"The Old Nest"

A picture that presents without false sentiment or melodrama the most beautiful and the most sacred of all themes—a mother's love.

LAUGHTER TURNED TO TEARS—TEARS TURNED BACK TO LAUGHTER

Moments of Supreme Joy, Pangs of Exquisite Tenderness

It is not Melodrama; it is not Tragedy to appall you; it is not Comedy to amuse you; it is not Sentimentality to affect you to tears or longing. It is—LIFE. Without hesitation we pronounce this the equal to any production that has ever played this theatre, and we know there are many who will think it the greatest screen drama ever made.

"The Old Nest"

draws aside the curtain from the soul of the American family. It is so real, so genuine, that many will be moved to tears, through which the sunshine and laughter will break.
