Traffic Cop Amazes Amir.
Of all the sights he saw on his recent visit to London the antics of Katsina declared the crossing policeman to be the most wonderful. To be able to stop all the traffic of a street with the lifting of one hand amazed him, and he thinks he told an inquirer, that the policeman must have four eyes.

Immune.
Two little colored boys were arguing about religion. Finally one negro decided to go to a meeting that very night. The next morning his friend was met by the employer. "Well," said the employer, smiling, "did you get religion last night?" "No, boss," was the reply. "I is de one what's done had it."

A Personal Application.
We have never sunk to our neck in quicksand and struggled to get out, but we know the feeling. We have tried to get out of debt—Arkansas Gazette.

Explaining the Word "Bogus."

Bogus is thought to be a corruption of the French bagasse, Latin bagasses, and was applied in French America to the refuse of the sugar-cane. Another derivation is from Borgeuse, an Italian who flooded the southwestern states with counterfeit money. Bogus is also the name of a drink made from rum and molasses.
