DOROTHY GISH AS A RUNAWAY BRIDE

Dorothy Gish's latest picture "Flying Pat," is the merry story of a young husband who conducted a nationwide search for his runaway wife and found her in his own kitchen. It will be the chief attraction at the Sherry Theatre today and tomorrow. In the role of the bride, Miss Gish is urged by her screen husband to choose a "career" for herself and decides to become a flyer. But this leads to complications, when her teacher turns out to be of a flirtatious disposition. Following an accident in the air, there is a smash-up at home, and the bride leaves in haste and tears. However, the world gives her the cold shoulder and she comes back to her own kitchen, disguised as a cook. Some laughable complications lead to the newlyweds' reconciliation.

NORMA TALMADGE SCORES IN SPANISH ROLE

That Norma Talmadge is the finest emotional actress on the American screen today is clearly demonstrated by her latest starring vehicle, "The Passion Flower," by Jacinto Benavente, Spain's greatest living dramatist, which opens an engagement at the Arcade theatre tonight. As the entrancing and temperamental "Acacia" of this absorbing and colorful story of Castilian peasant life, the beautiful Norma is most alluring and rises to great dramatic heights. It is a true histrionic achievement for this scintillating star.

On the stage Nance O'Neil took the part of "Raimunda," the mother, while in the screen version Miss Talmadge, as "Acacia," has created a most fascinating role as the daughter. The star is ably supported by two leading men, with Courtenay Foote playing the part of Esteban, the stepfather, and Harrison Ford as Norbert, the poet. Herbert Brenton directed "The Passion Flower," which is an Associated First National release. "The Passion Flower" will be the attraction at the Arcade Theatre until Saturday night.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oct. 20.—(Special.)—Will college degrees ever become as common as motor car licenses?

One serious worker in the field of education thinks so. He is Nolin V. Dymont, dean of the college of literature, science and the arts at the University of Oregon. "The day is not far away," he predicts, "when a college education will be as indispensable in the family economy as an automobile is now."

"Why not?" he asks, "since, exclusive of time, they cost nearly the same." "I think," he continues, "we should begin now looking ahead to the day when three-quarters of all the high school seniors in Oregon will go on to college."

Solomon's Temple, for the building of which practically the whole manhood of Israel was commandeered, would have cost $5,000,000,000 to construct at present prices.
