CASE IN GEORGIA IS REMARKABLE

Really Sounds Incredible But Well Known Merchant Testifies To Facts.

Writing from Maxeys, Ga., A. J. Gillen, proprietor of a large department store at that place, says:
"I have a customer here who was in bed for three years and did not go to a meal at any time. She had five physicians and they gave her up. One bottle of Tanlac got her up, on the second bottle she commenced keeping house and on the third she did all the cooking and housework for a family of eight."
This sounds really incredible, but it comes unsolicited from a highly creditable source and is copied verbatim from the letter.
Tanlac is sold in La Grande by Silverthorn's Family Drug Store and all leading druggists.—Adv.

Baker Rejects All Bids for New Bridge

BAKER, Aug. 31.—After considerable debate at the special meeting of the city commissioners this afternoon for considering bids for constructing the Madison street bridge, it was decided to postpone letting the contract and building the bridge until next spring.
Three bids were submitted to the city. Two on plans drawn by L. R. Stockman. Gilmore & Ritchie, $5,426.50, and Landreth & Newton, $4,395.00.
The Union Bridge company submitted two sets of plans for an arch bridge with bids. One was for $9,784.00, and the other for $11,784.00.

BULLETINS

SEATTLE, Aug. 31—A lone bandit entered the Green Lake State Bank at 9 o'clock this morning, bound and gagged Fred Haug, the boy who had unlocked the doors and was getting ready for the day's business. The bandit awaited the arrival of Assistant Cashier Hanlon, whom he forced to unlock the vault from which he took $5000 and locking Hanlon in the vault the robber escaped.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 31—Hope is not altogether vanished at the offices of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine and the belief exists that the Canadian Importer is still afloat. It is probable the vessel has drifted outside the area of the search. All vessels are urged to keep a lookout for the missing ship.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31—The Famous Players-Lasky corporation and affiliated concerns, which the federal trade commission has formally charged with unfair competition and monopolistic politics, combined and conspired to suppress competition in interstate commerce in motion picture films," according to summaries of the officials complaint given out today.

PORTLAND, Aug. 31—The Highway commission awarded or referred to engineers with power to act, a million dollars in contracts on road and bridge work in twenty Oregon counties today. Most of the work is to be done during the winter west of the Cascades. The commission announced that road signs would be placed on the highways in the next four months.

OPPORTUNITY FOR LEAGUE TO BEGIN ITS WORK

Austria Sends Eight Thousand Troops into the Disputed Zone to Restore Order and Put Down Insurrection.

VIENNA, Aug. 31—Eight thousand Austrian troops moved into the Mattesdorf district of Burgenland Tuesday, and will police the region and clear out the foreign element. Fear was expressed that this demonstration by force may provoke a response from the Hungarian insurgents under Lieutenant Hejjas.
Refugees from Odenburg say that city is quiet, but wholly in the control of the insurgents. They also report Hungarians in the disturbed area have destroyed a number of vineyards belonging to Germans.
Although the Austrians have established a provisional government at Mattesdorf for the territory they occupy, the Burgenland affair apparently awaits action by the entente for settlement. Count Anton Sigray turned over command at Odenbrug to the insurgent leader, Oestenburg, who is reported to have declared in a speech that he would expel every Austrian within three days.
The Social Democrats are demanding that the Austrian government immediately declare its intention to hold a plebiscite in Burgenland.

Situation Like Upper Silesia.

VIENNA, Aug. 31—Burgenland, a narrow strip of territory situated along the Hungarian border, which was awarded Austria by the treaty of St. Germain, is apparently in possession of Hungarian insurgents, with Lieutenant Hejjas enacting the role of Adalbert Korfanty in Upper Silesia or Capt. Gabriel d'Annunzio in Fiume. The government is not receiving any news from the district, where on Sunday night irregular Hungarian forces attacked Austrian gendarmes sent to occupy the district. Austrian Commissioner Davy, however, reports from the town of Mattesdorf that he narrowly escaped being killed in Odenburg.
There are unconfirmed reports that one allied officer has been killed or wounded in the fighting in Burgenland.
Lieutenant Hejjas is reported to have posted placards throughout the district calling to the colors all men under 45 years of age. It is also said that 3000 Hungarian regular troops have arrived and are encamped near Odenburg. A detachment of 200 Austrian gendarmes is reported surrounded at Gerersdorf.
