THE OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE—by Condo.

Sunday in La Grande as guests of relatives.

The G. M. & S. company's department store has had an entire new plate glass front just installed this week. The glass has been in storage here for nearly a year but until this week has a workman been found who would undertake the installation. That was found, however, in Sam Haworth, who is erecting a stone building here and now the G. M. & S. has a splendid set of windows.

Earl Chandler is finishing filling his silo. here are very few silos about here that will be entirely filled this fall, due, perhaps, to the effect of the early freeze.

Elgin now has a bakery, conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Holstein. A full line of baker goods is carried, with the exception of bread. This cannot be furnished until a big brick or stone oven can be constructed.

Considerable interest is being shown in the millinery school that is to be held here on Thursday the 27th. The one day course will be under the direction of an instructor from O. A. C.

The County Farmers' Union quarterly meeting will be held in Elgin Saturday. This should have come on last Saturday but was postponed on account of the fair at the Blue Mountain Grange near La Grande.

The store building that is being erected for L. J. Bibler is nearing completion. The building is constructed of a local building stone and S. Haworth of La Grande is the contractor.

Some of the boys of the Scott district held an informal round-up Sunday afternoon. Two principal difficulties presented themselves—there were no "bad" horses to ride and no one willing to ride them if found. However both difficulties were overcome, some good horsemanship displayed and the round-up was over.

F. Z. Terpany is packing his apple crop this week.

Oscar Ferguson is moving to La Grande. He will be city salesman for Hug's Garage.

Mrs. E. E. Southard has gone to Portland to visit for a few weeks with her son, Frederick.

Joe Lamb and Forest Ryder killed a big black bear yesterday on Smith Mountain.

COVE, Oct. 17.—(Special)—The Cove Commercial club gave a banquet to the Commercial club of Union Friday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall. Plates were laid for thirty-six. The guests present were: J. Hutchinson, G. A. Seibird, Frank Connor, Frank Wilson, S. E. Miller, Alex Slater, Roy Conklin, O. E. Zeek, M. S. Levy and Roadmaster Birney. Cove men present were: J. E. The Cove-Union road was the subject of discussion. Mayor J. E. Trippe presided, making the opening speech and responses were heard from nearly all the Union men present. Toward the close of the evening an animated discussion was entered into by Mayor Trippe and Mr. Birney over the reason for the road being in its present imperished state. The evening was concluded with a spirit of unity and a hearty good-fellowship over this "get-together" meeting. The banquet was served by a

The latest water sport is "human yachting." The rigging consists of a bamboo cane as mast and a linen mainsail and topsail. That is fixed to a small block of wood riveted to a web belt about the body. Here is Edna Weisman, of Clifton, England, ready for a cruise.

CLUB IN ELGIN HOLDS MEETING

Winter Season's Activities Have Been Started; Much Social Activity.

ELGIN, Oct. 17.—(Special)—Every one is taking advantage of this splendid weather to finish up outdoors work. There is still some plowing being done, as well as drilling grain and harvesting potatoes and apples.

The first meeting of the Woman's Improvement Club was held at the home of Mrs. D. Sommer. Although the attendance was rather small, it was not in the least discouraging for there is always a bit of lethargy to be overcome after vacation. Three new members were voted into the club.

Mrs. George Gale, W. A. Winters and Mrs. Guy Patten. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Fred Z. Terpany.

The Eugene Hug family are moving this week to La Grande, where Mr. Hug has recently purchased the Ford Garage. They will occupy the Hilton home for the winter.

Mr. Scott Harris is just completing one of the finest homes in Elgin. It is a beautiful structure and has the very newest equipment throughout.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hug drove to La Grande Monday morning. They were accompanied by their daughter, Thelma, who attended the teachers' institute there the fore part of the week.

Miss Isabell Miller, teacher in the Highland district, spent the week-end in La Grande with her mother and also attended the institute.

H. H. Weatherspoon has finished harvesting and storing his apple crop of 30,000 boxes.

Mrs. U. F. Weiss and son, Ernest, returned Wednesday evening from few days' visit with Mrs. Weiss' father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Scott, of "Missouri Flat."

Mrs. Julius Hug left Saturday evening for Montana on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Cecil Howard. Mrs. Hug expects to be away for several weeks.

Imbler's apple harvest drew its share of helpers from Elgin. Among the pickers from here were William Miller, Arnold Hug and Leonard Hug. J. F. T. Galloway's new house is rapidly taking shape. This is one of especial interest to the community, being one of the very few ready-cut houses ever erected here. It is a two-story Dutch Colonial type, entirely modern in furnishings.

Miss Gertrude Paxton, who is teaching in the Gordon Creek school, went to La Grande Friday evening, spending the week-end visiting with friends and attending the institute.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hug and daughter, Aldonald Lorraine, spent

The Man of Thirty

What a tragedy to see a young man—brilliant, enthusiastic—with vision and tremendous ability, a credit to his community, hovering on the brink of nervous exhaustion, because his body has not kept pace with his mental advancement.

It's the grind! grind! grind! that wears and tears. If you hold a steel knife to a grindstone all day, you will soon have no knife. Even steel can't resist the wear and tear of a long grind—and the daily grind in your office wears you down just like the stone wears a steel. If you want to stand the grind you must do something besides grind.

Young man, you better take the dull grind out of your life now, before it's too late. Put some recreation into your life while life is yet young—it will match you up recreation sends you back to your work stronger, happier and healthier. Think about it.

This is the second of a series of advertisements to be published in the immediate future and which will carry a vital message to every man, woman and child in Union county.
