Boys' Clothes Reflect Men's Fashions for Fall

What is it in clothes that appeals to the youth? Style—Quality—Service? No! To "Have 'em just like Daddy's"—that's it. Not one iota of difference does the cut, or the tailoring, or the material make. But it's the imitative instinct, prompted by a brand of hero-worship that guides his preferences. With this knowledge of boy nature in view, designers have followed the same style tendencies as men's clothes, and very sturdy, manly little figures do they present. However, the interpretation is more liberal and less severe as a concession to the feminine influence that must be still considered at this age. Lower waistlines, lower pockets and rolling lapels are noted in men's suits, but patch pockets and in some instances belts are still retained. Double breasted models also are more popular than in men's garments. Norfolk jackets cannot be overlooked at the school boy age. Pleats and yokes are found in some of the favorite styles. These suits appeal to both the boy and his mother. Trousers are in full knickerbocker style, a trifle longer and less baggy, to be secured just below the knee with a strap. Fine grade flannels, tweeds, chevrons and worsteds are used in their fashioning. Blue serge, club checks and shepherd plaids are favored, and some extremely natty looking models are observed.
