CHAPLIN'S NEW COMEDY IS SIX REELS OF JOY

Charlie Chaplin's first venture into the field of feature comedies, "The Kid," will open at the Arcade Theatre for a three days showing to-morrow. Because the story has the unusual comedy talent which has made Chaplin the most famous funny man in the world stands out stronger and more joyous than in any previous production in which he has appeared. "The Kid" is a realization of an ambition which the comedian has held for years. He conceived the story when he was first starting on his screen career, but could think of it only as something he would like. Then he made his contract with Associated First National Pictures, Inc., under the policy of that distributing organiza-tion of permitting uncontrolled pro-duction on the part of stars and pro-ducers.

Chaplin whipped his idea into shape and started work upon the produc-tion of the story. It took him a year to complete. There are but five char-acters of importance in it and are characterized as The Man, The Wo-man, The Kid, The Tramp and the Policeman. The comedian himself plays the part of the Tramp, while a real find as a juvenile actor, Jackie Coogan, has the title role; and Edna Purviance plays the part of The Wo-man.

Chaplin as a nurse, as a guardian to a precocious kid, and as a reason why the police force should be in-creased, has one of the best comedy roles that has ever been prepared for him on the screen. First National's six reels of joy, as "The Kid" is de-signated, is really a mild statement of the actual hilarity caused by the action on the screen.

CHAMBERS STORY AT SHERRY'S TODAY

The reasons for Robert W. Cham-bers' popularity as a writer of bril-liant society stories are demonstrated anew in the picture version of "The Restless Sex," which came to the Sherry Theatre last evening for a two days' run. Pretty Marion Davies is the star. The lively romance and elaborately artistic backgrounds make the production unusually pleasing.

"The Restless Sex" is of course, the feminine, and the story centers around Stephanie Cleland, a society girl with an inborn craving for excitement and ambition to experience life to the full. She is the adopted daughter of John Cleland, a millionaire, and it comes as a shock to her at the latter's death to learn that his son, Jim, her lifelong companion, is not her real brother. Following a midnight adventure at a roadhouse, Stephanie is led into an unfortunate marriage and subsequent unhappiness, from which her love for Jim finally extricates her. Ralph Keeler and Carlyle Blackwell are prominent in the cast sup-porting Miss Davies. The picture was made by Cosmopolitan Productions for Paramount release and was directed by Robert Z. Leonard. Frances Marion wrote the continuity. The comedy "This way Out" is also being shown.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That under and by virtue of a foreclosure execution, judgment, decree and order of sale, duly issued out of and under the seal of the circuit court of the state of Oregon, for the County of Union, bearing the date of August the 23rd, A. D. 1921, and to me direct-ed and delivered, upon a judgment, decree and order of sale duly entered in said court in the suit therein pend-ing wherein C. R. Hibberd is plain-tiff and D. E. Witty and Stella F. Witty, husband and wife, J. M. Burn-ough, and Joel A. Tracy and Alice Tracy, husband and wife, are defend-ants, in which judgment and decree was entered in favor of C. R.
