Costume Incomplete Without Girdle

This is the season when girdles are greatly in evidence. For coats, street gowns, the new over-blouses and all sorts of costumes for all sorts of occasions are incomplete without the girdle. Girdles, which imitate so many materials, is the most popular composition, though gold, silver, imitating the work of the Italian Renaissance, is combined often with jade, lapis lazuli, amethyst and other stones.

WALLACE REID A TEACHER OF CHARM AT GIRLS' SCHOOL

Wallace Reid has become a teacher of charm in a young ladies' school. The pupils are taught how to make themselves charming, the course comprising lessons in Grecian and modern dancing, swimming, dexterity and beauty culture.

But before Mr. Reid is swamped with letters of inquiry from admiring screen fans, it should be said that this is only a part of the star's latest Paramount picture, "The Charm School" which will be shown at the Sherry Theatre next Sunday and Monday.

The story was written by Alice Duer Miller, Tom Geraghty wrote the scenario and James Cruze directed. Lila Lee is leading woman and Adele Farrington, Beulah Bains, Edwin Stevens, Grace Mays, Patricia Magee, Lincoln Stedman, Kate Tonery and others are in the cast.

NEW FILM AN EPIC OF SMALL TOWN LIFE

"No Woman Knows," at the Arcade Theatre, has established another enviable record in silent drama achievement.

Directed by Tod Browning as a Universal-Jewel production, the story was adapted for the screen from "Fanny Herself," the humanly interesting and widely read novel by Edna Ferber. "No Woman Knows" flashes from the mountain tops of intense emotional feeling to the quiet valleys of homely realism, from the earnest truthfulness of family life to the intricate expression of extreme dramatic significance. Through it all runs a tender theme of divine usefulness and the self-sacrificing instincts of mother and sister love—a theme of universal interest and import.

Miss Scott is supported by an excellent cast including Grace Marvin, Earle Schenck, Max Davidson, Richard Cummings, Joseph Swickard, John Davidson, Stuart Holmes, E. A. Warren, Snitz Edwards, Danny-Hoy, Raymond Lee, Bernice Radom, Joseph Stearns, Dorothy Dehn and Eugenie Forde.

Intimately and humorously, "No Woman Knows," introduces the audience into the family life of a small town couple and their two gifted children and so naturally is the story strung together with human incidents and the strength and weakness of human nature that tears and laughter intermingle in a common bond of sympathetic understanding.

"No Woman Knows," contains all the elements of a more than usually interesting picture and combines the dramatic with the humorous in a natural and unaffected manner.

"No Woman Knows" will be the attraction at the Arcade Theatre today and Friday.

EUGENE, Nov. 9.—A jury trying Fred Thomas on a charge of shooting Wiley Hubbard at Dorena disagreed today. A new trial will be granted Nov. 23.

Limited Armaments and Limitless Progress

History has taught that Peace not War brings happiness. It is to be hoped that this knowledge will be reflected clearly in the Disarmament Conference at Washington, November 11th, that the world's wealth may be conserved for the world's prosperity.

As with nations, so with men—success comes through ability to recognize and plan for the best in life.

Whatever the results of the Disarmament conference, a conference in the home now may well decree a bank account for every member of the family—a bank account at
