"FANNY HERSELF" EDNA FERBER'S STORY ON SCREEN

A picture without a fight will be shown at the Arcade Theatre on Wednesday. Yet it is a screen story that today is thundering across the country as one of the most terrific dramas or ordinary life ever filmed. The epochal production is "No Woman Knows," Universal's screen version of "Fanny Herself," Edna Ferber's magazine story that has thrilled thousands of readers of the popular magazine in which it appeared. The story concerns a young girl who takes up the burden that killed her mother; the burden of providing for a brother who is supposed to be a genius. How she meets temptation withstands it and finds eventual happiness, occupies the screen with one of its sincerest and strongest narratives. Local playgoers will be additionally interested in the supporting cast. It includes many players whose work is popular here, among them Earle Schenckle, E. A. Warren, Max Davidson, Richard Cummings, Grace Marvin, Smitz Edwards, Joseph Swickard, Danny Hoy, Stuart Holmes and John Davidson.

"HABIT" A PLAY OF MANY SURPRISES

The Arcade Theatre will have as its feature attraction today and Tuesday "Habit." This is a story of unusual dramatic power and further notable for a scene in an atelier of a Fifth Avenue importer and designer, where models wearing over a hundred thousand dollars worth of furs and furbelows parade. The extent and richness of the fashions shown will interest all women in that these styles are the actual ones that will be worn this winter by the leaders of fashion. They are given sufficient footage, so that every detail can be appreciated by patrons. It is even said that even the films devoted exclusively to fashions hardly furnish such forecast of coming modes. The play deals with the tremendous grip habit can acquire Mildred Harris, in the character of Irene Fletcher, finds herself clinging to her extravagant habits, although her father is a bankrupt.

The cast is notable. William Lawrence plays the part of the successful suitor and Walter McGill the role of the vengeful one, while Ethel Grey Terry as Mary Chatter, appears as Irene's friend. Her father is played by Emmet C. King. Advance reports say that "Habit" is not only a remarkable photoplay but one that contains many startling surprises. A two-reel comedy is also being shown.

BILL HART SOME SCRAPPER IN HIS NEW PHOTOPLAY

Bill Hart is some scrapper, as everybody knows, but in his new Paramount picture, "The Testing Block," which comes to the Sherry theatre for the last time today, he is a veritable super-man.

A straying minstrel band, with a lovely girl who plays the violin, winds through the trails of the California Sierras in the days of gold. Mr. Hart is chief of the bandit gang. They force the players to entertain them in the heart of the redwood forest. The half-savage outlaws are avid in their desire to capture the girl and "Sierra" Bill. (Mr. Hart) forces them to fight him, one by one, for the right to claim her. He beats them all and then, himself half-crazed, seeks the girl and forces her to marry him. That is the beginning of a story of human tragedy and joy, which unfolds in a mighty sequence of compelling incidents. Mr. Hart wrote the story. Lambert Hilger adapted and directed it. The photography was by Joe August, A.
