Mrs. Bert Oakman, who has sojourned in Eastern Oregon soil to induce her to operate a ranch in the Palmer Junction country, is in La Grande for a short stay. She is a Sommer hotel guest.

Back from Metropolis.
A. J. Robinson, of Portland, has returned to La Grande after several days visit with his family in the metropolis. He says the old town is better than ever and that John Gratke and Julius Meier are talking 1925 fair all hours of the day and night.

Will Drive to San Diego.
Oscar Lund and son left this morning in their car for San Diego to spend the winter. Mr. Lund treated the trip to San Diego as lightly as though he were starting for Cove. "There is nothing to it," he said, "just keep gas in the tank and air in the tires and soon you will be there."

Sells Cattle to Baker Man.
G. M. Richey and Ben Haggey returned from Baker last evening where they had been closing a deal with W. A. Peyton, a rancher of Baker county. For the purchase of a number of blooded cattle which Mr. Richey has raised on his Cove ranch. "Baker was getting on her good clothes yesterday afternoon to celebrate the appointment of one of their citizens, John L. Rank, to the supreme bench," said Mr. Richey today.

Dr. Phis Has New Apperson.
About the final work in automobile construction is displayed in the new Apperson sedan which Dr. W. T. Phis of Hot Lake, recently purchased, Harry Wagner, an old La Grande boy, who now lives in Portland, is the agent who sold the car to the doctor, and Harry Wagner, who has many more business customers which were shown today do not possess. His appearance quite indicates that Harry is telling the truth.

Andy Anderson in Town.
He still believes with all his heart that prices will not fall on print paper to any great extent and set out this reason in full to the newspaper people. But Andy Anderson, who travels for the Pacific Paper company and is in La Grande, keeps his fingers crossed when he urges that prices will stay up. He is a practical chap and he realizes that everything is going to follow him and egg prices throughout the country, all that is needed is a little time.

He's the Same Old George.
George Coin, who has been on this territory so long and seen so many things come and go, is at the Foley today. When asked about the railroad strike, George said: "Now, see here, I have been traveling for years and I have seen strikes and everything and believe they don't worry me at all. If it is a real strike, however, it is a situation as a big storm on the Pacific coast, as something in which the business men are going to come down on the strike, it will come, and though I am through it, such as the local business of the city, I am sure that the business men will be able to handle it."
