Hill's Dep't Store

BOTTLE BREAKER.
NOTTINGHAM, Eng., Nov. 14.—Standing in a pool of whiskey, champagne and port wine, Harry Ward, a hotel employe, was recently arrested by the police after witnesses had heard the smashing of bottles in the hotel cellar. He was sentenced to two months imprisonment for the damage, estimated at 234 pounds. He had smashed 88 bottles of champagne, 61 of port, and 28 of whiskey, as well as brandy and benedictine bottles. The prisoner pleaded, through his counsel, that he did it in a fit of temper because the manager had given him a week's notice of dismissal. Malarial fever contracted in Mesopotamia, it was said, had affected his mind.

AT SHERRY'S THEATRE

"The Rookie's Return" Delightful Vehicle for Young Star.

Hailed as a companion picture to the famous "Twenty-Three and a Half Hours' Leave," "The Rookie's Return," Douglas MacLean's latest Paramount picture, produced by Thomas H. Ince, will be featured at the Sherry Theatre today and tomorrow.

While the popular stars' initial success dealt with the troubles and extraordinary experiences of a soldier on the eve of his departure for France, "The Rookie's Return" is a story of a young veteran's return to civilian life and his struggles with the horrors of demobilization and peace.

"The Rookie's Return" was adapted from the original story by Archer MacMackin. Lloyd Ingraham directed and Doris May heads a clever supporting cast.

NEW YORK'S FILM WONDER,
"OVER THE HILL," COMING

The William Fox photoplay, "Over the Hill," which was made from Will Carleton's celebrated "Farm Ballads," and has enjoyed such a lengthy run on Broadway will be seen at the Star Theatre soon.

William Fox, the noted picture producer, regards "Over the Hill" as his favorite over all the pictures he ever produced. At the time when it was ready for its initial screening, and before its sensational Broadway success had started, Mr. Fox issued the following interesting statement: "I have watched the development of 'Over the Hill' from the moment the first scene was written. I have watched it throughout the months it has been in course of production. It represents a Labor of Love. In it I take a pride which has never been exceeded—or even equalled—in all the years Fox Film Corporation has been issuing pictures."
