ELGIN BABY IS WINNER AT SHOW

Takes Prize Among 100 Entrants; Others Also are Granted Prizes.

ELGIN, Oct. 3.—(Special)—Genevieve McCully won first prize at the baby show here Friday evening in the City Oregon opera house. She received 1500 votes and the prize, a ten dollar high chair. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McCully.

Lloyd McClure received second prize, a wool blanket, by 1400 votes. Margaret Lane received 1200 votes and a camera. Catherine Cummins also received 1200 votes and an ivory picture frame. Fourteen other babies received prizes donated by merchants of the city. The vote ranged from 500 to 500. About 100 baby pictures were shown upon the screen in almost every conceivable pose. Much interest was shown in the baby show.

William Roullet has purchased the property of E. L. Harris and will move to Portland where they expect to make their future home.

Foreign-Born Whites Decrease in Decade

Statistics issued several days ago by the census bureau at Washington show that the percentage of foreign-born whites in Union county has decreased during the 1910-1920 decade. In 1920 the percentage was 6.0 compared with 7.8 in 1910. In the entire state the percentage decreased from 15.3 to 13.6 during that period.

Constitutionality of Soldier Aid Bill is Slated for a Hearing in Court.

PORTLAND, Oct. 3.—In order to test the constitutionality of the soldier bonus and loan law of the State of Oregon, a test suit is to be instituted in the circuit court of Multnomah county and carried to the supreme court of the state. It was decided during a meeting of the state bonus-commission held in Salem yesterday. The test case will be instituted by T. H. Boyd, a taxpayer, who is commander of Portland Post of the

Deaths Result in Calling Off Fair

WOLF CREEK, Oct. 3.—(Special)—Wolf Creek Grange Fair has been called off on account of the death of Hervis Wick and Mrs. Anna Wick and the death of Virginia Bell Graham, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Graham; also the serious illness of Mrs. Dorothy Standley, who was hurt in an accident last week. Mrs. Viola Lanern is reported to be very ill at her home. Mrs. Will Lund, who was operated on at Baker, is reported to be improving rapidly. Mrs. Pearl Wick was operated on at St. Elizabeth hospital this week. Mrs. D. Beannon, Mrs. Lloyd Bickford, Mrs. Laura Dairs and Mrs. Nancy Lindsey motored up from La Grande to visit Mrs. D. Standley, who has been very ill.

TEST CASE IS TO BE HEARD

Perhaps the national fondness for sweets is due to the fact that sugar is a great force maker and American energy demands a constant replenishment of bodily forces. Or, mayhap, it may be because of the American trait of generosity. The candy gift is the American expression of appreciation, love and good will.

This year a special day has been set aside for the giving of candy—National Candy Day, October 8th. All over the United States, in every city, town and hamlet, this big event will be celebrated. Everywhere people will remember friends, sweetheart and
