M. E. Church South—North F street. Sunday school at 10 a. m., preaching at 11 a. m., also preaching at 7:30 p. m. Everyone is welcome to attend our services.—A. J. Starmer, pastor in charge.

First Baptist Church.—Sunday school at 10 a. m., G. B. Hogan, superintendent. We want every adult of the congregation in Sunday school. Let every department be full. A. O. Austin of Portland gave us two great services. Monday night four were baptized and four more made profession after church. Wednesday night two young men were baptized. This gives the church six young people for the work of the Kingdom. There will be a union service of the Baptist and Presbyterian churches Sunday, the Baptist worshiping at the Presbyterian church at the morning hour, and the Presbyterians at the Baptist church at evening hour. Rev. James A. Smith, minister at the Presbyterian church is away for the day and it has been arranged for the Baptist minister to preach at both services. The subject for the morning will be, "Seven Things the Churches must do." Evening subject, "Can United Christianity Win?"—A. R. Sifton, Pastor.

First Methodist Episcopal Church.—Sabbath school at 9:45 with classes for all. A splendid corps of officers and teachers join the pastor in an urgent invitation to all members of the school to be present at each session. Mr. H. Heaver is superintendent. Morning worship at 10:00 o'clock. Sermon theme, "True Liberty." Special music by the chorus. Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. The meeting are of great interest to all young people here. If you are not engaged elsewhere, Popular evening service at 7:30, with a brief address on "The Worth of a Man." A helpful service of song will be an attractive feature of the evening worship. You will be made to feel at home. Come!—G. H. Quigley, Minister.

St. Peter's Episcopal Church.—Corner Fourth and O streets. October 10 is the 21st Sunday after Trinity. There will be the usual schedule of services: Holy Communion at 8:00 a. m.; church school, 9:45; morning prayer, 11:00 and evening prayer, 7:30 p. m. At morning service the Bishop of East Oregon, the Rt. Rev. R. L. Peacock, D. D., will preach. On his way of next week, October 20, Rev. B. T. Kemmerer, field secretary of the Nation Wide Campaign, is to hold a conference in Pendleton on Christian Stewardship.

Zion's English Lutheran Church.—M avenue, between Third and Fourth streets. Service at 11:00 a. m. The sermon theme is "The Relation of Little Children to the Kingdom of God." There will be special announcements at this service regarding the future work of the church. The present pastor will be leaving Sunday evening to resume his studies as student of the Pacific Theological Seminary in Seattle. Every one urged to be present at this meeting.—C. A. Pellett, pastor.

First Church of Christ Scientist.—Corner First and Washington. Sunday morning services at 11:00. Subject, "Doctrine of Atonement." Sunday school at 9:45. Wednesday evening meeting at 8:00. The reading room is open to the public every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday, from 2 to 4 p. m. All are welcome to attend our services.

Christian Church.—The meetings at the church continue with increasing interest. Service will be held each night of the week except Saturday. We invite you to come. Bible school meets at nine forty-five. Preaching at eleven and seven thirty. C. E. at six thirty. At the evening preaching hour the minister will discuss the question of Christian Union. The morning sermon will be on "Divine Assurance."—O. W. Jones, Minister.

The father and mother of a spoiled child generally act like they are thankful that the child has spared the rod from their own shoulders.

Only a mother thinks a hock could be sick and still have a big appetite.

The Rector and treasurer, Mr. John Chapman, hope to attend, but all members of the parish are invited. Keep the date in mind. All cordially invited to the Sunday services and to share in our church work.—Jos. W. Gunn, Rector.

St. Peter's Episcopal Church.—Corner Fourth and O streets. October 10 is the 21st Sunday after Trinity. There will be the usual schedule of services: Holy Communion at 8:00 a. m.; church school, 9:45; morning prayer, 11:00 and evening prayer, 7:30 p. m. Children's Ailments

DISORDERS of the stomach and constipation are the most common diseases of children. To correct them you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Tablets. One tablet at bed time will do the work and will make your child bright and cheerful the following morning. Do not punish your children by giving them castor oil. Chamberlain's Tablets are better and more pleasant to take.
