AT SHERRYS—LAST SHOWN TODAY. DOUGLAS MACLEAN IN FINE COMEDY

Douglas MacLean, whose Paramount starring vehicle, "The Rookie's Return," has made a hit at the Sherry Theatre, has earned the reputation during the past year of being one of the most energetic workers in the screen profession.

Not only does Mr. MacLean play an important part in the selecting of his stories, but he assists materially in the selection of the cast and the direction of the picture.

Mr. MacLean has had several years experience both on the speaking stage and the screen and is a capable judge of dramatic and comedy values. No scene is taken in a MacLean production unless it has first been carefully analyzed, as to its probable effect upon future audiences.

"The Rookie's Return" is a humorously interesting story of a young returned soldier and his exciting experiences in adjusting himself to civilian life after two years in the service. In the role of the rookie, Mr. MacLean is ably supported by Doris May and a company of well-known players which includes Frank Currier, Joe White, Wallace Beery, Kathleen Key and William Courtwright. Also showing a comedy.

NEW YORK'S REIGNING FILM SENSATION, "OVER THE HILL," TO BE SEEN HERE

"Over the Hill," the William Fox picturization of Will Carleton's "Farm Ballads," which has broken the best record of any screen attraction that ever visited Broadway, playing there one solid year in six different theaters, will be seen at The Star Theatre, starting November 20th.

The story of "Over the Hill" was adapted from Carleton's poems by Paul H. Sloane, who is said to have written a screen story that defies criticism in this form of entertainment. The story has to do with the adversities of a typical American family, the mother of which is called upon to bear the brunt of all the shortcomings of her little flock. The principal characters, aside from the mother, are a lazy father and six lively kids—one of whom is destined to figure as the black sheep. As the story unfolds, the youngsters are seen growing to manhood and womanhood, and eventually leaving the homestead to set out into the world for themselves.

The story is worked up to one of the most beautiful climaxes ever devised and one that is said to stir the emotions of men and women as they view before them have been stirred by a stage production. There is also abundant comedy in the picture, and the production can well be said to meet the entertainment needs of every member of the family, young and old.

Dairymen Advised Not To Quit Their Organization Now

PORTLAND, Nov. 16.—A meeting of the directors of the dairymen's league here yesterday at the offices in this city and at the same time a mass meeting of dairymen in the

Elliot & Serogins have completed the last of their contracts on the state highway between Kamela and Hilgard and are hauling tools, implements and powder to this station for shipment. This closes their work in this section and people are sorry to see them go. Mr. Scott, the superintendent, Mr. Packet, and their sub-contractors as well, are held in esteem by all who know them, especially in a business way. Throughout, their slogan has evidently been, "Give the other fellow a square deal."

EIGHT IN ONE DAY SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 16.—Eight jurors were passed subject to challenge for the Arbuclle trial yesterday.

HIGHWAY WORK IS COMPLETED

HILGARD, Nov. 16. (Special)—Three head of stray cattle, one cow, two yearlings, have been in and about Hilgard for a week past. Their brand is Bar U, which is unfamiliar in this section, and it is supposed that they have strayed in from the Umattla side of the mountains.

Louis Olson, an old-time timber man of this neighborhood, took No. 23 Sunday evening for Meacham, where he will be employed in a gang which is re-timbering a tunnel at that place. It is expected this work will last throughout the winter.

Mrs. Lilly of La Grande and Gladys Salling spent Sunday at the home of Miss Salling's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Salling.

Bob Ross and wife from the summit were in Hilgard Wednesday buying supplies.

Alec Buntzen who has been hauling wood with his truck met with an unfortunate accident the early part of last week. While rounding one of the high points on the grade above Hilgard, something went wrong with the machine which continued on over the bank into the canyon. Mr.

Buntzen jumped free of the truck, thereby escaping serious injury.

Lyle McFadden, who has been working on the highway at Kamela, returned home Saturday.

W. A. Burns of La Grande was in Hilgard Thursday, the object of his trip being the delivery of a thoroughbred Ayshire heifer at the J. W. Scott place.

Ed Salling and wife drove to La Grande Thursday, returning with a generous load of winter supplies.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Wheatley went to La Grande Friday for the Armistice Day celebration, following which Mr. Wheatley left on a business trip to Portland.

Hugh Holse, of the Mt. Emily rancher station, spent part of Friday in Hilgard.

Owen Scott who has been working on the highway at Kamela, returned here and is now with the Hiesli Bridge company which is constructing the overhead bridge on the highway at the Glover crossing.

Chas. Benham completed his contract on highway work near Glover, and is preparing to ship his outfit.

The district is having some necessary repairs done on the school house and have employed Mr. Ed Salling for two or three days for that purpose.

A number of Hilgard people motored to Perry Saturday night to attend the dance there.
