Revival of masquerade costumes that have laid dormant for many moons is taking place for the masquerade ball and party to be given in Rex Hall Tuesday evening. So far as can be learned most of the characters from Topsy to Premier Clemenceau will be represented. The opinion that party to be given by Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Richardson and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Dennis will carry fancy costumes is erroneous, for it is to be a masquerade where any form of disguise may be worn.

The Home Telephone company is not forgetting the ladies for it was announced today that just as soon as the new plant is more nearly completed and the interior of the building finished, the company will have a ladies' day, at which time the ladies of the community will be guests of the company. On this occasion complete explanation will be given to the guests of the working of the new system, in section of the building will take place and refreshments will be served.

The M. I. A. of the L. D. S. church gave its Harvest Festival last evening in the Amusement Hall on Fourth street and a large attendance of young people was present. A musical program took place until 9 o'clock when dancing followed until after 11, after which refreshments were served. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion, as this is one of the great events among the young people of the church.

The L. D. S. Relief society met Thursday evening at the Amusement Hall and enjoyed one of their social times. While some features of the work were discussed, the evening was largely given over to a good time.

The Parkdale Club ladies were entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Grant Sturtevant and Zephia Struck. Mrs. Alice Standley assisted. Twenty-six members and several guests were present. The life of Ella Wheeler Wilcox proved an interesting subject for the afternoon. Those taking part in the program were Mesdames Riddle, Eckley, Scriber and Kohn. After serving refreshments the meeting adjourned to meet at

Quality Flowers

Union county is noted for the diversity and high quality of its farm products. Whatever is raised here seems to do a little better than in many other parts of the state. And it is not only field crops that have come to the fore in the county. A. B. Cherry of this city has shown that the center of Eastern Oregon business and agricultural activities can also produce highly cultivated flowers that excel.

At the flower show held in Portland last week Mr. Cherry exhibited blossoms that were declared to be the finest ever shown in the northwest by floral experts. Jessica Currey, an authority on chrysanthemums, who has attended many shows, writing in the Portland Telegram said: "The White Chrysanthemums shown by Mr. Cherry of La Grande, I feel, never have been equalled in any show I have ever attended. They were perfect as to size and color, shading from white at the tips to the dark rose reflex. Every bloom in this display was a finished flower and I am free to say I never imagined there was a grower of Mr. Cherry's skill in Eastern Oregon."

The Oregonian, in commenting on Mr. Cherry's exhibit said: "The quality of the display from Cherry's in La Grande is most remarkable, the centerpiece being 50 extra-large Turner chrysanthemums, and on either side of this large basket of Eugene Long-leaf yellow chrysanthemums."

the home of Mrs. Puma Alexander, who will be assisted by Mrs. Mary Mason on Wednesday, November 30.

The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen will give their 21st annual ball on Thanksgiving eve, November 23rd, at Rex Hall, and from the preparations the boys are making it is going to be a great event. Lindsey's orchestra will furnish the music and the general public will attend. Every year the trainmen have a big event and this one promises to be even better than previous occasions.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hanford entertained at their new home on Sixth street, forty guests enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Hanford. The rooms were tastefully decorated in pink and white and five hundred was played. High score was made by Mrs. Clyde Zimmerman and Harry Levy, and low by Mrs. Claude Lynch and Mrs. Perry. The hostess served a delicious course luncheon assisted by Mrs. Herbert Patterson and Miss Bucholtz. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan of Centralia and Mr. Barrett of Portland.

The Young Woman's Educational auxiliary is to meet at the home of Mrs. F. A. Epling in South La Grande next Monday evening. The topic will be "Great American Preachers." Rev. Geo. H. Quigley will address the or-

Do Laun-DRY-Ettes Stand the Test?

READ WHAT DR. PAGE
SAYS:

CITY HOSPITAL
Sandpoint, Idaho
October 5, 1921.

Chas. E. Flagg,
Spokane, Wash.,
Dear Sir:

In answer to your letter of inquiry will state that the Laun-Dry-Ette I bought of you recently for the City Hospital, Sandpoint, Idaho, is working very satisfactorily.

My first Laun-Dry-Ette I had shipped to me from Denver, Colorado, the nearest place they could be obtained. This was in 1915 and we used it constantly as the hospital washer for over five years. It has done this work for that period which consisted of an average of fifteen patients per day and nine employees. The laundry in a hospital is much more than it would be for the same number in a private family and must have equalled that of from five to seven families.

In conclusion I will say that I believe them to be the best machine in the market or I would not have invested in a Laun-Dry-Ette for the second time.

Yours truly,
(Signed) O. F. PAGE, M. D.

Who Uses Willard Threaded Rubber Batteries?

It would be a good deal quicker to name over the car-builders who don't.

For the great majority of builders of cars and trucks have selected Willard Threaded Rubber Batteries. You'll find them now on 173 makes.

The ability of Threaded Rubber Insulation to resist cracking, warping and puncturing, and therefore to give more miles of uninterrupted service per dollar, appeals to the builder as much as the buyer.

When you buy a new battery it is worth your while to look into the history that has been selected by the best brains of the automotive industry—the Willard Threaded Rubber Battery.

We can fit your car from our complete stock.

ganization and there will be special musical numbers and other entertainment. Cars will be provided for all who have no other way of getting there, if such will meet in the choir room of the Methodist church.

Two high class between-act specialties are being evolved to go hand in hand with the home talent production to be put on by the Ad Club at the Arcade Theatre Monday, December 6th. The management has two or three especially fine numbers in the making and in due time these will be announced.

The coming of Virginia Rea to La Grande December 9th means an opportunity for La Grander to hear a coloratura soprano that musical journals agree on as the coming great star of America. That high and exalted position has hardly been attained yet in its fullest extent, but Virginia Rea is on her way. The especially important feature about her coming here is that old-time melodies are to predominate in her program.

The Moose rally Tuesday evening at Eagles' Hall will be considerable of a social event in that the program is to be musical, social and instructive.

Anyone interested in Mooseheart is cordially invited to be present and hear how that institution has attained world-fame for the way it cares for its children.

The Lucky Thirteen met with Mrs. H. E. Coalside Thursday afternoon. Mrs. William Ash won high score. After the game delicious refreshments were served. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Bruce Dennis.

Mrs. Robert Newlin entertained the members of the Kaffee Klatsch at her home. Mrs. F. L. Meyers was high honors at bridge.

Herbert McDonald and June Francis, both of La Grande, were married at the Christian parsonage Wednesday evening. They will make their home in La Grande.

Mrs. P. A. McDonald left last evening for Salt Lake in answer to a message stating that an aunt had been forced to undergo a mastoid operation. Her daughter, Miss Helen, has been in Salt Lake for several weeks.

The ladies of the Episcopal church gave a dinner Thursday evening at Roman hall to members of the church. As usual an elegant menu greeted the church workers and during the evening questions of importance to the church were discussed.
