GRANGE PLANS FOR BIG FAIR

Whole Day Will be Spent Getting Buildings Into Shape; Vegetables Shipped to Wallowa County

GRANGE HALL, Sept. 8.—(Special)—The frost did very little damage Sunday night in this locality. Only the most tender vines, such as cucumbers, pumpkins and tomatoes, were injured.

Mrs. Adam Beck and daughter, Emma, returned Sunday from Wallowa county where they spent a week visiting friends and relatives in Enterprise, Joseph and other parts. While in Joseph Mrs. Beck met a very dear friend, whom she had not seen for twelve years. The ladies spent a very happy day in talking over the good times they had in the past.

Mrs. Albee Salisbury and family motored to Baker last Wednesday to attend the circus and to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Angus, Mrs. Newell Anson and son, Charlie, returned Thursday from a motor trip to Portland, Seaside and other points of interest. The party was gone two weeks and Mrs. Newell Anson stated that they enjoyed every minute of the time and if any one wishes to take a motor trip, the one along the Columbia highway can not be surpassed anywhere for scenic beauty.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Dodson accompanied the party from Portland to Seaside.

Chas. Spencer and the Huff Bros. started their threshing machine on Tuesday morning on the Huff farm.

Mrs. Lynn Hill and son, Frederick of Elgin, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Hill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Huffman.

Thursday evening about thirty friends of Miss Minnie Holmes gave her a farewell surprise party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Holman. Conversation and music were the diversions of the evening.

Velma McCall spent Wednesday with her friend, Faye Golden.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hull who arrived last Thursday morning from their home in Glenn's Ferry, Idaho, to visit with Mrs. C. E. Golden and family, left for their home Tuesday evening.

Miss Minnie Holman left Saturday evening for Davenport, Washington, where she has the principalship of the Davenport high school.

Ernest DeLong is threshing for George Salisbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gettle of La Grande spent Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Huffman. Mr. and Mrs. Gettle were married about three weeks ago in Peoria, Ill., the former home of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Salisbury, who came over from Palmer Junction to attend the Labor Day celebration in La Grande, were guests at the home of Mr. Salisbury's mother, Mrs. Alice Salisbury.

This has been a very busy week at the Adam-Beck farm as 500 3.25-cu ears of corn, 200 pounds of string beans, besides clematis, cauliflower and carrots, were prepared for shipment to Enterprise. The Becks' will ship this amount of vegetables to Enterprise every week, as long as the season lasts.

As Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Angus had just returned from their wedding trip to the coast, 26 of their friends decided to greet them back into their midst with tin pans and cowbells, Saturday evening. At nine o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Angus who were guests at the Jos. Anson home, were aroused by that terrible racket that goes by the name of charivari. The guests were invited in and a very pleasant evening was passed in dancing. Conversation and music were also features of the entertainment. Before departing the guests were served with ice cream and cake.

Tressa Gettle and son, Edward, came down from their mountain home and spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Huffman.

Leon Redhead of Idaho, stopped in La Grande to make a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Redhead and then left Monday afternoon for Baker where he called on Mrs. Ethel Smith and family while on his way home. Mrs. J. W. Redhead accompanied him as far as Baker, intending to return as far as Baker.

On Saturday, Sept. 17th, the Grangers will hold an all-day meeting at their hall in order to get the buildings, etc. in shape for the fair. Each member is requested to come and bring his lunch as there will be no serving done on that day, as is the custom.

BEHOLD THE MAN AT THE ARCADE

"Behold the Man," is the expression of Pontius Pilate when the multitude sought to crucify Jesus. It is also the title of the picture which has been filmed lately depicting the life of Christ in as grand a manner as possible for humanity to do.

The picture is in colors, tells the story of the bible times in detail, renders a clearer conception of religious thought, makes everyone who sees it a student of spiritual matters for at least an hour and a half, and sends the crowd from the theatre with better thoughts, purer motives and a divine respect for the old, old story which has stood the test of centuries and never yet has been discredited.

The picture is running at the Arcade beginning today and tonight.

Two Rooming House Licenses Are Revoked

The rooming house licenses of Mike Stillen, of the Darland hotel, and Mrs. P. A. Patten of the Boston Rooming house, were revoked by the city commission yesterday evening. Mr. Stillen appeared before the commission in person and alleged that the conviction for violation of the prohibition laws was obtained without sufficient evidence but presented no proof to that effect and the commission decided that inasmuch as a court had found him guilty of such an offense his license should be revoked.

Mrs. Patten did not appear before the commission, either in person or through a representative. Her license was revoked on grounds similar to those which resulted in Mr. Stillen's losing his permit to operate a rooming house. Mrs. Patten was tried before a jury in justice's court, her trial resulting in a hung jury and she is to be tried in circuit court during the October term.

OSERVER WANT ADS PAY

Railroad Answers Two-Year-Old Letter

On October 1, 1919, City Attorney James D. Slater wrote a letter to the O.W. R. & N. railroad regarding securing perpetual easements under the company's tracks where the city's sewers are carried under the railway tracks. At last evening's meeting of the city commission Mr. Slater reported that he had just received an answer to that letter. The answer indicated that the railroad would be glad to give the city the easements but wanted data regarding the construction of the sewers which will be furnished by the engineering department of the city.

At present leases held by the city can be cancelled on thirty days' notice by the railroad and it is the desire of the city to secure perpetual easements so that all chances of trouble in the future will be eliminated.

REPORTS MADE BY OFFICIALS

Monthly Reports of Activities of City Departments Submitted to Commission Last Evening.

According to the report of Mrs. E. M. Fowler, city treasurer, for the month of August, the balance on hand at the end of the month was $17,966.20 and the receipts during the month were $10,705.83, while a total of $4,816.70 was paid out during the month. The report was received by the city commission at its meeting last evening.

The report of Chief of Police Roy Flexer showed that 24 arrests were made in August and of these 22 were convicted, eight being paroled. Among the arrests during the month were eight for selling liquor and two for having liquor in possession. A special officer was on duty in connection with liquor raids made towards the end of the month. The amount of fines collected during August was $170 and $11.50 in pound fees was collected. The liquor cases were tried in justice's court, the warrants under which the arrests were made being issued in that court as the city judge has not the power to issue search warrants in such cases.

The report of the recorder, J. H. Stearns, showed that warrants in the sum of $7,878.50 had been issued by him during the month.

C. O. Murchison, fire chief, also submitted his report last night. Eight calls were received during the month and two verbal calls and the loss from fire during the month was $550. Two lines of hose were laid at fires during the month and 76 gallons of chemicals were used.

CLINIC WAS BIG SUCCESS

Wallowa County People Examined for Tuberculosis at First Free Clinic East of Blue Mountains.

Miss Louise Zorn, county public health nurse, returned yesterday from Enterprise, where she assisted Mrs. Lulu Johnson, the Wallowa county nurse, in the free tuberculosis clinic given Tuesday under the auspices of the Wallowa Medical Society and conducted by Dr. G. C. Bellingier, superintendent of the State Tuberculosis Hospital at Salem. For the first clinic of its kind to be held east of the Blue Mountains it was unusually successful. It was the fourth held this year in the state by the Oregon Tuberculosis association.

Starting early in the morning Dr. Bellingier by evening had examined twenty-nine patients and of this number eight showed clinical symptoms of tuberculosis. The visitors took great interest in the examinations and the advice given, proving that the public generally is taking a sensible attitude in desiring to know more about the prevention and treatment of tuberculosis.

Every physician in Wallowa county attended the clinic and brought patients for examination. Dr. Bellingier was entertained by the society and will be taken on hunting and fishing expeditions during the next two weeks.

In Grande and Union county, physicians have invited Dr. Bellingier to conduct a clinic here before he returns from his vacation. According to Robert W. Osborn of the Oregon Tuberculosis association, who returned to Portland yesterday, the clinic here here will be September 19 or 20. The use of the Grande Route hospital with its equipment has been offered as the place for the examinations, which will probably make the event the most successful yet held.

Miss Zorn will spend the next two weeks making arrangements wherever every man, woman and child in the county wishing a free chest examination may appear at the clinic.
