No Weather Really "Bad." It was a wise man who contended that there is no such thing as bad weather—there are only different kinds of good weather. The hot days and the stormy days, the rains, the winds, the snows all have their purpose, and it is always a good purpose—Exchange.

Chinese Dividing Profits. In China it is a custom widely observed for a shopkeeper to divide about 10 per cent of the profits among the employees at the New Year.

Statenmen Guard Secrets. Many of the rulers and statesmen of Europe use black blotting paper in order to guard against the possibility of prying eyes deciphering their correspondence by examining the reflection of the imprint of their writing in a mirror.

For Bookcase. Put a few drops of oil of lavender in the bookcase if you intend closing the house for some time, and the books will not be musty when you return.
