The Kaffe Klatch was delightfully entertained last evening at the Country club by Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hampton and Mr. and Mrs. G. Larison. The season's interesting future was portrayed in the event of last evening, for it acted as a forecast telling what is in store for the members of that popular club during the winter months.

One of the social events for the autumn season in La Grande was the party given Wednesday by Mrs. W. J. Church, Mrs. P. S. Ivanhoe, Mrs. W. B. Sargent and Mrs. C. Edenholm. Honan hall, a cozy and home-like place for such a large party, was selected by the ladies and they brightened its interior with floor lamps, rugs and other furniture turning the hall into spacious parlors. Guests for twenty-three tables arrived at the appointed hour in the afternoon and enjoyed bridge, along with the other social features which always mark an occasion given by the popular hostesses. At a proper hour exquisite refreshments were served in the basement dining room. Decorations throughout the building were astor and foliage. The prize winners of Bridge follow: Mrs. Vincent Palmer, first; Mrs. J. E. Foley, second; Mrs. Ray Murphy, third; Mrs. Elmer Stoddard, fourth; Mrs. Norman Press, fifth; a guest's prize was awarded Mrs. Eleanor Cameron, of Portland, mother of Mrs. Church, who is visiting her daughter.

The Lucky Thirteen card club debated whether the annual picnic of the club should be held this year, or whether some other form of entertainment should be held. After some little deliberation it was decided to drive to Union and hold the annual meeting in the new hotel in that city. Thursday afternoon was the date chosen for this event and several cars of La Grande ladies who are members of the club spent the afternoon playing bridge in the parlors of the new hotel. A fine five course luncheon was served at one o'clock and the day was spent in a most pleasant way. Mrs. W. E. Sawyer received the highest score for the afternoon and was awarded the prize.

The M. I. A. of the L. D. S. church held its opening of the season party last evening in the amusement hall on Fourth street and the attendance was excellent. All of the young people declared themselves ready for a winter season of lots of fun. An appropriate program had been prepared for this event.

Mrs. A. R. Herman entertained a few ladies yesterday afternoon at her home at 206 Pennsylvania avenue in honor of Mrs. John Adskin of The Dalles who is a guest of Mrs. Herman. The afternoon was spent with sewing. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. E. M. Ford, of Baker, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jack Hill of East Adams avenue.

Thursday, October 13, is social day at the Neighborhood club and as it is an afternoon for welcoming the new members a good attendance is expected. Mrs. H. A. Zarbrick is chairman of the social committee and she with her very able committee has arranged an interesting program and every effort is being made to have the tea an enjoyable affair. The program consists of two selections, clarinet and trombone duets by Mr. Loney and Mr. Robinson.

A one-act play, "Mrs. Black's Pink Tea," will be given by the ladies of the committee that is in charge of the day. The characters for the play are: Saratoga, her colored maid, Mrs. Wm. Pear; Pansy, (Mrs. Black's daughter), Mrs. W. H. Lismann; Mrs. White (a friend), Mrs. P. Roban; Mrs. Lincoln (the wash lady), Mrs. Delila Green; guest at the pink tea, Mrs. E. C. Brooke, Mrs. Lyle Kiddle, Mrs. Seranton, Mrs. Fred Kiddle and Mrs. W. D. Sawyer.

Mrs. Norman Press will direct the play. The closing number on the program will be a vocal selection by Mrs. A. L. Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Randon, Mr. and Mrs. H. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. H. Fihn and Mr. and Mrs. D. Braanon were pleasantly entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson on Fourth street. Five hundred was played during the evening. Mrs. Fihn winning the high honors for ladies and Mrs. Randon second. Mr. Anderson won first men's and Mr. Murphy second. Following cards dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. Roy Neal and son of Eagle Valley spent the day visiting relatives and friends in this city Wednesday.

Cards have been received in this city announcing the marriage of Miss Sarah Salk to Alfred Harding, Jr., of Dayton, Ohio, in Washington, D. C. Letters received by intimate friends and relatives also tell of the happy event. Among the guests at the wedding, which was one of the social functions of the capital city, was Miss Elizabeth Hughes, daughter of Secretary of State and Mrs. Charles Evans Hughes. The Washington Star has the following to say of the event:

A wedding of unusual interest in Washington, where the bridegroom was born and reared, is that which took place Wednesday afternoon in Bethlehem Chapel of the Washington Cathedral when the Rt. Rev. Alfred Harding, Bishop of Washington, performed the marriage ceremony of his son, Mr. Alfred Harding, Jr., to Miss Lucy Sarah Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Davis Smith of La Grande, Oregon.

The engagement was announced September 14, and as the bridegroom who is in business in Cuba, could obtain but ten days' leave, the bride and her family came to Washington, that the ceremony might take place here.

Arrangements for the ceremony were happily carried out, and only the members of the two families and the cathedral family were present for the ceremony. Mr. Harding and his bride left for Cuba immediately following the ceremony.

The M. I. A. opens its season at the amusement hall of the L. D. S. church tomorrow evening, following a vacation during the summer months. At the meeting, which is scheduled to begin at 7:30 the topic for discussion by the senior class, which is composed largely of the older married members will be "Sources of Joy and Factors of Happiness," the thesis of the subject will be that man is that he may have joy.

(The other sections will also hold discussions on other topics.)

The Young Women's Educational Auxiliary has launched its year's work. Mrs. Sherwood Williams has been elected president to succeed Mrs. Richard P. Landis. Miss Daisy Newhouse is vice president and Miss Mabel Oesterling is secretary-treasurer. The retiring officers were Mrs. Landis, president; Mrs. Clyde Peterson, vicepresdent, and Mrs. H. E. Dixon, secretary. This club had a very instructive and delightful year's work to its record and is carefully planning a course of study for the coming winter that will be even more profitable. At the recent annual election, held at the home of Mrs. Landis, the hostess served refreshments.

The women of the Mooseheart Legion will hold a bazaar in Eagles' hall on Halloween. At noon chili and crackers will be served together with pumpkin pie, cake and coffee. In the afternoon they will have aprons on sale, as well as pillow cases, towels, handkerchiefs, fancy work and candy. Alpha Club at her Island City home. For the children a fish pond will be yesterday afternoon. Mrs. W. Shown provided. In the evening a dance will be on the program.

The La Grande lodge L. O. O. M. home has two children at Mooseheart and afternoon light refreshments were the proceeds of this entertainment are served by the hostesses.

Mrs. Claude Lynch entertained the Friday afternoon five hundred club yesterday. Mrs. John O'Connell won first prize and Mrs. Clyde Zimmerman won second. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Mrs. Clyde Kiddle entertained the
