Tomorrow evening the members of the Neighborhood Club and their husbands will be entertained in the club rooms with an entertainment arranged under the supervision of Mrs. Donald Pague, chairman of the French literature section of the club.

Mrs. Pague has taken scenes from "The Three Musketeers," and will present them with an elaborately costumed cast of the club's best histrionic talent. Much work was put on the beautiful costumes by the ladies and it is expected that this will be one of the best affairs of the kind ever put on by the club.

The program begins at eight o'clock.

Monday evening the Christian Endeavor members of the Presbyterian church celebrated Halloween at the home of Mrs. Kirby on O avenue. Misses Marjorie and Dorothy acting as hostesses to thirty-four of their young friends. The goblins appeared and the spook-show, the surrounding country with the bewitched maidens. Fortunes were told and elegant refreshments were served during the evening.

The Westminster Guild gave a party at the home of Dr. Margaret Hagle Monday evening. The affair was in the nature of a Halloween party and the decorations and entertainment were suitable to the event. A large number of the members of the guild attended and enjoyed a thoroughly good time.

At the Tuesday afternoon meeting of the Neighborhood Club, which was fairly well attended, a very interesting and instructive program was rendered. Miss Edna Graham delighted the present with an exceptional piano solo and at its conclusion cheerfully responded to an encore. Mrs. E. P. Mossman gave a very capable thirty-minute discussion on Parliamentary Law, which was greatly appreciated. Mrs. Wardick next introduced Dr. Exner, director of the Department of the American Social Hygiene Association, who gave his audience one of the most learned talks ever delivered to the Neighborhood Club.

A jolly Halloween party was given last Saturday evening by the McClure girls at their home 602 C avenue. There were thirty-one present, some coming masked and some not, and lots of fun was had guessing who the masked ones were. When all the masked ones were found out the balance of the evening was spent in playing games.

Refreshments were served at nine-thirty consisting of pumpkin pie, doughnuts and home-made candy. Those present were Judith, Anna and Mary Brown, Bernice, Rita and Olga Conner, Edna, Margaret, June, Edward Mutholland, Leona Miles, Elaine Montgomery, Lillian Turnbow, Mildred and Lillian Webster, Laura Marie and Eliza McCormick, Etta and Marie Lense, Wilma Blankenship, Elizabeth Hopkins, Virginia Warner, Louise Clare, Freda Hildebrandt, Amy and Edna Brown, Gertrude, Nellie Lulu and Leona McClure. All were home saying they had spent a jolly evening.

On Friday, October 28, the Elgin members of Chapter 1, P. E. O., entertained the La Grande P. E. O. ladies at luncheon and Chapter meeting. The Elgin P. E. O. members were: Mrs. L. Denham, Mrs. W. E. Brownell, Mrs. Ernest Vebra, Mrs. Henry Hug, Mrs. R. L. Shoemaker and Mrs. S. A. Christ.

From the train the guests were taken to the pretty home of Mrs. Ernest Vebra and the morning was spent in Chapter meeting. At the noon hour a delicious four-course luncheon was served in the spacious home of Mrs. Denham. The flowers, music and good cheer, two delightful hours were spent. Mrs. Brownell presided at the luncheon table and called upon a number to respond as follows: "Supreme Convention," Mrs. H. S. Brownell; "The Spirit of P. E. O.," Mrs. Emma Kiddle; "The Backward Glance," Mrs. J. K. Wright; "The Outlook," by Mrs. C. H. Bidwell.

Mrs. S. A. Chappel played several beautiful selections on the piano. The P. E. O. colors, yellow and white, were beautifully carried out, both in merry and decorations.

After a social hour a program was carried out by a number of the La members. Mrs. H. S. Brownell, who is now president of the Oregon State Chapter of P. E. O. and who recently returned from Kansas City, where she was a delegate to the Supreme Convention, gave a splendid report of the convention.

Papers were given as follows: "Interior Decoration," by Mrs. A. B.

Hunter; "Oriental and Domestic Rugs," Mrs. J. K. Wright; "Tapestries," Mrs. Vincent Palmer. The guests of the Elgin ladies were Mrs. H. S. Brownell, Mrs. Vincent Palmer, Mrs. J. K. Wright, Mrs. Emma Kiddle, Mrs. C. H. Bidwell, Mrs. A. R. Hunter, Mrs. Robert Eakin, Mrs. J. B. Moe, Mrs. J. D. McKennon, Mr. J. W. Knowles, Mrs. Lee Warnick and Mrs. Alvin Snapp.

This noon at the Union Hotel, the members of the Union County ministerial association and their wives entertained in honor of Rev. and Mrs. James A. Smith. Thirty guests were seated at dinner and an enjoyable social hour was spent following the dinner. The party was in the nature of a farewell to Rev. and Mrs. Smith, who will leave shortly for Portland, where Rev. Smith has been appointed pastor of one of the Presbyterian churches there.

Chapter 1, P. E. O., will meet Friday at the home of Mrs. Lucy Stanfield.

The afternoon section of the Kaffee Klatch will meet this Friday afternoon at Mrs. John Theobald's home. Mr. Theobald will be assisted by Mrs. H. K. O'Brien in entertaining the members.

The Parent-Teachers' association of the Central school will meet at the school house at three o'clock Friday afternoon.

This afternoon the mothers' league of the Parent-Teachers' association of the Greenwood school is meeting at the home of Mrs. R. E. Trill.

A number of golfers of the La Grande Country Club. The day will be spent on the club links in a number of match games.

Little Jack Brant celebrated his fourth birthday yesterday. A few friends called at his home and wished him many happy returns of the day and little Jack and his best gal, Jennie, entertained them royally. A big birthday cake was the feature of the celebration and little Jack would like to have a birthday at least once a week.

Elks, their wives and sweethearts will be glad to know that the social season of the lodge here is to open with a brilliant number next Monday evening. The feature is the famous Scherkele concert orchestra, which will give a two-hour program of unusual merit and that in turn will be followed by two hours of dancing. All Elks are notified by Charles Binger, chairman of the social committee, to arrange their affairs to be on hand. It will be a treat extraordinary, he announces.

The marriage of Miss Edna Wender, regular ticket clerk in the O-W. ticket office at the depot in Mr. Joseph Stevens, a member of the dispatcher's office force, was solemnized last Sunday. The many friends of the young people, while somewhat surprised when the wedding announcement was made, joined in a shower of congratulations.

The Moonheart ladies dance and bazaar Monday evening at Eagles hall was a thoroughly successful occasion. A large attendance greeted the efforts of the ladies who had worked diligently to have a social event of interest. Fancy work and all sorts of novelties were offered and sold in the bazaar and the dance and refreshments were enjoyed by all.

RENEWED TESTIMONY

No one in La Grande who suffers backache, headache, or distressing urinary ills can afford to ignore this. La Grande woman's twice-told story is confirmed testimony that no La Grande resident can doubt.

Mrs. Mary Campbell, 1521 Monroe St., La Grande, says: "I can conscientiously recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for I know from personal experience they are a good reliable remedy for kidney disorders. Whenever I notice any symptoms of this trouble coming on a few of Doan's overcome the trouble and acts as a tonic to my whole system." (Statement given May 25, 1916.)

On May 6, 1920, Mrs. Campbell said: "I will always recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. I have never found anything to equal them for occasional attacks of kidney complaint. They are sure to help me if my kidneys trouble me." Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Campbell had. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.
