Fire Destroyed the Entire Town of Copperfield Last Saturday

HOMESTEAD, Ore., Sept. 8.—The fire on last Saturday, night, burned about all there was left of Copperfield. The old city jail is the only building left from the boom days.

The ditch is finished taking water from the Indian Creek to the Azule mine. Work will be started at the mine as soon as the ditch will carry a head of water. The mill will be started also.

Engineers are looking over the ground between Homestead and the Red Ledge viewing out the proposed wagon road and the plans to locate construction camps.

Fountain Pens and Eversharps. Fountain Pens and a new Eversharp pen are being sold at Silverthorn's for school use at a very small price.

Another Shipment of Moccasins. Chris Miller of 1510 Adams has just received another large shipment of Alaskan moccasins. He has different styles and all sizes and the public is invited to call and see them.

Is now open for business. Fresh Candy every day. Watch our window for Specials.

Spuds - Eggs - Peaches - Tomatoes - Wood - Apples

This may sound fishy, but it's true, entirely proven—I put in more time buying my goods than I do selling them. The people I buy from say "think I am tight—those I sell to don't." I never had a better business since the day I landed. My system and plan have no equal—turn your goods and buy yours. Crush out all expenses—do as I do look around before you buy.

It's a real show to see a store of this kind—admission FREE. Saturday, 8:30 a.m. a big truck load of Eagle Valley peaches and tomatoes go to the depot. From of Pioneer's farm of West—back of Pauline Lederley's. Side door only, No. 2—follow the chalk signs.

Catches Beast With Net

Major Jack Allen was a net when he hunts lions, tigers, leopards and other beasts of the jungle. Some of his exploits have been done into a series of Pathé movies to be released this fall.

WHEN MONTANA WAS ON THE OLD FRONTIER

Montana—a name reminiscent of the old frontier—of cattle wars, of gold stampedes, of outlaws and grim vigilantes, is the locale for "That Girl Montana," the Jesse D. Hampton Pathé feature in which Blanche Sweet is starred at the Star theatre Saturday and Sunday.

"That Girl Montana," adapted from the novel by Marah Ellis Ryan, tells the romantic story of a girl who had been forced by a cruel father to wear boys' clothes and he his companion in robberies and at card cheating.

When she finally escapes his evil influence, she struggles to live down a past for which she was not responsible, and prove her right to the friendship of decent people. Interwoven with the adventure and during is a charming romance between the girl who did not trust men and the man who had lost his faith in women.

Miss Sweet is given the support of Madelon Hamilton, star of "Half a Chance" and of Frank Lanning, Edward Peil, Clara Ingham and Kate Price.

A two-reel Mack Sennett comedy will also be shown on the program.

Sept. 10th last day to pay your water rent without a penalty. 9-8-21

ETHEL CLAYTON IS IN "A CITY SPARROW"

A cast of clever artists, playing the various supporting roles, is one of the reasons for the brilliant reports of "A City Sparrow," the new Ethel Clayton starring vehicle for Paramount which will be shown at the Sherry theatre today.

Ethel Clayton, the star, stands in the front rank of film stars and has a most enthusiastic following.

The star is seen as a spinster and a school teacher. In the dark scenes, she is called upon to execute the Apache dance, which she learned for the occasion.

Miss Clayton received instruction from Theodore Kosloff, the noted Russian dancer, who has appeared in several Paramount and Aircraft pictures and in Cecil B. DeMille productions.

The principal male lead is portrayed by Clyde Fillmore, who appears as a noble-hearted countryman who falls in love with Milly West, a dancing girl and persuades her to go to the country, where their love romance develops. Walter Helms, the fat comedian, is funnier than ever, in the role of Tim Kaine, a disappointed lover.

William Boyd, a new screen discovery, does attractive work as Hughie Ray, the star's dancing partner. Bartine Burkett has a delightful ingenue role. Robert Brower, Lillian Leighton and Sylvia Ashton, play the character roles and Rose Cade also appears in an unique part.

The principal male lead is portrayed by Clara G. Kennedy of a story by Kate Jordan. Sam Wood directed and Al Gilks was the photographer.

The final chapter of "Lightning Bryces" is also being shown.

25c a Pint or 50c a Quart.

These prices of the very best ice cream that can be made is what Al Cain is serving and will be selling ice cream at in the future. These are the best prices that have been made on the Pacific Coast in years past. Al also says their candy business is more than double what it was a year ago and the quality of candy they are making was never better at the Palace.
