PROGRAM GIVEN FRIDAY NIGHT

GRANGE HALL, Nov. 24.—(Special.)—George Salisbury spent Saturday and Sunday in La Grande with his mother, Mrs. Alice Salisbury.

Mrs. C. E. Golden moved to La Grande last week.

Mrs. Geo. Brace, who has been visiting for a week at the Wm. Taylor home, left Sunday for her home at Bingham Springs.

Mrs. Bert. Groat is visiting in Elgin.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sherwood and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maertston were weekend visitors in Baker.

Wm. Taylor and family have moved to Island City.

The deep, heavy snow caused the collapse of a big cattle shed on the Gekeler brothers farm.

Mrs. Mary Foster arrived from Idaho Monday and is a guest at the Adam Beck home.

In spite of the inclemency of the weather a good crowd attended the program and basket supper that was given at the school house by Mrs. Dora Caton and her pupils Friday night. The way the children rendered the program and the bidding in of the baskets, which sold high according to these stringent times, caused Mrs. Caton to feel as though her efforts were well rewarded. The baskets brought the tidy sum of $50, which Mrs. Caton will use in arranging the interior of the school house. The following program was put on: Song by school; address of welcome, Lynn Smutz; song by school; recitation, "The Puzzled Dutcher," Vernon Sherwood; recitation, "The New Moon," Raymond DeLong; recitation, "She Didn't Want Much," Emma Beck; dialogue, "Charlie's Speech," by Vernon DeLong, Henry Beck and Francis DeLong; recitation, "Only a Boy," Arthur Spencer; song by school; reading, "Orphan Annie," Mildred Spencer; recitation, "Advice," Ralph Stringham; song by Juanita Spencer and school chorus; recitation in concert, "Robert of Lincoln," Fourth Grade; pupils; dialogue, "Lanchester," by Mildred Spencer, Ina Mullenberg, Martha Beck, William Beck, Lynn Smutz and Vernon Sherwood; recitation, "Mr. Turkey," Richard Keenon; recitation, "Watermelon," Donald Spencer; reading, "When Peter Milked the Cow," Wm. Beck; song, "America," by school and audience; recitation, "Mother's Precious Girl," Frances DeLong; dialogue, "A Poor Bargain," by six pupils; recitation, "The Strangers," Richard Keenon; recitation, "When Pa Begins to Shave," George Smutz; song by school, "Daniel Boone," a playlet which was put on by the school, was well done and showed a great deal of hard work by both teacher and pupils. The following was the cast of characters: Daniel Boone, Lynn Smutz; Rodrigo Kenton, Arthur McCall; Allen Rigdon, Vernon DeLong; Blaise Pritchard, Wm. Beck; Edward Bryan, Ralph Stringham; James Colby, Richard Keenon; White-Fish, Chief of the Shawnees, Vernon Sherwood; Hawk-Eye, Shawnee warrior, Mildred Spencer; Eagle's Feather, Shawnee warrior, Ina Mullenberg; Indian braves, pupils of school. At the conclusion of the play tableaux were formed and "Red Wing" and "Our Oregon" were sung. Through the courtesy of I. D. Smutz, the small evergreen trees were furnished for the scenes on the stage. The Spencer brothers, Marion, Charles and Roy, furnished music for the evening.

Two-day morning Johnnie McAnish, who lives at Cove, loaded a nice fat hog in a crate in the back end of his back and started to La Grande. When about half way to La town Mr. Parker saw a chance to make a long leap to freedom and jump he did. Johnnie never missed Mr. Whitecoat till he got within about five miles of La Grande, where he stopped to talk to an acquaintance. After the hog had made his high dive he followed the team which was traveling quite slowly and it wasn't long before the fun of trying to recapture him began. Round about and round about and round about they ran—across the road and down the road till Johnnie's head fairly swam. Finally Johnnie's friend resorted to a lasso and by all kinds of maneuvering the provoking animal was captured and landed in the crate. Johnnie declared that he was "clean given out," and the next time he brings a race horse to town in the form of a pig he will either hobble him or nail the crate so he can't do any circus stunts.

evening, returning home Sunday evening. While here she was the house guest of Mrs. P. Y. Young and her visit was greatly enjoyed by old-time friends.

A dance was planned for Saturday evening and, in spite of exceedingly inclement weather, quite a number of people were present. Everyone reported a good time. Hot refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Wm. Briggs of Starkey made the trip to Hilgard on horseback Saturday. Mr. Briggs has a bunch of cattle mostly feeders, which he is moving to Echo. On account of the severity of the weather he is making arrangements for having them shipped as it is impossible to drive them through the deep snow.

Mrs. Young, who has been living at the Young ranch with her sons some miles up the river, left Monday night for Italia and will spend some of the winter months with her daughter near there.

Mrs. Frank Sanford spent Thursday shopping in La Grande.

Mrs. Albert Cottrell spent several days of the past week with friends at the Cottrell home near here.

On account of the short winter days the school hours have been changed in order that school work may be carried on during the lightest part of the day. School now begins at 8:30 a. m. and closes at 3:15 p. m., and the arrangement is found to be most practical and convenient for the rural school.
