

TWO SETS TWINS IN TWO YEARS

LOSTINE, Nov. 12—(Special)—Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Ault of Enterprise were calling on Mrs. E. W. Steel on Tuesday.

Little Wesley Steel who has been attending school in Enterprise this term has been home for a few days recovering from some skin infection. The county road workers are blasting out more of the rock along the highway east of Lostine. It is hoped by County Officials to be able to complete the gap in the highway between Lostine and Enterprise next spring, and some of this work is being done while the good weather lasts this fall.

J. B. Williamson has moved to his farm home east of town and sister, Mrs. Wm. Daisie and family are moving in with his father, Chas. Williamson on Main street. Chas. South is moving into the little S. M. Crow house this week also, from the Rogers' place east of town.

A large delegation of the Anthony Chapter O. E. S. went to Wallowa last week, Friday night, where the Lostine lodge put on the work for the Wallowa Chapter of O. E. S. There were several carloads but we have not been able to secure the names of all.

A large delegation of the I. O. O. F. of Lostine went to Wallowa Monday night to visit their brother lodge of that order.

Mr. and Mrs. Polk Mays and children and Mrs. Jennie McCulley, all of Joseph spent Sunday a week ago with Mrs. May's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fleener of this place.

Dr. Shields the new pastor of Wallowa and Lostine Presbyterian churches held his first services in both places last Sunday. He preached in Wallowa in the morning and Lostine in the evening at 7:30. He was greeted by a pretty good sized audience here and it is hoped the attendance will increase. He was accompanied up from Wallowa by his wife and Mr. Thomas Schell and wife and will hold services regularly in Lostine every Sunday evening.

Sheriff Rhinehart and Mrs. Victoria Moody of Enterprise were in Lostine on official business, Friday P. M.

Mayor W. P. Robinson and S. P. Crow were Enterprise business visitors on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Willett and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Bowman were Enterprise visitors on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gail Crow of Hurricane Creek were visiting home folks in Lostine Sunday.

Wm. Frazier formerly a Lostine resident who has been in Idaho and California for the past couple of years is here on a visit to old friends and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jackson during his stay.

Druggist Hank Farrell of Enterprise, was a Lostine visitor last Wednesday. He formerly ran the Lostine drugstore.

Dr. Wilson, of Baker was a Lostine visitor on Wednesday. The doctor is a Pioneer of Wallowa Co. having lived on the Prairie Creek in the upper part of the country when a small boy. His people came in 1877, and came with wagons and pack horses, while he drove in this time with modern roadster.

Mrs. Pauline Atsworth and small son of La Grande, came in Saturday for a visit with her brothers Clayton and Ralph Goodman.

Mr. Sanderson, the apple man from Summerville, also a merchant of that place has brought in a carload of apples which he has stored in the basement of the Elliott warehouse, at the depot and will make that his distributing point for the County. He delivered three hundred boxes at Enterprise and intends to have some of his apples on display in all the towns of the valley.

Chas. Hamilton of Imbler, is in town on a business trip and also to visit his sisters, Mrs. Chas. Gray and Mrs. Bert Cook and other relatives.

Mrs. George Hatchette and Miss Maude Peterson, County health nurse, both of Enterprise, were in Lostine last Wednesday on official business.

Mrs. Howard Williamson of Mud Creek in the north part of the County came in Saturday for a visit with the home folks and so Mrs. Williamson could visit with her uncle Stewart McGill during his short visit here.

Dr. and Mrs. Anson Poley of Portland have been in Wallowa County on business and pleasure trip. They motored here in their car, and his brother O. J. Poley, of Lostine, returned to Portland with them.

Stewart McGill, Traveling Secretary for the National Educational Association with headquarters at Washington D. C. came in on Sunday's train for a twenty-four hour's visit with his brothers, S. J., S. L. and D. H. McGill. S. L. McGill took him as far as Minam on Monday in his car, to let him see the new highway. He boarded the train at Minam for his trip out.

Mrs. O. J. Poley, Mrs. Harry Williamson, Mr. W. P. Robinson and Mrs. F. B. Leonard were Wallowa visitors on Wednesday.

Mrs. W. B. Hunter, Mrs. Mary Bell Ward and little girl, Madeline were Wallowa visitors on Tuesday, Mrs.

Ward taking her little girl to the doctor to be examined for throat and nose trouble.

R. V. Goodman went to Enterprise Wednesday to have some teeth extracted hoping to improve his health thereby as he has been suffering from rheumatism for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Harris were down from their farm home last Wednesday visiting Mr. and Mrs. David Harris. They brought their youngest twins with them for their first visit to their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harris have the unusual experience to have four children and were only married two years in October. They have twin boys who were born August 12th, 1920, and a girl and a boy, twins, who were born Sept. 14th and 15th, 1921. The girl was born about 11 p. m. of the 14th and the boy not until after midnight, making his birthday the 15th. All four babies are doing nicely and the young parents are very proud of them. Mr. Harris was a soldier boy during the world war. Mrs. Harris' sister, Irene Arnold, of Seattle, Wash. is staying with her for the winter.

J. J. Chapman and son Sanford are in Portland where Sanford went for examination being one of Lostine's boys who was severely wounded in battle during the late war. Sanford has regained his health and strength remarkably well, considering his experience.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Evan O. Allen, a son on Monday, November 7th, 1921. Mrs. Allen is at the Wallowa hospital.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Thompson a daughter on Tuesday, November 8, 1921. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson were residents near Lostine for some years, but now have a farm home above Enterprise. Mrs. Thompson is at the Wallowa hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Leander McCubbin moved back to his old home above Enterprise recently from Caldwell.

Idaho. Mr. McCubbin has sold his Enterprise farm but the buyer failed in his venture and Mr. McCubbin too kit back. Mr. McCubbin was a former vintner man of Lostine and Evans and his many friends here are glad to see him re-locate in Wallowa the county again.

Word was received last week of the death of little William Wesley White, three year old son of W. P. White of Pendleton. The little fellow died at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. White at Halper after a three week's illness with spinal meningitis. Interment was in Baker cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. W. P. White were residents of Lostine a few years ago when he was station agent here and the sympathy of a host of friends in Lostine and Evans as well as Wallowa.
