criminal on that account. A certain town not far from Doug's home has a solid little jay an efficient police force, a calloused old judge, and strict speed laws! Heading for home from a week-end house party one Sunday evening and in a hurry to get there, Doug whizzed through the town, shattered all the speed laws.
