Armenia's Heritage of Song.
Armenia has a distinctly national collection of songs, some of which have come down from prehistoric times. Through melodies transmitted from parents to children great national events and the heroes and songs of centuries are familiar to each generation. Preserving in song a vast amount of historical facts that otherwise would have been lost.

Helpful "Clips."
Paper clips are useful for keeping together and in order clippings, loose leaves of magazines, books and music, booklets, letters, envelopes, cards of books and eyes, samples, patches and bits of cloth, ribbon, tape and elastic. When cutting out or fastening an article, use clips along the edges to place of the usual pins for holding patterns in place.

THE OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE—by Gendo.

when he made so splendid an effort to recover the valley peacefully. Of Chief Joseph saying he held his dying fathers hand in his and promised him he would always hold the Wallawa valley for the Indians. Old settlers well remember Chief Joseph's visit to Wallawa county in the thirties. He was very tall, with the physique and with a most commanding air. His eyes were wonderful, unusually calm, but at times flashing fire and showing the spirit of the famous war chief.
