In Pendleton Today—
 M. J. Goss, better known as "Studebaker" Goss, who has been selling the Studebaker car here for some time, went to Pendleton this morning to assist the Wallowa Milling and Grain company in taking care of the large number of cars which that company is assembling in the neighboring city.

Looking After Light Business—
 H. P. Curtin of the Eastern Oregon Light and Power company came down from Baker last evening and is at the Sommer hotel.

Over from Boise—
 Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ramsey, of Boise, are visiting friends in La Grande. They were former residents of this city and were very popular among the young people. Mrs. Ramsey was Miss Irene Murphy. They like their Boise home very much but still enjoy getting back in La Grande about the time snow begins to fly and the winter social engagements set in.

Many Start Across the Hill—
 People who had been in La Grande for several days either visiting, or on business and who expected to cross the divide in machines before the winter set in made a grand rush this morning for the summit in the hope that they could buck the snow and get across. A number of machines left La Grande between 6 and 8 o'clock and no word has been received stating that they were stuck. Good fortune favored them for a couple of trucks were due across the mountains and they broke the road for the toiling cars.

Obituary Wrestler Here—
 Ad. Gustavo, who at one time was one of the prize wrestlers in the city, is now in the city.

Curtin on this Division—
 R. J. Curtin is now on this division of the O-W, permanently as traveling passenger agent and Jimmie Hicks, who held this end down for a long time, has been transferred to the first division. Mr. Curtin has while comparatively new over in this park is becoming one of the fellows very fast.

Railroad Striving for Business—
 All is not rosy with railroads for they have to hustle for business as well as other people. Just now the O-W is doing its best to land a silk contract and a few cars of silk have been sent over the line of late to see if the time can be made to compete with other lines. This same hard competition in getting trains over the road quickly is what landed the O-W the large fruit contracts this year. Nearly all the fruit of the northwest went through La Grande to eastern markets because the Union Pacific could and did beat the time of other railroads.

Horse Raiser in City—
 Homer Bidwell, accompanied by Mrs. Bidwell, came down from North Powder last evening to stay a few days in La Grande. Mr. Bidwell is one of the best horse raisers in the northwest. He breeds good saddle stock. It was his stables that the very fine saddle horse owned by J. J. Carr came from.

In from Teleset—
 Baird Raymond and W. E. Hayden of Teleset, are down today to remain for a short visit. They are at the Savoy.

Lost in the City—
 D. M. Hammick, a stock man of Lostine, is in the city today.

Shopping in La Grande—
 Mrs. Walter C. Perkins, of Alice is spending the day shopping in La Grande.

Home from Washington, D. C.—
 Mrs. J. D. Smith returned last night from Washington, D. C., where she attended the marriage of her daughter, Miss Sarah to Mr. Alfred Harding, Jr., on October 5th. After spending some time in the national capital Mrs. Smith visited in Louisville and Lexington, Kentucky. She is a native of Kentucky.

Things Running Well Today—
 F. D. Hobbs, representative of the railroad boys' organization, has been here for several days consulting with the different heads of orders. Before leaving this morning for his home in Portland Mr. Hobbs stated that everything is running very good now. He was accompanied on this trip by Mrs. Hobbs who has many friends in La Grande.

Vandalism—
 Some one, and it is hard to guess who would do such a thing, marred the body of L. W. Weeks' new Franklin sedan a few days ago by taking what seemed to be a piece of stone and scratching letters and figures through the varnish into the paint. The car is a new one and quite naturally Mr. Weeks is full of indignation over the matter. A suitable reward has been offered for the location of the guilty one.

New Orchestra Formed—
 A new orchestra composed of Kenneth Gekeler, Henry Reese, Mrs. T. O. Mead, Andrew Loney, Frank Robinson and Everett Rosenbath has been formed under the name of the "Star Orchestra" and announcements have been issued to that effect.

Here from Portland—
 Mrs. Mary Martin of Portland is visiting Mrs. G. M. Hutchinson of 1424 Adams. Charles Martin accompanied his mother to La Grande but left last night leaving Mrs. Martin here for an extended visit with her friends.

Will Attend Game at Eugene—
 Miss Deloris Pearson is leaving this evening for Eugene where she will attend the football game between O. A. C. and U. of O. Before returning she will visit with her aunt at Salem.

Home from Europe—
 Mrs. George Chapman returned this morning from a three months' trip to France, Switzerland and Austria. She reports a very pleasant trip.

Social Tonight—
 A social will be held in M. J. A. hall this evening, beginning at 8:30. All members of the organization and their friends are invited.

Lecture on Ireland—
 Rev. William L. Quinn, a prominent lecturer of the United States, will give an illustrated lecture on Ireland in the high school auditorium next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Many of the pictures shown were taken by Rev. Quinn and have been lately released for public exhibition. Everyone interested in knowing about Ireland and her history, both past and present should attend.

NO DIPHTHERIA AT LADD CANYON

LADD CANYON, Nov. 18. (Special)—The cold rain and sleet Monday reminded us that winter might put in its appearance at any time now. After such a beautiful fall we can hardly complain at some bad weather now.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Tucker returned from their homing trip to Portland last Thursday and after a "ow days" visit with the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary L. Conwell, they will be at home to their friends on the Tucker ranch. Their neighbors and friends were out Thursday evening before they had hardly gotten home to cheer them with the treats and after much merriment they went home wishing them prosperity and happiness.

Mrs. R. A. Titus and little son spent the week-end at the D. W. Miller home, returning to Teleset Monday morning.

Mrs. Harry Amell of Union spent the week-end at the camp in Ladd Canyon. Mr. Amell is here hauling lumber.

The Get-together club met at the "has, Grandy home last week. One new member, Mrs. James McCloud, was taken into the club. After the usual business meeting it was decided to have a series of entertainments during the winter for the club members and their families and a friend if they wish to bring them.

The first social will be given Wednesday evening, November 6, at the home of Mrs. H. W. Peabler. Mohammed Peabler, Tilton, Cotner, Hopple and Miller will be hostesses at that time. Next month another group of five ladies will take it up and so on. Much pleasure it is expected will be derived from these socials. After this was settled a good social visit was enjoyed while Mrs. Grandy served a nice lunch to which each member did justice and all returned home feeling it was good to have been there. The next meeting will be at Mrs. Clyde Hopple's in three weeks. Next week being Thanksgiving.

Miss Faye Milligan was a guest at D. W. Millers Sunday.

Guy and Ella Miller attended the gymnasium number at the high school Saturday night and were pleased with the musical entertainment.

Miss Bernice Langhin returned to town Thursday after a few days visit at the ranch.

Miss Helen Peabler has been at Hot Lake for the past two weeks. She was taken there to have some teeth extracted that have been giving her serious trouble. It is hoped she will soon be home again. Helen is a patient sufferer and has the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ginch spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Cline's uncle, Mr. M. L. Carter, near Cove.

It was a false alarm given out that Mrs. Dutser's little son Johnnie had diphtheria. It was only a cold the little boy had.

Miss Celia Edvelson spent the week-end at her home near Union returning Sunday evening.

Mr. Eugene Banton and Frank Tucker went to Portland Saturday night.

Albert Krause started his sawmill to work this last week. Quite a force is employed to run the mill.

Misses Ella Banton and Sarah Sabberry are doing the cooking, so we speak good oats for the workers.

Mr. Reinaldo Herford has taken over the dining room at the Elks club. Mrs. Herford will do the party work for him.

Mrs. Henry Conwell has been ill for the past week at the home of her mother, Mrs. Geo. Tilton.

Catholic Ladies Giving Successful Bazaar This Week

The Catholic ladies' bazaar this year bids to be one of the most successful ever held. On the main floor of the Eagles hall a large crowd yesterday afternoon found booths loaded down with refreshments, candles, towels, aprons, handkerchiefs, dollies and dozens of other things that appeal to women who are doing their Christmas shopping early.

On the upper floor lunch was served yesterday and today as well as dinner. To-morrow the main feature on the bill of fare will be tamales, made of real chicken, and there will also be everything else that goes to make up a well rounded meal.

The ladies attending the bazaar have nothing but praise for the enterprise of the Catholic ladies and marvel at the low prices at which they have marked the many articles displayed.

Home Talent Play To Be Given Here On December Fifth

A definite date for "Jerry the Tramp," or "The Royal Outcast," was set last evening by the Ad Club committee having the home talent play drama in charge.

In response to a call for home talent efforts along that line, the club undertook to meet the request. The committee decided on the piece and last evening chose Monday, December 5th, as the date.

The cast will include some of the foremost talent in La Grande.

Jerry the tramp is headed this way. December 5th. 11-17-21
