this week by a visit from their old-time friends, Mr. and Mrs. Shan, of Idaho. Both the families came from the old "show me" state seventeen years ago. Lots of fun was enjoyed talking over "possum hunts, fox chases, kitchen sweats and platform dances. Mr. and Mrs. Shan are on their way by auto to Seattle.

Lot Snodgrass of the Sommer hotel and nephew, Bill, of Pendleton were up for a few days hunting bear with Bert and Tom Ross. They saw a number of deer and several bear. A band of Vey sheep is being shipped from Mencham. They were sold to sheep buyers who were in here several weeks ago.

Ray Weldon, one of the campfollowers for the Smythe company met a black bear in the road Sunday morning. Ray had no gun, which is about the way these things always happen. Result—bear went one way and Ray went the other.

Martin Main, who was laid up for some time from the injuries received from the loss of a thumb twisted off by a rope, is back on the job and the wound has healed very nicely.

Manitoba Mennonites Must Learn English Language Is Edic

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 20.—Manitoba is required to enforce the teaching of English to every Mennonite child of the province during the coming school term. It is officially announced. Thirteen new schools have been completed or will be shortly in the heart of Mennonite colonies where the greatest opposition to public schools was to be found.

Despite talk of migration to Mexico and other foreign countries, no Mennonite have as yet migrated from Manitoba this year.

In a majority of districts the Mennonites have become reconciled to the public schools, it is said, and in certain localities are renting the old Mennonite schools for use as public schools.

Stanford Will Play Mostly on Home Turf

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Sept. 20.—For the first time in several years the Stanford university football team will play a game in San Francisco this season. The game will be played against the San Francisco Olympic Club at Ewing Field.

Stanford and the University of California eleven have appeared in San Francisco only a few times since they stopped playing their annual "big games" in the city, years ago.

All of Stanford's other games, except the one against the University of Washington at Seattle November 2, will be played here. The preliminary games will be on the old Stanford Field while the annual game against California will be played at the new $21,000,000 stadium.
