

DADS AND SONS BREAK BREAD

for Mr. Eakin was thoroughly at home as head of the table and his crisp stories and good humored remarks pleased the entire gathering.

Alfred Meyers responded to a call for a piano selection and as his younger brother, Paul, remarked, "The sure did claw the ivory." Alfred is one of the real musicians of the city among the young set and his selection was strong and vigorous. He responded with that popular air, "Ain't We Got Fun?"

William Heugan talked for several minutes on "A Home," in which he insisted the common expression that a boy's home was where he has his washing done is not correct and he told what home meant to a boy. A. W. Nelson spoke on the boy problem and confessed the kind of a dad he would like to be, and that he is striving to be, using several happy illustrations to drive home his points. Dr. Brownson took for his text, "Like Father, Like Son," and told how the boy is sure to go if his father set the bad examples. When he insisted that men should not smoke, about half the audience cleared their throats and changed positions in their chairs, but he kept right on driving home the blows to the men who smoke and do things that they do not want their boys to do.

Frances Robinson told in a clear and able manner the kind of a dad he liked and wove in considerable wit in his remarks.

A male quartet led by Rev. J. Quigley rendered a good number and the audience insisted on more of the same kind, which was freely given.

F. L. Meyers spoke on what the annual gathering meant to the boys and their fathers, expressing his delight at being present. G. L. Larson also spoke from the same standpoint, impressing upon his audience the fact that the men of tomorrow were the boys gathered around the tables.

The address of the evening, as the toastmaster put it, was delivered by Rev. Quigley, pastor of the Methodist church. He took each side of the boy and the daddy question and gave some excellent advice to both.

"PASSION," BIG PRODUCTION, WITH CONTINENTAL STAR

The most recent of super-film plays, "Passion," which opens an engagement at the Arcade Theatre tomorrow, is said to mark a new epoch in motion pictures. "Passion" is an intimate version of the story of a little French milliner who rose to a position commanding a king and affecting the destinies of a nation. It is presented as an Associated First National attraction and it comes to this city with an actual record for establishing new leads in screen production. Aside from its reputed new technical perfection there is a depth of panoramic perspective hitherto unknown to the silver screen and instanced by the passion of huge mobs rising in their might to overthrow the mighty, and of which there have been plenty of demonstrations lately in the form of strikes and rebellions. One of the big scenes in this photodramatic spectacle is the storming of a mammoth barricaded prison by a mob of 5,000 impassioned citizens, all of which becomes doubly impressive and realistic through the stereoscopic character of the new photography which displaces the flat photography that so often makes the illusion difficult. By this system are pictured not only shadows and reflections, but bodies and scenes which seem endowed with their true dimension, it is said. This novelty within itself should mark a distinct novelty which will arouse wide interest since the progress of the cinema development is being so closely watched by interested millions of devotees.

The cast in "Passion" is headed by Pola Negri, the famous Continental star, and her portrayal of the leading character, is said to set a new high mark in motion picture artistry.

SEPARATORS CLARIFY CIDER

An ordinary cream separator may be used to clarify apple cider on the farm. It will clog up after a while but by cleaning it out from time to time a very clear product may be obtained in this way.—O. A. C. Experiment station.

WASH DAY and Company Comes

B-R-R-R GOES THE DOOR BELL AND YOU'RE BUSY WASHING

A most annoying situation, for usually when you're dressed for washing you are not dressed for the front door.

But nowadays with a THOR Electric Washing Machine it's not necessary to dress like a washwoman. With this wonderful washer you can dress neatly and keep cool even while doing the washing.

You'll find it very convenient to be able to switch off the machine and go to the door without being compelled to stop and tidy up.

Aside from the advantage of always being presentable, this washer is a great labor-saver.

Electricity does all the hard work even to the wringing. All you do is put the clothes in the cylinder and press a switch. It's really no work at all to wash this way.

A demonstration of the washer will convince you that it is necessary to your comfort. Call today and let us show you.
