

Feel Old?

Overwork, worry, anxiety or sorrow erodes strength and health. These factors contribute to kidney trouble, and if diseased kidneys make one old in middle age.

Dooley Kidney Pills

Weak, overworked or diseased kidneys and bladder so that the system is from waste and poisonous matter causes one to feel old, tired, languid. They banish backache, rheumatic pains, sore muscles, stiff joints.

J. D. Miller, Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "Many years I suffered with kidney trouble. I had a severe backache and was miserable and all played out. I got to where I had to do something. After taking a bottle of Dooley Kidney Pills I can say backache is gone, and when I used to lay at night with rheumatic pains I can now lie at night and enjoy a good night's rest."

The first of a series of educational programs to be given during the year by the Young Woman's Educational Auxiliary was given Monday evening at the home of Mrs. H. S. Brown-ton, with Mrs. Brown-ton, Mrs. Chas. De-Forrest, Mrs. Thelma Lyons, Miss Es-sie Johnson and Miss Ruth Quigley as hostesses.

A short business session preceded the program after which Mrs. Brown-ton announced that modern American composers was the topic for the evening.

Mrs. Brown-ton read an excellent paper dealing with the works and lives of American composers. Favorite selections from the best composers were rendered during the hour. Mrs. Ira Aldrich sang two numbers by James H. Rogers, "At Parting," and "The Star." Miss Quigley accompanied at the piano. Two piano selections from "Pipes of Pan," by Frederick Knight Logan, were played by Miss Quigley. Mrs. Thelma Lyons, dressed in Indian costume, sang Chas. Wakefield Cad-man's "From the Land of Sky Blue Water," and "By the Waters of Min-netonka," by Thelma Lyons. Rev. Quigley sang a delightful number of Harry Rowe Shelleys, "Love's Sor-row." Helen Williams played "Shep-herds All and Maidens Fair," by Nev-in, and "In the Forest," by McDowell. A character song, "Bobby Shafto," by Barrett was given by Jean Williams. Dorothy Brown-ton, Lois Nelson and Helen Williams. The girls were dressed in quaint costumes making a pic-turesque scene.

Two piano numbers were played by Lois Nelson: "Romans," and "Hunt-ing Song," by MacDowell. The final musical number was a "sing" of old-time songs written by Stephen Foster. Mrs. Williams led the singing and all took part.

A hunt was announced by the host-esses and to follow the leader. The hunt proved to be the finding of de-licious refreshments at the home of Mrs. DeForrest close by. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Eppling in Old Town, Monday evening, November 21.

Friday was social afternoon for the Associated Girl Students of the La Grande high school. The program which was cleverly arranged was in charge of Edith Pierce.

Dorothy Caldwell, accompanied by Bertha Berger, pleased the girls with two violin solos. Next was a vocal solo by Beulah Smith, accompanied by Miss Jessie Norris, which was admi-rably suited to her rich contralto voice. Edna Graham, the popular pianist of this year's younger set, played.

A little playlet, "The Doll Shop," was arranged and directed by Miss Ruhor, gave the audience a peek into an attractive doll shop. The dolls af-forded amusement by their funny an-tics. The girls taking part were: The Shop Keeper, Lois Lyman; The Moth-er, Genevieve Hanna; The Daughter, Ed-bell Kitchen; the dolls— Jumping Jack, Virgella Boid; Dancing Doll, Othello Gray; Soldier Dolls, Alta Per-ry and Emma Lyman; Baby Doll, Louise French; Ducky Doll, Unis Heish; Japanese Doll, Violet Young; Talking Doll, Elizabeth Payton; In-dian Doll, Helen Williams; Dutch Doll, Jeanne Smith; The Bridegroom, Roberta Lloyd; The Bride, Mildred Mulholland; The Preacher, Norma Mayger.

recent read "Flannigan and Milligan." The last number on the program was "The Indian Sun Dance," arranged and directed by Miss Jones, physical director, was given by a group of girls dressed in beautiful Indian cos-tumes. The curtain rose, showing the mystic camp fire with the Indians seated around smoking the Peace Pipe. Then, to the time of weird music, they danced in a beautiful, yet strange manner.

The A. G. S. this year plans for many educational, as well as inter-esting, works. They are purchasing a Victrola for the gymnasium classes and for motion picture shows that this society will hold. The money for the Victrola will be raised by the "Annual April Antic Show."

The girls are realizing the advan-tages of this organization—the good fellowship it creates and the oppor-tunities for each girl to display her talents at the programs given.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will hold its regular meeting Thursday afternoon, November 10th, instead of Friday, at the home of Mrs. Robert Eakin, Mrs. H. R. Hanna and Mrs. Poarch will act as assistant hostesses. All members please take notice of this change.

LAUD CANYON, Nov. 9.—(Spe-cial.)—Miss Edna Belle Council and George Henry Tucker were very quiet-ly married Sunday evening, November 6, at six o'clock, at the office of Justice of the Peace A. C. One of the most successful district conventions of the Rebekah degree ever held in Union county was held here yesterday. After a short business session in the morning a luncheon was served at noon by the La Grande lodge.

At the afternoon session a number of talks along various phases of the lodge work were made by members of the various lodges of the district. A number of musical selections were given between the talks.

In the evening, after the reports of the various committees were read and accepted, the convention closed with Crystal Rebekah Lodge No. 59 of La Grande, exemplifying the work. At a late hour the guests, numbering 165, were entertained at a banquet, and everyone departed well paid for having spent the day at the conven-tion.

Mrs. A. Edwin Pryke and daughter, Marion, left Sunday evening for Sa-satchewan, Canada, where they will visit with friends and relatives at Haward and Saskatoon for some time. From there they will go to North Dakota, Chicago, Grand Rapids, New York, Washington and Eastern Canada points. They expect to be away from home for about seven months.
