SENNETT FEATURE WILL BE SHOWN AT ARCADE THEATRE

Mack Sennett's latest and greatest multiple reel comedy for Associated Producers, "Home Talent," has been booked for showing at the Arcade theatre Saturday only. Those who have viewed this much-talked-of comedy-spectacle agree that it is one of the best productions that has emanated from the Sennett studios in many months.

The episodes in which the genius of Abbe, as a "still" photographer converted to "the movies" is revealed, relate to a story of the slave mart of ancient Rome and in them is shown the ensemble and individual beauty of the Mack Sennett feminine corps of pulchritude. This part of the picture, it is claimed, will be a revelation to picture patrons as well as to picture experts, for its lighting and posuring as it is said, nothing approaching these scenes has been accomplished in the line of revealing, decorous disclosures of feminine beauty.

Phyllis Haver, appropriately, has the leading feminine role and is supported in the beauty contingent, principally by Harriet Hammond, Mildred June and Kathryn McGuire. The principals in the comedy episodes are Ben Turpin, Charlie Murray, Eddie Gribbon, James Finlayson and Kalla Pasha. One of the most "gorgeous" fights ever screened is shown in a Roman setting with Eddie Gribbon in a legitimately heroic and splendidly sustained characterization.

GIRL MAKES SACRIFICE FOR MAN SHE ONCE LOVED

Unusual Scene Makes "The Oath" One of the Most Remarkable Pictures of Year.

"The Oath," the R. A. Walsh production for Associated First National Pictures, Inc., which opens at the Star theatre on Saturday for two days' showing contains a scene which has been hailed by critics as being the most dramatic that has ever been filmed or staged. A series of fast moving, interesting circumstances has involved Hugh Culham in a situation where his conviction for murder is absolutely certain unless he breaks an oath given to his wife when he has secretly married.

Miriam Cooper heads the capable cast which portrays the story and supporting her are Conway Tearle, Henry Clive and Anna Q. Nilsson. Mr. Walsh has provided sumptuous settings for all the scenes, and the entire production has well earned its distinction of being one of the extraordinary photoplays of the year.

Limited Armaments and Limitless Progress

History has taught that Peace not War brings happiness. It is to be hoped that this knowledge will be reflected clearly in the Disarmament Conference at Washington, November 11th, that the world's wealth may be conserved for the world's prosperity.

As with nations, so with men—success comes through ability to recognize and plan for the best in life.

Whatever the results of the Disarmament conference, a conference in the home now may well decide a bank account for every member of the family—a bank account at
