A Pullman in Three Reels. Harold Lloyd's advice on "Pullman Car Etiquette" is being published on the Arcade Theatre's screen today and Tuesday under the title of "Now or Never." It is the first comedy made under the comedian's new contract with Associated Exhibitors, and is three reels of the heartiest laughs Lloyd has ever produced.

A Successful Vacation. "Two Weeks With Patsy," the newest Bebe Daniels picture, which will be shown at the Arcade Theatre today and Tuesday is the sprightly tale of a working girl's vacation. Miss Daniels is seen in a dual role, that of the little salesgirl and a famous film actress for whom she is mistaken. But it is in the adventures of Patsy, the salesgirl, that the audience is interested.

It would be awfully hard on the store keepers and office executives of the land if all vacations ended so triumphantly for the girls and so badly for business—as did Patsy's little old two weeks. But from Patsy's standpoint, her vacation was a huge success, even though it started rather un auspiciously in a mud puddle.

The story is taken from the Saturday Evening Post story by Nina Wilcox Putnam. Others in the cast include Jack Mulhall and Walter Hiers.

Another of William Gillette's gems of the American stage beautify's the silversheet at the Sherry Theatre for the last time today.

"Held by the Enemy" was one of the greatest of American dramas, and in its screen form it is said to be even more vivid and gripping than the play itself.

"Held by the Enemy" is a drama of tense emotions and big, vital, human situations—a story of love and loyalty and unselfishness, hate and treachery and human passion. It is filled with powerful moments and the underlying theme depicts the triumph of love and devotion.

There are many big, striking roles in "Held by the Enemy." Lewis Stone, well known New York actor, takes the part of Captain Gordon Hayne. Arnes Ayers, an actress of many accomplishments, was chosen to portray Rachel Hayne, and charming Wanda Hawley plays and equally important feminine part.

Jack Holt, who will be remembered for his work in Tourneur's "The Life Line," and also in "Victory" does his best work in this picture, while Robert Cain plays the heavy with his usual excellent skill. Walter Hiers, the funny fat boy actor, supplies the necessary comedy. Other important players are Josephine Crowell, Lillian Leighton, Robert Brower and C. H. Geldart.

The "Vod-A-Vil Movies" are exceptionally good. Tomorrow comes the "Round-Up" with Fatty Arbuckle.
