MANY ATTENDED GRANGE FAIR

Residents in Grange Hall District Had Busy Week With Their Big Fair.

GRANGE HALL, Oct. 11.—C. F. Smith of Baker spent a few days visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Redhead. Mr. Smith came down to see the Grange fair.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Muldrew of McMechan, W. Va., left Monday night for their home after spending a month visiting at the home of Mrs. Muldrew's sister, Mrs. Geo. Keltz.

Mrs. Theresa Goff of Hildard spent the weekend at C. D. Huffman's.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walsinger and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Moss, all of Allen were Friday visitors at the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Spencer took Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Payton of La Grande.

W. W. Deal and son, Edson, of Nampa, Ida., came over to get some pointers on putting on a Grange fair as Mr. Deal is State Master of the Grange for Idaho. He stated that he enjoyed the renewal of old acquaintances in the Grange-Ronde valley as he held the position of Methodist minister in Union some 15 years ago. Mr. Deal paid a beautiful tribute to the wonderful valley and its inhabitants.

Mrs. Pearl Shaw and daughter of Union were fair visitors Saturday.

Among those who attended the fair from Toloconet were: Mrs. B. Schaefer, Mrs. H. Starr, D. H. Snider, Irwin Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Anson and Mrs. Geo. Ackley.

Mrs. Mary Jones of Milton, Ore., who had charge of the woman's work at the fair, was formerly Miss Mary Weathers of this district. Mrs. Jones not only enjoyed her work, at her old "stamping grounds," but enjoyed shaking hands with her former acquaintances and talking over old times.

Mrs. Sara Gekeler and family of Elgin spent Sunday visiting at the home of L. D. Smutz and Art McCall. Mrs. Gekeler remained to visit all Thursday morning when she departed for her home.

Homer Earnes drove down from North Powder to attend the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Powers, Miss Jones and Dunham Wright, all of Medical Springs, attended the fair on Saturday afternoon.

D. D. Randall, Sunday school missionary, was a visitor at Sunday school Sunday. Mr. Randall held services in the school house Sunday evening and preached to an appreciative audience. Mr. and Mrs. Broden of La Grande accompanied him in order to help with the singing.

Mrs. Mary Taylor left Sunday night for Nevada, Missouri, where she will spend the winter visiting friends and relatives.

Ray Conklin, principal of the Union schools was a visitor at the fair Saturday.

Among those who were over from Cove Saturday to take in the fair were: Burjorie Miller, J. B. Tallent, Geo. Baker and family, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Lantz, Mrs. John Miller, Geo. Chadwick, Georgia Gasser, W. H. Miller, Mrs. Lynn Chadwick and M. L. Carter and family.

The first of last week O. H. Taylor moved to the Dobbin farm which is located three miles this side of Union.

Mrs. W. Standley and Mrs. H. M. Gilgerson, came down from North Powder to view the fair and listen to the excellent program.

After spending some time visiting relatives in the valley, Mrs. Joe McAlister of Turlock, Calif., left for Enterprise last week to visit her son, Charles, and also to take in the fair. Mrs. McAlister will visit awhile in Wallawa county, and then come back and make another visit here before he leaves for Portland where she will spend a share of the winter with her daughter.

The teacher in agriculture in the Elgin high school brought the pupils in his class to visit the fair Saturday. Mrs. Southard accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. H. McGibbly and John Wells were among those who represented Tubler at the fair Saturday.

Larry Avery was busy Saturday afternoon exhibiting the exhibits to be offered from this Grange at the Northwest Land Show which is to be the second week in November in Portland. The next week the exhibit will be entered at National Grange headquarters where the farmers have reserved a space of 8 by 30 feet. Mrs. A. E. Bug and Mrs. J. G. Anson have charge of the choosing and packing of canned fruits and other domestic products for shipment while J. K. Lantz, Frank Johnson and C. D. Huffman will assist Mr. Avery in arranging the agricultural products to be sent. Mr. Avery has charge of the exhibits while at the land show and W. F. Gekeler while at the National Grange headquarters.

La Grande had a large number of visitors at the fair Friday afternoon and evening but the largest number came on Saturday afternoon.

The Ernest DeLong family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Smutz and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sandstrom and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hughes Sunday at the home of Wm. Hughes.

The well-springs of real charity never bubble from a subsoil of false piety. We believe that all people were put on earth for some useful purpose, and we also believe that nobody ever will find out what the purpose of some of them is.

There is only one source of pleasure that never grows stale and it is the help you give to others.

Why Attend the Pacific International?

O. M. PLUMMER

"Why attend the Pacific International?" This question was asked O. M. Plummer, General Manager of the Pacific International Livestock Exposition, which will be held in Portland, November, 1-12.

"The retail merchant finds it helps him to go to merchants' conventions," said Mr. Plummer in reply. "A lawyer attends meetings of the bar association, a doctor goes to clinics and medical association gatherings."

"The farmer, the dairymen and livestock man needs all the Pacific International has for him. These are the Stiff? Sore?

A lame back, a sore muscle or a stiff joint when it is considered too lightly by the sufferer. It should be remembered that backache, rheumatic pain, stiffness, soreness, yellow skin and puffiness under the eyes are symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble—and these certainly should not be neglected.

help the kidneys eliminate from the system the poisonous waste and acids that cause these aches and pains. They act promptly and effectively to restore weak, overworked or diseased kidneys and bladder to healthy, normal condition.

J. E. Simmons, 409 N. 5th St., Portland, Ore., writes: "I was troubled with backache and urinary trouble. I tried Foley Kidney Pills and felt as though I had been renewed. I am now troubled in that way, so they are excellent."
