LADD CANYON, Oct. 7.—(Special.)—The farmers appreciate the fine weather, which gives them a chance to get their grain taken care of and the fall crops in.

It is Worth Remembering. We notice at Silverthorn's Drug Store and the Palace Confectionery store they have special Candy Tray Boxes filled with any candy you may wish to buy and each box holding a full pound of candy—we notice their price per box is only $1.00. They say this same kind of box and such candy is sold over the United States generally for $1.25, except $1.00 at their stores.

Sea May, Yet Yield Treasure. Gold shipments which have gone down are occupying the attention of scores of marine experts today. Numerous devices have been patented and many lives have been lost in attempts to salvage sunken treasure. Among hundreds of others a rich reward awaits the man who can salvage the treasure lost with the Lusitania.

Blackstrap. Blackstrap is a low-grade sugar cane molasses. At one time it was generally discarded in sugar refining, but is now used not only as an appetizer and tonic for stock feeding, but is included as a regular ingredient of mixed rations, being a food of the carbohydrate class.

LOSTINE CLUB FETES TEACHERS

Neighborhood Club of Wallowa County Town Entertains in Honor of New Teachers.

LOSTINE, Oct. 7.—(Special.)—Mrs. Harry Williamson spent several days at Wallowa last week, returning home Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williamson attended the Fair on Monday. Charlie Allen of Wallowa was a Lostine visitor last Thursday. Ward Emigh, creamery man of La Grande, was in Lostine on business last Thursday. Rev. W. H. Amos, assistant secretary of Home Missions for the Presbyterian church of Oregon, was a Lostine visitor over Tuesday night meeting with the local board on church matters Tuesday evening. He held a week's meeting here a year ago last Easter, so he was not a stranger to us, and we were glad to welcome him back. He went to Enterprise from here before going out on Wednesday's train for Portland. Mrs. Arch Miller, Mrs. R. V. Goodman and Mrs. Chas. Bidwell were visiting Mrs. Asa Craig of Enterprise last Sunday afternoon. The ladies of the Neighborhood club are planning an entertainment for next week, Friday, October 14. It is in the nature of a trip around the world, or a visit to four famous cities. Mr. and Mrs. John McCarty of Wallowa motored in for a visit with their old friends, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Steel and then on to Enterprise and returned home by way of Lewiston. Chas. Bidwell and John McKenzie have been repairing the sidewalk around the church property and leveling the grounds, getting it in more acceptable shape for the seeding to grass and other improvements. Mrs. Clarence Allen and daughter, Nell, returned home the last of the week from a few days' visit with friends at Union and Hot Lake. Howard Childers returned to Lostine the first of last week after an absence of several months. W. P. Hunter and S. B. Williamson came in last Wednesday from a trip to Portland with live stock. Mrs. Chris Johnson returned home last Wednesday from a few days' visit in La Grande. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wickson, on October 5, 1921. William and Wesley Steel are staying in Enterprise and going to school this winter. E. G. Seaman was an Enterprise visitor last Friday. Mrs. Effie Cook entertained at dinner last Sunday in honor of her niece Mrs. Emmet Clemens and husband. Those present were "Grandma" Hammock and son, Floyd Hammock, and Miss Marjorie Peebler returned from her trip to the state fair and reports a good time. She stopped over in Portland and took in the sights on her way home. Mrs. D. W. Miller and daughters spent Sunday with relatives near Telocaset. Guy Fuller and Wm. McCauley were Sunday callers at the Andy Elliott ranch near Union. Peebler Brothers sold their two year's clip of wool last week. Mrs. Frankie Fulton is here from Minneapolis on a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Peebler. Mr. and Mrs. Wade Daugherty, Mr. James Weeks and Clarence Weeks and Grandma Weeks, of North Powder, were visitors at D. W. Miller's Wednesday evening. Roy L. Couch was given quite a bit of trouble last week by his farm hand, Don McWilliams, running away with his saddle horse. After a week's search, the horse and saddle were located in Mr. Chadwick's barn at Union Junction. The boy left the horse there, telling them he would return for it in two or three days. When he did not show up they made inquiry and in this way the horse was located. Mr. Couch accompanied Lee Warnick in Union and brought the horse back. Miss Faye Milligan spent Sunday night at the Miller home. Miss Zela Laughlin came out home Monday night, returning to her work in town Tuesday. Miss Edvalson spent Sunday in Union with home folks. Mr. Wm. Titus and family of Telocaset were guests at the home of A. E. Peebler Sunday. A. E. Peebler and D. W. Miller made a business trip to Baker Monday.

Young Smoother was in a reflective mood in one corner of the clubroom. "When" he muttered to himself "I compare the age of two creditors I have with the millions and millions of persons to whom I owe nothing, I wonder why in the world those creditors make such a confounded noise about it?" Crazy With the Heat. A hypothesis suggested by W. M. C. is that the expression "It's hot here" is used by the wicked king who thunders these three gentlemen into the fiery furnace.
